

Small Town Ohio

I am from map-less dirt roads and late-night drives, Getting lost in cornfields after Friday night lights

I am from blue collared workers with dirt under their nailbeds
Working sunrise to sunset living the American dream

I am from rural America that lacks diversity and inclusion
But supports the community through thick and thin

I am from the people living free and proud because of the soldiers that rest in peace