FROSH-SOPH

To Stage Grid Fight

Coaches King and Doherty Will Train Rival Teams. Davis In Line Up

After a lay-off of several years the Sophomore and Freshman classes will once more renew activity on the grid-iron. A game between the two classes has been arranged for Wednesday, December the 6th, at Corcoran Field. From all present indications a hot time will be had by all as spirit is at a high pitch at present. Captain Madden of the Freshman outfit promises a strong line-up and also hints at a few surprises which he has in store for the naughty Sophs.

Many embryonic stars are expecting that the stadium will be packed by students and outsiders. Negotiations are under way to secure the services of the St. Anthony Academy Band as a parade of all the college students will precede the game. A committee of Freshmen and Sophomores are waiting on Coach Meyer, High School Coach, Tom King and Wm. Tleken to act as officials. Joe King will coach the Freshmen, while "Melon" Doherty will insure some class by priming the Sophs. Here is every evidence that the crowd will not be disappointed.

JURISTS ADMIT FIRST-CLASSMEN INTO SOCIETY

LEARY LEADS FRESHMEN

Twenty-five students of the Freshman Law class were accepted as members of the Jurist Society at the first meeting of this year, held on November second. The candidates for membership were made to respond to several original (?) questions propounded to them by James Benz, the sergeant at arms.

Plans for several mock trials to be given under the auspices of the Jurists are under way, while the committee on Debates, consisting of Charles Heilker, Eugene Leary and George Maggini, is preparing for several debates to be held in the near future.

The first and second year law classes organized last Monday by choosing Gene Leary to guide the destinies of the classes for the ensuing year. Geo. Maggini was elected vice-president, Ralph Buzek, secretary, and to Larry Kane falls the great burden of taking care of the class money box.

XAVIER STAGES LATE RALLY, WINS OVER OHIO U., 13 to 7; ENTIRE BACKFIELD FEATURES.

150 ROOTERS SEE MARVELOUS BATTLE.

ATHENIANS OUTCLASSED AND OUTPLAYED

The B. & O. special which returned from Athens on November the 4th, bore a happy crowd of loyal rooters who beheld the most excellent brand of football ever put up by any Xavier eleven. The Blue and White gridlers decisively licked the highly touted up-starters and did it in a most sensational manner.

Xavier chalked up more first downs than the Green and White but was unable to score until the last eight minutes of play. Those eight minutes will long remain in the memory of those who were fortunate enough to witness such a thrilling tilt. Both teams were at full speed throughout the game and neither could gain a yard without a strained effort. The spirit and fight of "Old Xavier" finally overcame and as a result the boys brought home the victory, hard but fairly won.

Coach Finsterwald of the Athenians presented a formidable aggregation which outweighed the Xaverians at nearly every post. He also showed to the visitors a rare specimen in the way of a kicker by the name of Wise, a diminutive fellow with a healthy right toe. It was only through Wise's superb punting that Ohio U. escaped being scored on early in the game. Cushing too, at various stages of the game, got off some excellent boots, saving Xavier in many instances.

Xavier received the ball on the kick-off but failed to gain; Cushing punted, Ohio U. made a few gains through X's right side but Wise was forced to punt. Then the "Queen City" lads ran the oval to midfield but lost it. Ohio then piloted the plirskin to the 22-yard line where Wise attempted a place-kick. The attempt failed and Xavier took the ball on the 20-yard line. Both teams see-sawed back and forth until the middle of the second period when Ohio U. punted to Davis who fumbled, a Green and White warrior recovering. This led to the first touchdown of the game as a few minutes later Littler carried the ball over and Wise kicked goal. The score at the end of the first half stood Ohio U. 7, Xavier 0.

In the second half Xavier redoubled her energies in an endeavor to score. Finsterwald kept sending in new men in an attempt to stop the furious rushes of Marnell and Wurzelbacher, also the guffa around the ends by Davis and Cushing. Cushing seemed to outguess his opponents at all times using a wide end-run when apparently they expected a line back and vice versa. So far penalties and fumbles had prevented Xavier from scoring.

About half of the last period was over when the Blue and White started

FRANKLIN

Is Held Scoreless

Irv. Hart Marks Return To Game By Touchdown.

Score 20 to 0

Back to fight and form, the Blue and white eleven celebrated its return to Corcoran Field last Saturday, by holding Franklin College scoreless. Irv Hart contributed more strength to the already superb backfield while the line of the locals showed wonderful improvement in all respects. Seldom, if ever, were the Indianians within scoring distance, so well did Xavier's linemen block punts and smash the formations of the visitors.

Franklin showed they were thoroughly versed in the game when in the first period several of the St. X plays went for naught.

Only once in this part of the game did Xavier carry the oval near the goal-line where the Franklin defense stiffened, preventing a score.

Shortly after the whistle began hostilities in the second quarter, Davis skirted the left end for two gains of forty and twenty yards. Irv Hart then plunged over. The kick from placement was unsuccessful.

LIBERAL ARTS STUDENTS ASSEMBLY STIRRED BY FRESHMEN CHALLENGE

The Liberal Arts Student Assembly met on November 2. Chairman, Joe O'Grady opened the meeting with a brief talk to the Freshmen in which he explained to them the purpose of the Assembly.

Luke Leonard urged the students to accompany the football team on its trips to Athens and Annapolis. Dick Madden, president of the freshmen class, created a sensation when he challenged the sophomores to a football game to be played at Corcoran field, December 6. The house went wild when Phil Kennedy, sophomore president, accepted the challenge on behalf of his class.

Ray Howe, chief scribe of the News, promised to support the Freshman-Sophomore game, and requested that all students fill out the address card issued by his paper.

Earl Winter urged the value of prayer before athletic contests.

Jarome Corbett urged better order at Assembly meetings and stricter observance of parliamentary law. He also spoke in favor of the suggestion with regard to prayer before games.

"MIKE" INJURED

Xavier's trusty backfield man "Mike" Hellenbal was injured in the knee, during the first period of the game with Ohio University at Athens. This is "Mike's" last year on Xavier's eleven and grid spectators are eagerly anticipating his early recovery so as to play in the two remaining games of the season.

PHILOPEDIANS VIE FOR POSITION ON DEBATING TEAM

MEYERS & O'GRADY WIN

Spirited discussions marked the competitive trial for places on the St. Xavier Debating team, held at the meeting of the Philopeditans, Wednesday, November 7. The subject was: Resolved, that the U. S. should demand full payment of debts owed her by the Allied nations: viewed from every conceivable angle, thus giving an idea of the scope of this all-important question. Almost every speaker developed another phase, or threw new light upon a former one. The Moderator, Rev. Joseph C. Flynn, S. J., expressed himself as well pleased with the spirit of the discussion and with the ideas expressed.

The winners as announced recently, are James J. O'Grady and Joseph Mayer. They will continue a systematic study of the question, although the side they will be called upon to defend will not be known until after St. Ignatius and St. John meet at Cleveland, on or before December 15.

THE COLLEGIATE IDEA

Among the other stages through which C. & S. must pass in its natural growth, the "night-high-school" stage must be most quickly dispensed with.

People are won't to compare this department with the academic or business courses in night-high-schools in the city. And like most comparisons, it is odious and detracts from the dignity of that department.

C. & S. is a college department and requires just as many high school credits to get into and just as many college credits to obtain a degree as any other institution of similar rank.

It's a college department—treat it as such and defend its name.

ST. XAVIER'S HOMECOMING DAY

Since St. Xavier has won its first Ohio Conference game and incidentally won it from one of the strongest teams in that Conference, both alumni and students have just reason to be proud of the showing Coach Joe Meyer and his men have made in their initial contest.

St. Xavier plays its only other Conference game of the season at Corcoran field, November 25. Otterbein will be the guests on that date.

Undoubtedly there were numerous students and alumni, as well as many Cincinnati followers of the "X" who were unable to make the journey to Athens, November 4. It seems almost certain that these will visit Corcoran field for the Otterbein game.

With this supposition in mind, the Athletic Council and the Alumni Association have designated November 25th as "Homecoming Day." They welcome all the alumni and former students of St. Xavier to join in the general celebration. Old acquaintances and class-mates will be on deck to pass out the glad hand, good fellowship will run rampant on the occasion.

A regular week end program has been arranged. Friday evening, November 24th, the College Club is giving an informal dance at the Sinton Hotel for the benefit of the dormitory fund. Saturday afternoon, at 2 P. M., is the grid event. While at 7 P. M., of the same day will be the "Homecoming Day" banquet combined with the S. A. T. C. feed at Hotel Metro-pole. Besides all the former students and grads, the present students of St. Xavier are invited to the banquet.

"Homecoming Day" is in vogue in almost every college in the country. Furthermore in no section is the "Homecoming" held with more solemnity than in that district which comprises the Ohio Conference. Likewise in other institutions the student body contributes much life to the occasion. It especially figures in the social side and partakes of the repast.

College life at St. Xavier is undergoing a change wherein the ideal spirit is beginning to be evidenced. The student body is showing more pep than at any time in the past. The Alumni and Faculty are striving strenuously to obtain for us many improvements. One of these, a dormitory. Let's get together and show our appreciation by helping to make "Homecoming Day" events, the greatest successes that St. Xavier has ever experienced.

OFF THE CHERUB'S LYRE

I beg your kind attention
While I mention my intention,
For what I want to say
Will smack of something gay.
If you shake a light fantastic toe,
If you crave jazzy melodies soft and low,
If you like a nice congenial throng,
The kind you've sought for long,
If you enjoy an evening of fun
With old man worry on the run,
Then let's see you at the dance
On the Twenty-fourth instance,
Of November. Please don't forget.
Be there! We guarantee no regret.

A BALLAD

Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold,
When folks unspolled by knowledge lore,
Did believe full well in charm and spell,
When knights did joust 'mid lists full roar,
Or fought with swords in leafy dell.
Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold.

Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold,
When wine flowed free and nobles young,
Kept keen lookout for honors share,
When merry rogues were caught and hung,
And straightway died without a care.
Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold.

Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold,
When witches spelled o'er boiling pot,
Or gathered roots 'neath glimmering moon,
When tongues were quick with sharp bon-mot,
And prattling fools did die too soon.
Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold.

Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold,
When woman's love was sweet and pure,
And men were slaves to their beguiles;
And they the strongest men did lure
With their damean and clinging wiles.
Oho for the goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold.

Oho for the goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold,
When castle walls were camped around,
And valiant fights were waged each day,
When wandering bards made tuneful sound
With whistling pipes and cats free lay.
Oho for goodly days of old,
When men were strong and knights were bold.

—Scribe Audly.

X-CHANGES

The Morris Harvey Comet says in its article on their Virginia Poly Game, that despite the fact that Virginia Poly beat them 62-0 and St. Xavier only 45-0, St. Xavier has a much better team. To quote them, they were "outweighed, outplayed and outclassed" by St. Xavier.

Colgate is entering upon what may prove to be a new epoch in its history. In the course of the next month or two the university is to have a new president, a new dormitory, and a new gymnasium and a new football coaching system. In its existence of more than a century, the institution has never faced a brighter period than it faces today.

More than one thousand frosh caps were sold at Ohio State University.

The New York Polo Association is doing its best to get the game of polo started in the American colleges. The chairman of the association asked the athletic authorities of the various Eastern colleges to have all their students who are interested in polo to attend the matches played at Philadelphia this last week. Princeton has joined the Polo Association as its first Collegiate member.

A "no smoking" rule for co-eds at the University of California is now in effect. The chairman of the student affairs committee has asked the sorority presidents to see to it that there are no violations to this rule.

Speaking at the dedication of the new Morrison gymnasium of Missouri Valley College, Marshall, Mo., Governor Hyde of that state declared that there is more meat put on mental bones by the denominational college than at state universities.

Governor Hyde also is quoted with saying that if he had $500,000 for the founding of a college he would spend $400,000 on football, as this would make the college. He said the three things necessary to good government were religion, morality and knowledge.

MEYERMEN LOSE TO MIDSHIPMEN

Xavier Displays Stellar Offensive, But Line's Inability To Withstand Navy's Bucking Machine Proves Fatal. Enjoyable Journey.

Despite the fact that the score was one-sided and that several of the local newspapers colored the defeat most woefully, Xavier made a showing that is not all together to be despised. Nine first downs, seen in the first half, were only as nothing to hide from grid followers of "X." I can state one of the best elements of the East, accumulated only seven first downs against the same machine, the Navy regulars against whom we made our first seven. Pennsylvania U., the conqueror of the Middle West, fighting the same identical team, made only six.

Although out-weighted 15 pounds to the man, at the early stages of the game, the "X" line and backfield pulled off some splendid work. Effective enough to cause consternation among Navy rooters. In the first quarter after Navy swept the ball down the field for its initial touchdown the local boys came back with vengeance.

Courry kicked off to Wurzelbacher, who returned the ball to his own twenty yard line. Cushing on his first attempt failed to gain but then on the next play made 15 yards around end for Xavier's first down. Davis followed suit with a sensational run of 15 more yards, rounding the flank. Another first down for Xavier. Here the Xavier line made several nice holes and Marnell ploughed through for a gain of four and then a gain of six yards.

The Xavier rooting delegation went frantic while the Midshipmen were crying to their warriors in great alarm. St. X at this period had the Navy's goat and bucked the line at will. Wurzy made three yards off tackle. On a criss-cross Davis was thrown for a four yard loss. The ball was on Navy's twenty yard line, Xavier had marched it down the field for sixty yards. Cushing forwarded to Mueller, who running behind Navy's goal line missed the oval, by inches. It was a fairly good pass but slightly misdirected because Navy forwards had all but smothered the Xavier general before he hurled the pig-skin. At this interval the Sailor's line stiffened and the White and Blue were held for downs. It was Xavier's one chance of scoring but Beef had its way and our chances flared.

In the second half Navy presented a new team. A lad named Norris and Flippin, a 1921 sub on Center College, proved to be a wrecking combination. Norris especially rivaled some of the performances of Davis in open field running. Navy had a perfect interference department, as many as four and five men continually making way for the carrier.

The New York Times and many other Eastern periodicals gave St. X splendid writeups, much better in fact than our own local organs. Says the Times in part:

"The light team of St. Xavier of Cincinnati played against the Naval Academy this afternoon in the last game for the Midshipmen on their own grounds during 1922, and lost by 52 to 0. But they played a fast, hard game and their famous backs, particularly Davis and Cushing, were always a menace, making many yards around the Navy's ends."

Although the boys did not bring home the bacon or a part thereof, they enjoyed themselves immensely on their long trip to and from Annapolis. In fact the trip was a trifle too long to allow them to be in perfect condition when they arrived in the East but they will not admit it. The historic attractions of Washington and the vicinity made

Franklin held the locals and Du Bois made an excellent punt of 55 yards from behind the goal line. Later when X recovered the ball by a blocked punt Davis again gained 20 yards at left end, soon after scoring and kicking the goal from placement. At this time the score stood 13 to 0.

In the final period gains by Davis, I. Hart, and Marnell enable Cushing to make the last touchdown. A successful kick from placement resulted in the final 20 to 0 count.

NAVY TRIP SQUINTS

Timmy Johnson, Bud Hart and John Dacey of Liberal Arts went all the way to Washington with the team. Their story reads like a Nick Carter thriller for we know how they did it. They certainly deserve credit for their nerve. This was one occasion when it paid to be small. We congratulate the boys on their dominating spirit to follow the team they are proud of.

Not a man of the team or rooters could say he did not enjoy the trip. Every thing was arranged for the convenience of all. The good-fellowship that existed and the wonderful rooting, incidently commented upon by the Navy, was due to the fact that everything was carried out without a hitch. Xavier players and fans can be thankful to the man who arranged the trip, Student Manager, Luke Leonard.

her victorious march toward the enemy's goal. Davis around end, Marnell through the line, Wurzy through the opposite side, and a successful pass, Cushing to Davis, all count in the story of the first touchdown when Wurzy went over. Failure to kick goal left the count 7 to 0 in favor of Ohio U. Believing the game to be won the home stands went into a joyous state of ecstasy. With only three minutes to play Ohio U. made the fatal mistake of choosing to kick to Xavier. Marnell received and ran forty-five yards to midfield. At this juncture the deepest shades of night descended upon the little band of rooters from back in "Cincy" for a Green and White figure leaped in the way of a pass and was downed on his own forty-yard line. By this time Ohio felt confident that she could hold the ball the remaining two minutes until the whistle would end hostilities. Then the bombshell, Ohio fumbled, and Mueller recovered. A criss-cross brought the ball to the eight-yard line. Here Coach Meyer showed his admirable generalship by sending in "Al" Rapp who in two straight plays made the winning touchdown. Davis kicked the goal. Xavier's rooters issued a yell that might have come from a crowd ten times their numbers.

Xavier Kicked-off, Ohio U opened up. On two passes they brought the ball

HIGH DEBATERS WISH TO MEET OUTSIDE SCHOOLS. FREE MASONRY DEFEATED.

The Debating Society is having plenty of action these days. A debate was held on October 31, 1922 on "Free Masonry" and Mr. Eagen and Mr. Welp upheld the affirmative, while Mr. Fisher and Mr. Welp upheld the negative. After a spirited debate, the affirmative was declared the winner while Mr. Welp was judged the best speaker. Mr. Norton, the supervisor of the Debating Society, then condemned Masonry for various reasons.

The Debate on whether or not the President of the United States should have a second term was held on Tuesday, November 7, 1922. Mr. Stenz and Mr. McCarthy upheld the affirmative, while Messrs. Kiefer and Janszen ably defended the negative. The negative was declared the winner and Mr. Stenz was voted the best speaker. By the way, this was the first winner the negative managed to garner this year. The Society is anxious to meet outside schools such as Woodward, Hughes, Walnut Hills and Eastside in debates.

Several new members have joined the Society and we wish that many more would join. Fellows, it means a great chance to learn parliamentary law, to learn public speaking, to learn how to conduct yourself in public speeches. Won't you join us? Further more, you will derive a great deal of pleasure out of the Society. Again, won't you be a member?

CRUSADE ORGANIZES

At the meeting of Sodality Officers, William Dammerell was elected President, Paul Rattermann Vice-President, Joseph Martin Secretary and Joseph Vehr, Treasurer of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade of St. Xavier High School. A large number was present, it being the third meeting of the officers this year. The purpose of the meeting as the Spiritual Director, Father Leaby, stated, is to have the entire work of the Crusade carried on by the students.

Fourth A Leads in Mission Collections

So far Fourth A with a class of twenty members leads in the amount of money taken up for the Foreign Missions. The total amount of the collection being $3.54. Third A came next with $7.27, also Fourth C with $0.33 and Third D with $5.33. The entire amount from all the classes was $72.51. Although this is very good, considering the difficulty in getting started, yet it is a good bit below the amount which should have come in.

XAVIER—55. O. M. I.—0 CROLLEY, CLOSTERMAN, CHENAL AND REARDON STAR.

On Friday, November 10, 1922, St. Xavier High clashed with O. M. I. at Corcoran Field. Did I say clashed? My error, what I meant was that Xavier walked over the O. M. I. bunch as easily as we walk to a turkey dinner.

From the first whistle there was nothing to the game but Xavier. Two minutes after the first whistle Bots Crolley rushed over the line for a touchdown. X. made two more touchdowns before the period ended and had O. M. I. on the short end of a 34 to 0 score at the end of the first half. When the smoke of the game cleared away the final score was 55 to 0.

So completely did the Blue and White outclass the Cadets that the latter did not register a first down. For the Xavier team Crolley, Closterman, Chenal and Reardon were the big guns, while captain Schmidt also played a neat game. Des Teban, injected into the game in the last quarter, made a dandy forty yard run around end, and shows great promise of being a regular and valuable one on next year's squad. Next Saturday, November 18, the Xavier bunch will meet Hamilton at Hamilton, and a hard fight is expected by the Blue and White.

NOTES OF ALUMNI

Rev. Henry S. Spalding, S.J., of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in Cincinnati, November 12, to conduct a retreat for the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, Carthage. Father Spalding is a well-known Catholic writer and editor of "The Queen's Work."

A recent distinguished visitor at the College was Monsignor Joseph Nunnist, of Berne, Switzerland. Monsignor Nunnist is visiting the United States to study the American parochial school system.

Mr. John D. Reardon, S.J., a former St. Xavier student, is visiting at the College for a few days. Mr. Reardon has recently returned to the United States from the Jesuit scholasticate in Jersey, one of the Channel Islands, where he went to complete his philosophical studies. He is on his way to St. Louis University.

J. D. Reardon, S. J., just returned from France where he has been engaged in special studies, was a recent guest at Hinkle Hall, Avondale.

Rev. J. R. Rosawinkel, S. J., a former student at St. Xavier who finished his studies in the early '70's, died November 8, at St. Joseph Hospital, Kansas City, Mo. He was 71 years old. He was a Jesuit missionary. Requiescat in pace.

FORMER ALUMNI HEAD EXPIRES

WILLIAM A. BYRNE

William A. Byrne, a former president of St. Xavier Alumni Association, died at his home, 118 East Eleventh Street, Covington, last week. He had been ill several weeks.

Mr. Byrne was born in Louisville, Ky., and came to Covington with his parents when a boy. He was graduated from St. Xavier's College, and later from Notre Dame University, where he was given the degree of L. L. B. He was admitted to the bar in 1877.

Shortly after leaving college Mr. Byrne entered the law office of the late John G. Carlisle, former Secretary of the Treasury under President Grover Cleveland.

In 1884 he was elected Attorney of the City of Covington. He was re-elected City Solicitor, in which capacity he served until 1892. After leaving this office he joined with County Judge John B. Read, of Covington, in the practice of law. At the time of his death Mr. Byrne was the senior member of the law firm of Byrne & Von Hoene, of Covington.

For many years, Mr. Byrne had been a prominent figure in Democratic circles in Covington. He also was active in almost every large civic and public movement in Covington for the last quarter of a century.

Mr. Byrne was a personal friend of Bishop Ferdinand Bossart, of Covington, and was active in the move which brought about the present Cathedral in Covington. He was a leader in the Holy Name Societies of Kenton and Campbell Counties and identified with all Catholic movements in Northern Kentucky.

Surviving Mr. Byrne besides his widow are one daughter, Miss Mariana Byrne, who is Sister Mary of the Immaculation at Melbourne, Kentucky, one son, John Byrne, who recently began studies for the priesthood in the Jesuit Order at St. Louis, Mo., and a stepson, Rev. George McNamara, of the Holy Cross Order at Austin, Texas. The late Carol McNamara, who was secretary to former Mayor George E. Phillips, of Covington, also was a stepson of Mr. Byrne.

High Mass was sung for Mr. Byrne in St. Xavier Church. A spiritual offering was given by the Alumni Association.

At the funeral the following members of the Alumni Association acted as honorary pall-bearers: Joseph B. Verkamp, Thomas E. Maher, Dr. Thomas P. Hart, William Wolking, James Sebastian, Frederick Mackentop. The members of St. Xavier Faculty assisted at the Funeral Mass.

St. Xavier college alumni have loyally supported the football team on the three recent trips to foreign soil.

At Athens, a special trainload of one hundred and fifty exerted every effort of voice and manner in urging the grid-ders on to victory and later in the day when the St. Xavier colors were victorious, staged a mighty victory celebration and parade on the streets of the college town.

A similar number of students, alumni and friends witnessed the Navy game at Annapolis, marvelled at the Sailor's well-oiled machine and hoped for at least one Xavier touchdown.

With the possible exception of the St. Ignatius game at Cleveland, a goodly number of fans have watched the White and Blue in games away from home.

The remaining games are all at Corcoran field. Every one should and does deserve the consideration of every student. The Otterbein game, November 23, will tell the tale whether or not St. Xavier will have a clean slate in the Ohio Conference standing. A victory in this game will rank St. Xavier among the leaders, if not indeed the peer of college teams in this group.

The mills of the gods grind slowly,
The they grind exceedingly small—
But, considering the stuff they have to grind,
It's a wonder they grind at all.

XAVIER SCRIBES ARE OFFERED SHORT STORY PREMIUMS

Baltimore Catholic Review Offers Prizes for Short Story with Catholic Atmosphere

The students of St. Xavier College are urged to muster their literary talent and challenge the opportunity given them by The Baltimore Catholic Review to participate in a short story contest. Prizes amounting to $175 in gold are offered for the best short stories written by graduates or students of Catholic Universities, Colleges or High Schools in this country. The first prize is $100, the second $50 and the third $25.

There are many here whose ability and literary bent should incline them to compete. A competitor may turn in three stories if he chooses and has a chance to win all the prizes. The stories should not exceed twenty-five hundred words and if successful will be published in the Baltimore Catholic Review. Natural, interesting, heart-gripping stories are wanted. Stories with a Catholic atmosphere but not too preachy are preferred. All manuscripts must be in the office of the Baltimore Review by February 15, 1923 with author's name, class and college or high school which he or she is a student or graduate of, and should be sent to:

The Short Story Editor, The Baltimore Catholic Review, 843 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Md.

CLASS PRESIDENTS ELECTED IN C. & S.

After some delay due mainly to the large increase in new students, class elections have been held, and the honorably elected have assumed the duties of their offices. As the Accounting course has been lengthened to four years there will be no graduates this year and consequently no senior class, the the present Junior Class will virtually occupy that dignified and respected position. In the very near future a meeting of the class presidents will be called by Edward Herricks, president of Junior Class and candidates for the offices in the Student Assembly chosen. Rumors of intrigue and conspiracy are afloat and it is suspected that a few surprises in the shape of dark horses will be forthcoming.

"Resolved that the Local American Legion was justified in sustaining Harding's veto on the Bonus Bill," was the subject of a debate held in the Effective Speaking class last Wednesday night.

Gunning and Ekes took the affirmative while Zumbli and Ardus upheld the negative.

A vote was taken and the decision was granted the affirmative, being carried by one vote.

The number of students is increasing at each session. New students are welcome.

HOME COMING AND S. A. T. C. BANQUET, NOVEMBER 25, AT METROPOLE HOTEL

Under the heading "Attention" a notice has been sent out by the Committee in charge of the annual banquet of the St. Xavier Unit Students Army Training Corps to ex-members of the unit. The banquet will be held November 25th. at the Metropole Hotel, and, as the notice states, company assembly will be held at 7 P. M. in the lobby of the hotel. Adjournment to the "Mess Hall" will follow review. The notice assures the members that no Ham Sausage or Mystery Balls will be served. The date, November 25th; has been purposely set to enable the men to see the Otterbein game which will be played at Corcoran Field on the same day.

The Committee consists of H. Bunker, Arthur Muggini and Mike Helenthal. Cover charges for the banquet will be $8.00. Notification of attendance and remittance of money should be made to Mike Helenthal, Fenwick Club.

XAVIER RAH!

(A parody on "Smiling")
If you fear the team won't win, try rooting.
If the score takes 'way your grin, try rooting.
If the referee seems unfair,
And the boys are not right there,
Sure it's tough, but then you might try rooting.
You'll not raise the score a bit, by rooting.
But it gives the players grit, if you're rooting.
For they surely like the sound,
And they'll start to cover ground,
And land that needed touchdown,—
'cause you're rooting.

TWO JUNIOR ACCOUNTANTS UNDERGO OPERATION.

By a strange coincidence two junior accountants, "Bud" Boex and Charles Niebauer, suffered attacks of appendicitis during the same week and were obliged to undergo operations.

"Bud" is in charge of the "Co-op" book store and was secretary to the Student Assembly in the C. & S. Department. Niebauer is chief clerk in a local freight office and was the recipient of a medal for efficiency in accounting last year.

Both men are recuperating nicely and will soon be back at school.

OBITER DICTA AND NOTES FROM THE LAW SCHOOL

How's this for college spirit? Exactly one-third of the law school coeds took the trip to Athens with the football team. Most of the men were also in evidence.

Gene Leary, our new class president, says his three hobbies, Wine, Women and Song are beginning to get the best of him. He has, therefore, decided to stop singing.

Dick McAuliffe, one of the most popular of last year's law students, has been seriously ill at his home in North Vernon, Indiana, for the last six months. Hurry up and get well, Dick, we're waiting for you to return.

Nine of the gridiron stars are enrolled in the law college. Yail, Monahan, Tom Hart, Rolfe, McGarry, Mueller, Helenthal, Kehoe and Pat Regan are the legal aspirants.

Charles McCarthy, of the freshmen class is chairman of the Committee on Debates, while an entertainment committee consisting of Miss Harrington, Miss Madden, Ed Walton and Bernard Grause, have started preparations for a series of original social affairs.

The "News" was delayed in order to publish the results of the Franklin game.
