HERB DAVIS WILL BE SEEN IN "X"-LINE-UP. RAY WURZELBACHER ELECTED TO CAPTAINCY.

STELLAR PIGSKIN STAR RETURNS

18 VETERANS REPORT

Herb Davis, Xavier's All Western half back, second to Bo McMillan, has returned to his old team and followers. Davis was somewhat dubious about returning to Xavier but the star griddler has definitely decided to come back. Coach Joe Meyer as usual, refused to comment except when he viewed his squad the other day from the club house. To a by-stander he unconsciously said "Prospects look good." Xavier fans can assume a world of encouragement from this, because such a statement from the noted mentor is seldom extracted.

With the Navy game on the crest of grid activities and anticipating a victory over the Haskell "Redskins," some thirty loyal Xaverians donned the mole-skins at Corcoran Field on September the 18th.

Despite the absence of Noppenberger and Kahoe, together with those veterans lost through graduation, Coach Meyer refuses to allow anything to prevent him from developing the best grid-machine in the history of Xavier. The loss of lettermen only serves to spur on the new aspirants who are fighting for a coveted position on the team that will represent the Blue and White at Annapolis on Armistice Day.

SCHOOL OF COM. AND SOC. HOLD GET-TO- GETHER MEET.

FACULTY MEMBERS SPEAK

On Friday evening, September 22, the School of Commerce and Sociology held a meeting in Memorial Hall, where the old Xavier spirit was instilled into the new members of the school and renewed in the old. Mr. Thomas, Reverend Father Brockman, S. J., Ben Mulford, Jr., Frank Crane, Alfred Brendel and other members of the faculty gave short addresses which were enthusiastically received. It was the largest student gathering that was ever assembled in the history of the school, there being about five hundred students and prospective students, in attendance.

Two new courses were introduced in the School of Commerce and Sociology, one, Logic, under the direction of Reverend Daniel O'Connell, S. J.; the other, American History and Civics taught by Mr. James E. O'Connell.

Every student of every department of St. Xavier is expected to learn the new Foot-ball song, printed on page 6.

COACH "MELLON" DOHERTY

CAPTAIN WURZY

WURZY IS CHOSEN TO LEAD BY MATES

KING & DOHERTY COACH

The failure of Herb Davis to return to Xavier at the beginning of training season necessitated the election of a new captain. Ray Wurzelbacher, veteran half back and running partner of Davis was chosen by his 1921 mates as their leader. Wurzy realizing the responsibility of his selection has turned his energy into earnest training so that on Armistice Day he will be able to lead against Navy, the greatest football team that was ever produced by Xavier. The plunging Captain feels confident that with Herb Davis in the line-up, X will pull a big surprise on the gods.

To insure a successful season two new coaches have been added to the staff. Lawrence "Mellon" Doherty, a former St. X griddler who in 1920 achieved fame as center on "Greasy" Neale's outfit at Marietta, is putting some "punch" into the line. Joe King, guard of last season and sufficiently known in football circles, pilots the Freshmen aggregation.

A hotly contested fight is on for end positions. Mueller is likely to decorate the left wing while "Red" Hart and "Fish" McGarry are waging a war of extermination on the opposite flank. Rain or shine the bugle of Coach Meyer summons the college warriors at Corcoran Field and many a good show has escaped the members of the squad.

PUBLICITY BUREAU IS NEW IMPROVEMENT FOR XAVIER

GEO. BIDINGER DIRECTS

A long needed project in the rapid growth of St. Xavier was realized with the opening of the present school year by the establishment of a St. Xavier publicity bureau. The bureau is under the direction of George Bidinger, former editor of the Xaverian News.

The purpose of this office is to assist in getting more news of St. Xavier in the columns of the secular and religious press. Other mediums of publicity that may arise from time to time will be used to the fullest extent, according to Bidinger.

Office of the bureau is No. 12, St. Xavier High School building.

Sincere condolences are offered to our Reverend Rector, Father James McCabe, S. J., whose brother died, Thursday evening, Sept. 21, at his home in Xenia, O. The funeral services which Father McCabe attended, were held Sept. 25, at St. Brigid's Church, Xenia.

THE B. & O. RAILROAD IS ARRANGING AN ALL EXPENSE TOUR TO WASHINGTON, D. C., FOR OUR NAVY GAME. WE LEAVE ON THURSDAY NOON AND RETURN SUNDAY NIGHT, ARRIVING IN TIME FOR CLASS MONDAY MORNING. RAILROAD FARE, BERTH, HOTEL, MEALS AND PERHAPS SEVERAL RUBBER-NECK RIDES AND THRU THE CAPITOL, WILL ALL BE INCLUDED FOR THE APPROXIMATE COST OF $50.00. THOSE WHO CAN MAKE THIS TRIP OR WISH ANY INFORMATION, SEE LUKE LEONARD AT ONCE.

LAW COURSE LENGTHENED TO FOUR YEARS

A decided step forward toward the betterment and further advancement of the Law College was made by the inauguration of a four year course. Heretofore the course has been a three year one, but with the increasing number of subjects which it has been necessary to add from time to time, three years have been found to be too short a time for the mastery of the various studies.

The course for the first year students will include the law of contracts, torts, crimes and criminal procedure, personal property, domestic relations and common law pleadings.

As income tax and accounting questions have taken on such great importance recently, a very comprehensive course in State and Federal Income Tax Accounting has been added to the curriculum of the senior class.

The Law College is now recognized to be one of the best of its kind in this part of the country, and present indications are that there will be a record enrollment this year.

NOTES OF ALUMNI

W. J. Schimpf, B. C. S. '22, is connected with the Brighton Bank and Trust Co.

O. A. Stammes, B. C. S. '22, matriculated at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C. He is pursuing a course in foreign diplomacy. Some day St. X. will have a Plenipotentiary on its list of Alumni.

Edward Dorr, L. J. H. '22, is practicing law with the local firm of Brink, O'Connell and Dorr.

James E. O'Connell, A. B. '14, is gradually withdrawing from his High School faculty position on account of his legal business. He is also interested in the firm of Brink, O'Connell and Dorr.

Catherine Carter, B. C. S. '22, holds a responsible position with the Chas. Schient Motor Car Co.

Several Xaverians, members of local councils of the Knights of Columbus, were elevated to office in their respective organizations at the fall elections. Edwin Anthony, Liberal Arts '22, and Xavier High teacher, was chosen Chancellor of Archbishop Elder Council. Harry Knarr, student of Second Accounting and city recorder of Newport, Ky., was elected to the corresponding office in the Newport Council.

ALUMNI MEETING

An important meeting of the Alumni Association will be held on the first Wednesday in October. A revision of the Constitution and By-Laws is to be voted upon. If you have the interest of the association at heart you will not fail to be there.

A man is known by the work he does! Charles McCarthy is now a swimming instructor at the Y. M. C. A. We don't mean to insinuate that he is a poor fish but that he is a whale of a good fellow.

Who said that Ben Grasse would never be a president of the United States? He has already taken two important steps in that direction. He is a Democrat and a professor. He is teaching at Elder High School.

Frank Aman, A. B. '22 is pursuing a course at business school preparatory to entering upon a business career. Good luck, Frank.

Mr. Gabriel John Doerger, Joseph Clark, Ed. Walton and Ed. Anthony, all graduates of the College are now teaching at the High School, raising the quota of graduates thus employed to seventeen. "Aint we got fun?"

PHILADELPHIAN EDITOR WAS COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

The principal speaker at the college Commencement Exercises in June was Mr. T. A. Daly, celebrated poet and journalist, author of the "McAroni Ballads" and editor of the Philadelphia Record.

In his address, which he entitled "The Intemperate Zone," Mr. Daly dwelt upon the principal evils of present-day American life. The true panacea for these, he stated, is not enforced temperance and the so-called Blue-Laws, but Christian education. He said in part:

"Our country is physically, mentally and morally drunk, fortunately the condition is acute, not chronic; local, not universal.

"There are intemperances of thought, of speech, and of printed literature to be combated. Many of our novelists who profess to be inspired realists divinely sent to tilt a lance against 'Mid-Victorian sentimentality' are hypocrites, drunk with lust and greed. They write the stuff they do write, not from high artistic motives, but because the public will buy that sort of thing. These are some of the intemperances and hypocrisies you must fight.

"The world has been sick, but it is convalescent in spots. It has undergone no constitutional change. It is as vigorous, as human, yes, and as foolish as ever. Our own little section of it here, between the two oceans, is wobbly, but not hopeless. There are wounds and sore-spots on the body politic. It is true, and some of these we have aggravated because in our panic, begotten of the war in Europe, we have picked them or otherwise improperly treated them. We have developed a propensity for slapping a legislative plaster upon some spot that needed only to be left alone. In the anxiety of the alleged majority to hasten complete national sobriety we closed the gaping spot of intemperance with a plaster labeled "Prohibition, the World's Panacea," forgetting that this, like any other wound can only heal properly from the inside out, and not from the outside in."

TO THE CLASS OF '22

ALL'S WELL

How favor the fight with thee today?
Not well? Ah, nay,
Thou hast not lost, thou canst not lose,
However much they tear and bruise,
The panting breast, the straining thighs
Which are thy spirit's citadel
If thou and Faith, upon the walls,
Are comrades still when darkness falls,
Rest now! In sleep thy veins
Shall swell
With Hope's new wine, and like
A bell

From valleys deep heard on the height
Thy leagured soul, throughout the night,
Shall call to thee: "All's well!"

It is thyself alone that may
Thyself betray.

Arise again! Arise and fight!
God's smile is in the morning light;
Lift thou thy banner brave and bright
Above thy spirit's citadel!

What matter if its fall be sure?
The pilgrim soul thy walls insure,
Clinging the wings of Azrael,
In face of all the hordes of hell,
Shall take, full-armed, its homeward flight.

And o'er thy ruins, from the height,
Shall call to thee: "All's well!"

—T. A. Daly.

The News would like to hear from members of the Alumni.

MANY SISTERS RECEIVE NORMAL DIPLOMAS

At the close of the summer session for the teaching Sisterhoods of Cincinnati and vicinity, thirty-seven degrees and certificates were conferred by St. Xavier College upon as many candidates. The purpose of this summer session is primarily to meet the needs of the Sisters teaching in Catholic schools and academies who desire advanced instruction and further study.

The following Sisters received the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy: Sr. Louisa Rogers, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Mary Gosling, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Mary Camilla Wenstrup, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Mary Rosina Kemper, C. P. S., Sr. Mary Clotilda Koenig, O. S. B.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon the following: Sr. Teresa Mary McCarthy, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Mary Eulalia Feek, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Margaret Aloysius Doherty, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Agneta Immaculata Grawler, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Francis Flynn, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Rose Mary Newman, S. N. D. de N., Sr. Mary Petrouilla Ritter, C. D. P., Sr. Dorothea Francis, S. C. N., Sister Thomas Aquinas Heller, S. C. N., Sr. Mary Immaculata Snelinger, O. S. B., Sr. Mary Loyola Boland, S. C., Sr. Mary Joanna Schuler, S. C., Sr. Mary Lioba Holz, O. S. B., Sr. Mary Dominica Parret, S. M., Sr. Mary Edward Ann, O. S. U.

Normal diplomas were received by the following: Sr. Celestine Malone, Sr. Clarita Serenuar, Sr. Joseph Loretto Young, and Sr. Mary Christopher McKenzie, all of Mt. St. Joseph, Ohio; Sr. Mary Leonarda Balsey, O. S. F., Sr. Mary Herbert Theaders, O. S. F., Sr. Mary Edetrudis Andres, O. S. F., Sr. Martha Poelling, O. S. F., Sr. Mary Lucille Pothgery, S. N. D., Covington, Ky.; Sr. Mary Charlotte Ratchford, O. S. B., Sr. Benita Slesman, C. P. S., Sr. Lucia Anthony, C. P. S., Sr. Hilda Stelmann, C. P. S., Sr. Edith Piffel, C. P. S., Sr. Palma Haffner, C. P. S., Sr. Menodora McNally, C. P. S., and Sr. Magdalen Joseph Slesner, S. N. D. de N.

News has been received of the death of Dr. Otto Jaettner prominent physician and composer of "Saint Xavier for Aye." He was 67 years old. Born in Nimpfsh, Germany, in 1805, he received a thorough education there and coming to this country in 1881 renewed his studies at St. Xavier College from whence he graduated. To him we owe our undying gratitude. Requiescat in Pace.

George Bidenger is a court reporter on the Kentucky Post. He has promised his friends a banquet on the day he becomes editor and we are mean enough to hope he is promoted before lent.

Carl Wenstrup will never get over cutting up. He is assisting his father in the tailoring business.

Having fully completed his education Bill McCoy is now attending business school.

We always contended that Harold Spaeth would serve time. He is now entrenched as a time clerk at the Pennsylvania Depot.

The College Library has been considerably augmented during the summer months, chiefly by gifts from friends of St. Xavier.

Collections of books were received from Mr. and Mrs. Edw. J. Babbie, and Mrs. Mary L. Mitchell, mother of Col. P. Lincoln Mitchell. Mrs. James McArdle donated several sets of books, together with a bookcase to contain them and a handsome electric reading lamp. From Mr. A. H. Pugh, Jr., general manager of the Pugh Printing Co., of Cincinnati, the Science Department received valuable books and magazines of a scientific nature.

The Science Department thanks Mr. Oberly, lubricating manager of the local branch of the Standard Oil Co., for his recent gift to the college of valuable samples of lubricating oils. These samples, neatly bottled and classified, represent oils of many different viscosities and densities. Especially interesting is the specimen of Stanolux, a medicinal oil.

A new member of the Arts Department faculty is Father John Sennhauser, S. J., formerly of St. Louis University and St. Mary's College, Kansas. Father Sennhauser will be professor of German during the coming school year.

Mr. Wm. F. Hauser, professor of chemistry in the Arts and Science Department, wishes to thank the freshman class of 1922-1923, for their donation of $75 to the Chemistry Department at the end of the last school year.

The College was recently presented by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Verkamp, of Cincinnati, with an admirable copy of Van Dyck's famous "Crucifixion." The copy is by W. W. Woodward, and was made at Antwerp, in December, 1871. The original was painted by Anthony Van Dyck in the 17th century, and is celebrated for its sombre grandeur and intensity of expression. These qualities are effectively reproduced by the copyist, who was himself an artist of no mean ability. The gift is a notable one, and the faculty express their sincere appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Verkamp.

The News is proud to inform its readers that it has been made the official organ of the Saint Xavier Alumni Association. Watch for the news in the News.

SCHEDULE FORMIDABLE

A formidable schedule confronts the defenders of Corcoran Field and every effort is being made to add another glorious season to the annals of Xavier. Already the student body has planned the trip to oppose the "Middles" and all will be on hand at least in spirit. The "Injun," we fear, is whetting his battle-ax but we trust that his soliloquy following the fray will be "Indian to beat whiteman." With a reasonable amount of support the Blue and White will remain aloft the greater part of the season.

FRESHMEN HIT DUMMIES

Frosh Rounding Into Form Slowly But Surely Under King's Direction.

Freshman Liberal Arts football men under the tutorage of Coach Joe King, who is drilling the yearling men in the rudiments of the St. Xavier varsity style of football, are rapidly rounding into form for practice scrimmage workouts against the college eleven.

As the freshmen squad will furnish the varsity the only practice opposition available, Coach King of the first year team and Head Coach Joe Meyer are yearning for all former high school gridgers and those who have a liking for the sport to report.

Coach King after starting his workouts with light preliminary tactics has advanced each day so that at present the grid men under his charge are undergoing the stiffest practice sessions of clipping, tackling, dummy and bucking work, besides meeting the varsity in short scrimmage periods.

The freshman football has been contemplating a schedule of games with other college first-year teams in this vicinity. If Coach King's plans are carried to completion the freshman squad will play several other representative college frosh during the next two months.

Included among the freshmen gridgers out for workouts are "Tim" Johnson, Tom Murphy, Dick Madden, Jake Welner, Chad Egan, "Doady" Reynolds, Tom Musso and Tony Glenn, former St. Xavier High School athletes. "Ike" Winter, formerly of Hamilton Catholic High, "Bertie" Arnold of Christ Church amateur football fame, Pete Downey, "Jimmy" Boyle, formerly of the Ohio Mechanics Institute, Jim Madden, and "Tobby" Queenan.

Anthony Horstmann, Soph. Liberal Arts, played the leading role in a three act drama, "The Dead Witness" given at the Emery Auditorium, September 27, for the benefit of a new home of the Sisters of Notre Dame, Covington.

Ray Fecker has accepted the position of Student Manager of the Lunch Room. "More grub for more or less money" is the motto of the mystery-ball shop this year. Lets hope there will be more emphasis on the "less."

VACATIONS OCCUPATIONS

How Liberal Art Seniors Killed the Summer

Walter (Babe) Bartlett received compensation for driving a truck of the Ponton Dry Cleaning Co. Spent most of his time and Jack in billiard sessions with the boss.—"Mellon" Doherty.

Bill Bechtold utilized his lengthy limbs by blocking traffic on the Covington end of the Newport-Covington Bridge. He was bridge collector.

Jerry Corbett fleeced Uncle Sam at the rate of a penny a minute as a regular registered postal clerk. He favors an Evanston bank.

Yube Cushing worked zealously consuming three hearty meals a day, swimming, fishing, golfing and night-owling up in Malue. Mostly night-owling.

Louie Eberts realized a boy-hood ambition and also a little spending money climbing poles and installing burglar alarms for a home-town electrical company. He still maintains that Columbus is a right-smart burg.

Irv. Hart clerked in a local railroad for a while then spent a month at a New Jersey sea-resort. On his homeward journey he took in the bright lights of Broadway.

Ray Huwe completed a course at Littleford's Business School and also underwent a nasal operation. Tennis, swimming and the menial chores of his Westwood estate claimed his attention.

Luke Leonard lost a lot of sleep over Cincy while he was sailing, surf-riding, golfing, fishing and lots of other things, which he dismissed with a wink. Oh—those Michigan Mermaids!

Eddie O'Connor played upon a typewriter at his uncle's law office. Eddie was a physical wreck and almost went broke after a couple of weeks rest at I dan Lake.

James (Joe) O'Grady presided at the Walnut Hills Library. Joe spent most of his time getting acquainted with the town and the feminine readers of romance who patrolize his establishment.

Al Rolles served as athletic director of the Wade Street Playgrounds, ate at the Wheel daily and fondly hoped for the approach of the football season.

George (Bud) Seahill managed one flank in the chain of Schneider's Groceries. George seems to have almost as much knowledge of groceries as he has of the ladies.

George (Yatz) Sotemann was occupied in learning the drug trade at a local wholesale drug plant. The studious appearing, spectacled Senior is the Xaverian News poet this year. Lets have an ode on "Prescriptions."

Thomas (Red) Hart advances along the boulevard every day in a Ford roadster. Mother Nature gave our plucky football and baseball star a red mop but who in the "(X)" presented him with the wherewith?

Two weeks of stiff training previous to class session has enabled Joe Meyer to place an estimate on the candidates and to get the jump on Morris-Harvey for the initial contest on October 7. Among the veterans who have answered "present" are: Cushing, Irv Hart, Tom Hart, Mueller, Yale, Davis, Wurzelbacher, Hellebrand, Eberts, Marnell, Bartlett, Maloney, Rolles, Weiskittle, Mendham, McGarry, DuBois, and O'Connor. To bolster up vacancies in the line, Coach Doherty depends on Knecht, Baruchter, Kennedy, and Meyer. Rapp and Thompson seem to be the real finds in the backfield. Both are shifty, versatile, and are expected to register a big surprise to local grid spectators.

Three rivals have responded to the call for a punter. DuBois, Cushing, and Weiskittle all succeed in booting the pigskin afar and give Joe Meyer a real problem in choosing.

Every conceivable method of practice has been in vogue until the squad clearly manifests its excellent preparation for a stiff season. "Doc" Markley, trainer, has so administered to bruises, etc., that injury no longer is a valid excuse to avoid the dummy practice.

TOM KEHOE RECOVERS

Tom Kehoe, of senior law, who was at the Good Samaritan Hospital, is recovering from a fractured skull. There was little hope for his recovery at first, but he came through all right.

Tom was seen on the streets the other day, with his whole head bandaged. The fighting little corn cracker said, "Tell the boys I'm going home for a little rest, but will be back in a couple of months."

Tom hails from Cynthia, Kentucky, and has played good football at St. X for the past two years. His absence from the team at this time is indeed a great loss. He is not only a great favorite with the fans but also with the whole student body, being one of the most popular of the law students. His scores of friends wish him a speedy recovery.

TENNIS COURTS

The tennis courts now under construction are a welcome addition to the athletic equipment of St. Xavier. Situated on a terrace midway between the diamond and the gridiron, the location is ideal, one court has been completed and the remaining three will be finished shortly. Every lover of the racket awaits with eagerness the completion of the whole.

KING STARS IN COVINGTON GAME—XAVIER 13 COVINGTON 7

In a game which showed that Xavier has the material but lacks form owing to the early part of the season, the Hi-boys gave Covington the short end of the deal in their opener.

Coach Hall plans to strengthen the team by practicing interference until the Sycamore Street lads have a perfect department in this phase of the game.

Ray King played a spectacular game while his teammates played their part to the best of their ability. The victory over Covington probably will annex the over-the-river championship as the Red and White team as a rule presents the best from that vicinity.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY BEGINS YEAR WITH A BANG

This year marks the fourth year of the establishment of St. Xavier's Philharmonic Society consisting of Orchestra and Glee Club. The organization, under the able guidance of Mr. Brueker, S. J., has increased so greatly in proficiency and art that it has become a necessary element to the advancement of our school's activities. The musical selections this year are restricted to the classics, a marked divergence from the plans of other years. The violin section of the orchestra is unusually large, comprising twenty musicians while the Glee Club boasts of the largest membership it has ever had. A concert by the combined forces is planned in the near future, at which the newly annexed talent of the Society will become evident. Following is the personnel of the orchestra:

- Violins:—Eugene Perazzo, Francis Taftus, Roy Homer, John Steuz, Harry Schmidt, Howard Richter, William Kelly, George Dine, Dominic Farrell, Brudenham, Olfus Huber, Arnold Kelly, Gale Graham, Vernon Eveslage, Carol Wenzig, Francis Fin, Robert Buchelt, Howard Osterman, Leroy Herringer, Joseph Nefner, Edward Renner, Charles Struhl.
- Coruets:—Albert Rickling, Edward Wieland.
- Trombones:—Charles Rickling.
- Saxophones:—Joseph Grotty, Anselm Reekers, Sylvester Ruve.
- Drums:—Paul Ebelhardt.
- Bass:—McDermott.
- Piano:—David Brinkmoeller.

OH BOYS! LOTS O' LADIES

Arrangements are being made with the various academies and Catholic High Schools to extend to all students, fair sex and otherwise, the opportunity to see all the home games of the College Eleven for the insignificant, aggregate sum of $2.00. The different Convents have taken to the proposition very heartily. A large crowd of feminine rooters is assured.

Every subscriber of the Xaverian News is requested to fill out one of the following and present to the Editor of his or her department. CHARLES S. PURDY NEW LAW SCHOOL SECRETARY

So great was the success of Mr. Charles H. Purdy, A. B., LL. B., as secretary of the School of Commerce and Sociology, that the Board of Trustees of the Law College decided to prevail upon him to undertake the secretaryship of the Law Department. He entered upon his duties in this capacity on July first and the results of his good work are already in evidence. Mr. Purdy's zeal and untiring efforts in behalf of the College have won the admiration of all and made him one of the most popular of the officers of the college.

Mr. Elmer Conway, the former secretary, has been named vice-dean, and Joseph P. Goodenough will be the librarian, and Mr. William T. Burns assumes the duties of Registrar of the Law College.

NORMAL SCHOOL OPENS

The winter session of the St. Xavier Normal School for the teaching Sisterhood of Cincinnati opened September 30. Beginning with that date, classes in the Liberal Arts will be held each Saturday at the St. Xavier High School Building, Sycamore Street.

Registration has been in progress for some time, and the enrollment is large. In addition to the Sisters many lay persons have registered for the course, among them several former students of the College.

ARTS STUDENTS ASSEMBLY MEETS TO OPEN ACTIVITIES IN AVON DEPARTMENT

Kennedy, Huwe, Geerin, Keefe, J. Muscio, Rush and King Deliver Opinions to New and Old Students

A Meeting of the Arts Student Assembly was called by Chairman Joe O'Grady on September 27. Phil Kennedy spoke in behalf of the drive which is now on to finance the building of a College dormitory. The Arts students, he reported, have been assigned a quota of $2,000, which calls for an average pledge of $20 per student. If so desired payment may be spread over a period of two years.

Ray Huwe, Chief of Xavier's scribe club announced that the main office of his paper will be removed from the High School Building to the College Library Building, Avondale.

"Pat" Geerin and "Cornwall" Ed. Keefe urged peppy cheering at the football games. John Muscio, president of the St. Xavier College unit of the C. S. M. C., eloquently exhorted the students to support the foreign missions during the present school year. Warren Rush solicited patronage for the bowling alleys and announced that an interclass bowling tournament will be held after the Christmas holidays. Joe King, freshman football crack called upon all able bodied freshmen to turn out for football practice.

VIA DUCKS

An old Southern negroe was asked by the proprietor of a store how he happened to need credit when he had such a good cotton crop.

"De ducks got 'bout all dat cotton, sah," was the mournful reply.

"What do you mean, the ducks got it all?"

"Well, you see," explained the old man, "I sent dat cotton up to Memphis, an' dey deducts the freight, an' dey deducts the storage charges and dey deducts the commission, an' dey deducts the taxes—yes, sah, deducts got 'bout all dat cotton, nu dat's how come I see here."

Richard Madden, Murray Paddock and Tom Manion will lead L. A. Freshmen

Richard Madden was honored with the presidency of the Freshman class at a meeting of the first-year men held Friday, September 29. Madden defeated George Fee, James Boyle, James Frohmyer and George Reynolds, also contestants for the office, by a large plurality.

By defeating Robert Queenan, Joe Egan and Edward Dabbitt, Murray Paddock received the Vice-Presidency.

Tom Manion will act as Secretary of the class. He defeated Goodwin Cahill, Jim Rohn and James Boyle, nominees for the position.

COL. OF COM. PROFESSOR EDITS NEW BOOK ON NEWSPAPER WORK

The press of "The Writers Digest," a Cincinnati publication devoted to writing and sale of manuscripts has just issued a neat book from the pen of Mr. Felix J. Koch, B. S., professor in the St. Xavier School of Commerce.

As its title, "Syndicating to the Sunday Supplement" implies, the book deals with the preparation of suitable material for the Sunday feature section of newspapers.

Professor Koch announces that his course on Writing for Profit has been lengthened to a full two semester course.

PHILOPEDIANS MEET, WILL SELECT OFFICERS AND THEN PROCEED UPON PROSPEROUS YEAR

The Philopedian Society of St. Xavier College held its first regular meeting in Science Hall, September 6, 1922. The change in time schedule making it more convenient for the majority is the reason for the unprecedented enrollment. Rev. Fr. Flynn called the meeting to order and outlined the work for the year, which promises to be one of lively interest and keen rivalry.

Due to the limited space of time allotted for the meeting, the business portion will be curtailed and the debate will be stressed.

The initial debate will take place October 4, 1922. The subject, one of nation wide interest at the present time is: Resolved: "That the eighteenth amendment should be modified to exclude light wines and beer from its prohibition." The affirmative will be supported by Messrs. Moore and Kennedy, while the task of defending the prohibition has been given to Messrs. O'Grady and Thorburn. Opinions on this subject are being gathered by the Literary Digest and The Cincinnati Enquirer through the medium of the straw vote.

College of Sociology to Have Separate School

The hope expressed by Rev. Father Gressle at the banquet held last May that soon we may have a School of Sociology as well as a School of Commerce has been realized. Sociology now has a School of its own with Rev. Father Francis A. Gressle as Dean.

This step was taken owing to the large number of young men and women who have taken up the study of social work within the last few years. There is a large field for workers in this profession, but a successful social worker of today must possess a wide range of theoretical and practical knowledge of social work. Realizing this need St. Xavier School opened up a course for social workers several years ago. We now have a separate School of Sociology. Eventually will we have a degree?

MISS SAUER RETURNS FROM EUROPE

Miss Luella Sauer has returned home after ten months service with the American Red Cross in Poland, where she engaged in Child Welfare and Family Relief Work.

Before returning home, Miss Sauer visited many of the principal cities of Europe and also attended the Passion Play at Oberammergau. She also had the privilege of having an audience with the Holy Father and receiving his blessing.

During the coming year Miss Sauer will teach English at the National Catholic Community House.

Miss Overman Takes Third Place In Ohio Bar Exam—All Xavier Candidates Pass

The co-eds are still continuing in their favorite occupation, namely, walking off with all the honors. The latest achievement is that of Miss Anne Overman, who secured third place in the Ohio Bar Examination, among 376 candidates. Her grade was 91%, which was but seven-tenths of a per cent less than the winner of the first place received. The news was cabled by friends to Miss Overman at Rome, where she was travelling at the time.

Miss Overman's record is indeed an enviable one, this being her third great triumph within the last three months. She took second place in the Kentucky Bar Examination and won the $100.00 prize offered by the Hon. Robert J. O'Brien for the best senior law student at the college.

All of the other twenty graduates from St. Xavier who took the examination passed with high honors and most of them are now connected with law offices in the city.

The faculty and student body of the Law College unite in offering condolences to Cyril Helle, upon the death of his mother.

Mr. Daly closed his speech with an original poem written in honor of the St. Xavier College class of 1922:

CO-OPERATORS ASSIST AT LAWN FETE

The Co-operators were very much in evidence at the lawn fete given at Oak and Reading Avenues, for the benefit of the blind and deaf. They had charge of two booths, hard candy and box candy. The members responded very well to the appeal for their attendance, and many rolled up their sleeves, literally speaking and pitched in to the work at the booths, making possible the gratifying success that was achieved. As far as can be determined at the present time, the Co-operator's booths netted about two hundred dollars. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Mentink, Miss Pelman and Al. Boex.

Charles Seelbach, last year's high school editor and cartoonist, sends word from Chicago that he will attend a Cartoonist school in that city. Charlie certainly deserves praise for his art work in the recent pictorial. The News staff, in the name of the student body, wishes him good luck in his new undertaking.

Rev. Daniel M. O'Connell, professor of Philosophy and Sociology during the vacation months attended a conference of the leading Sociologists of the country. Father O'Connell contributed several articles of Sociology to the American and the Queen's Work.

An explanation of the Procter and Gamble profit-sharing system was very commendable. St. Xavier has reason to feel proud of her author-professor Sociologist.

Our exchange list includes a paper from St. John's College, Belize, British Honduras. The Mangrove as it is known is a unique periodical. The first half of this publication is devoted to news items and the last half to a Spanish translation of these same items. Our South American fellow students under the Jesuit banner would have a gay old time in our Spanish classes. Dr. Penna claims that the Spanish of this paper is of a very classical literary type.

THE SODALITY

The sodality of the College of Liberal Arts will reorganize September 27, 1922. The prospects for a record attendance are bright. Business in this organization will be conducted on a much larger scale than formerly, due to the unprecedented enrollment. Judging from the freshman register alone the sodality will have to hold overflow meetings.

STUDENTS ENTER SEMINARIES

Seven students from St. Xavier entered seminaries this Fall. Three of these entered Mt. St. Mary Seminary, Cincinnati. They are: A. J. Favret, Ralph Kramer and Leonard Youder Brink. The remaining four, Carl Fisher, Leo Grote, Francis Lang and Leo Wilson, are to study at St. Mary, Baltimore.

LET'S GO

The College Club is giving a real novelty dance at the Sinton Hotel Ball Room on November 24—Friday night. The affair is being arranged for the benefit of the Dormitory Fund and we want all the students to get behind it and make it a success—socially and financially.

Arrangements have not yet been completed by the committee in charge, but further announcements will be made later. We take this opportunity of informing the student body, in order that they—being forewarned—may also be forearmed. We all know what it means to be forearmed for a dance. Where's the Telephone Book?

A REAL REMEDY

Xaverian spirit in the past has been sadly lacking. Student attendance at football, basketball and baseball games has been very small. As the abyss of indifference, our rooting has been shameful. What is the underlying cause of this condition? It's our weak-kneed, tea-strong college pep. Pep is a quality, the same as honesty, which demands nursing, correction and nutrition. Pep is founded and nursed in high school. In Freshman class it is corrected. Henceforth it needs food. It has an appetite which must be served or it will wane. This is the ailment of St. X pep. It is weak from lack of sustenance.

The proper ingredients that will develop and strengthen our Indian parts are intermural sports.

Class spirit could be developed by the first, second and perhaps third tennis team which each class might present. A little class tournament scheduled about the second week of school year, played off at the noon hour, daily, would incite interest that could easily be turned into another channel. The annual Freshman-Sophomore pig-skin frolics would aid materially in the rally of pep. Then during the off-months when the weather prevents out-door activities, bowling takes its stand. Considerable rivalry and spirit was experienced last year in this item.

Baseball in the spring is welcomed by all. A league of four classes could easily be formed. A noon hour game, not necessarily of nine innings, would serve to expell spring fever and simultaneously develop the old spirit. The sun's impelling influence driving man to B. V. D.'s or less might produce class track teams. It's a real tonic to see a group of sprinters striving to outpace one another. Tennis again will be sought by its devotees. Individuals play for the right to represent their class on the various teams. Class and individual tournaments are renewed. In the progress of all these events class spirit and pep mounts.

From another viewpoint, excellent exponents of minor sports, a phase of athletics in which St. Xavier will soon be represented, can be developed. A limit of perhaps two varieties for an individual might be enforced. Then 'every student' would have an opportunity to participate in some sport.

Senior dignity, Junior aloofness, Sophomore maturity, Freshman rioting vanish in a physical contest. Spirit, pride and partnership, through these lesser rivalries, magnify into a combination that is surprisingly immense. Pep necessitates continual action, if it is to last. These incessant encounters serve as its food. Events of this nature endear a student to his Alma Mater. When a common foe looms in the distance all class and athletic differences disappear. The student body unites and with the spirit that has held sway in minor struggles, surges forward to uphold the Blue and White as its superb teams justly deserve.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATING

The Philopedian Society, beginning with the present school year, will assume a new aspect to students of Xavier. Heretofore the inconvenient time of its sessions prevented many worthy and capable arbitrators from gathering the fruits that it afforded. Football, baseball and basket-ball men, likewise those who worked in the afternoon or travelled afar to reach their homes were never given an opportunity. These have been the obstacles that hindered the Society since its organization. But time and consideration have joined to obliterate such difficulties.

The class schedule has been arranged so that all students might enjoy the privileges of the Philopedian Society. Every Wednesday, at 10:40 A. M., the forensics will assemble to consider the problems of local, sectional, national and international importance. The Sophomore Public Speaking class will probably be held in joint with the Debating session. With these opportunities not only knocking at but knocking down our door we can stride lengthily in the path of progress.

With only a few more than were interested in last year's Society we can now consider intercollegiate debating. Side by side with our athletic teams, our student publication, our english and latin scribes, our debating teams can seek more honor for 'X.' During the last weeks of school last spring we received a challenge from the University of Detroit debating team; but it came too late in the season. We would welcome similar challenges and with the new members of the upper classes who were unable to join the Society we could present several formidable teams. We might challenge the other Jesuit colleges of the Missouri province whose equal or superior, athletically and scholastically, we have proven to be in the past.

It certainly would be a boon for Xavier to put a debating team into the Inter-Collegiate field. It is an item that should be sponsored by the Philopedian Society, the Faculty, the Xaverian News, the Student Council and all other organizations and individuals who have the publicity and advancement of our college at heart.

XAVIER'S NEW FOOT BALL SONG

We'll rally round, we'll rally round, we'll rally round old Xavier
When fields of fame

Exalt her name

We'll proudly rally round.

And if her conquered colors droop, we'll rally with a will,
With a Sis : Boom : Xavier : Undaunted still :

CHORUS

March on, march on, old Xavier: Thy loyal sons and true,

We rally round

Thy praise to sound,

To pledge our hearts anew.

Give a Cheer, a rah; rah; rah:

Give another and a tiger, ah:

For the noble White and Blue.

In proud acclaim

Shout, shout her name,

Old Xavier: Hurrah:

Mr. G. B. Donnelly, S. J., of last year's High School wrote the words of the song and Mr. H. F. Brucker, S. J., the melody. The combination is a very appropriate football song. It has received the approbation of the Athletic Council and the Faculty.

There's a place for everything—except your knees at a movie.

OFF THE CHERUB'S LYRE

THE HAVEN OF MEMORY

Do you remember
Our great love's pure unfolding
The truth you gave,
And prayed for God's upholding.
Long and long ago.

Out of the past
A dream—and then the waking
Comes back to me.
Of love, and love's forsaking
Ere the summer waned.

Ah! Let me dream
That still a little kindness
Dwelt in the smile
That hid my foolish blindness
When you said good-bye.

Let me remember
When I am very lonely
How once your love
But crowned and blessed me only,
Long and long ago

Senior:—"Dearest, my heart is running a gauntlet of deliciously joyful emotions."

Dearest:—(Drawing away hastily)
—"So is your nose."

A retired and very old naval officer was showing a Kentucky Congressman and his wife over an antiquated battleship, one of the relics of nautical construction—"This," said he, pointing to an inscribed plate on the deck, "is where our gallant admiral fell."

"No wonder," replied the Kentuckian's spouse. "I nearly slipped on it myself."

OLD DARNKY'S ADVICE

Don't be what you ain't;
Jes' be what you is,
If you is not what you am
Then you am not what you is.
If you're just a little tadpole,
Don't try to be a frog;
If you're just the tail,
Don't try to wag the dog.
You can always pass the plate,
If you can't exhort and preach.
If you're just a little pebble,
Don't try to be the beach.
Don't be what you ain't,
Jes be what you is.

DO YOU KNOW ALL ABOUT IT?

Judge John Edwin Reynolds, sixty-two years old, of Arcadia, La., is enrolled as a law student at the University of Michigan, where he will spend his next nine summers completing the law course. We don't know Judge Reynolds, but we do know that he has one of the finest qualities possible in a jurist or in anybody else. He is still eager to learn.

IN THE CHIEF'S MAIL BOX

DEAR EDITOR-IN-CHIEF:—

With the opening of the football season at Corcoran field, would it be expecting too much from the athletic department at St. Xavier to provide a student band for the home games by exerting every effort towards financing this band at least during the first year of its organization?

Other colleges and universities have their band-men in a prominent location for each athletic contest and whether it is believed or not, the musical contingent go far towards "cheering on" the mole-skin warriors to victory.

Surely St. Xavier college students who play brass instruments would not forsake a few hours of time each month for practicing and playing at the college games.

Yours,

SCHOOL SPIRIT.
