COURSE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES: This course is part of the Xavier Core Curriculum, which aims to develop people of learning and reflection, integrity and achievement, in solidarity for and with others. It addresses the following core learning objective(s) at the introductory level:

- * You should be able to understand most French spoken slower than normal pace, understand some French spoken at normal pace, and develop skills and coping strategies for filling in the gaps of imperfect comprehension.
- * You should be able to ask and answer questions on a variety of everyday topics, describe people and places, narrate recurring events.
- * You should be able to perform many daily routines, such as greeting and leave taking, and so on.
- * You should be able to read almost any simple material related to francophone culture.
- * You should be able to write about everyday activities, and descriptions of people and places.

ASSIGNMENTS: Assigned work will be due as stated. Late work will not be accepted.

ATTENDANCE, DEPT OF MODERN LANGUAGES:

The entire range of the students' skills can be evaluated only if they are in class. Therefore, we will allow TWO absences without penalty.

Any further absence will result in a loss of 3% per absence from the student's course participation grade. If a student is more than 5 minutes late, he/she will be counted as absent.

Note: emailing me with an excuse as to why you were not in class is not the same as an "excused" absence. Official documentation should be presented to me within 3 days of your return to class. Should you be absent from class, you are still responsible for the material covered during your absence and are expected to be prepared for class upon your return.

CHEATING: Anyone cheating or aiding in any way on any class work or exams will be subject to punitive grading up to and including a FAILING GRADE FOR THE COURSE. This policy includes instances of plagiarism and academic dishonesty. Please note:

- All assignments must be written exclusively by the student.
- Use of online translators is prohibited and considered cheating (online dictionaries may be used outside of class).
- Use of a cell phone during any type of evaluation (quiz, exam, in-class composition, oral evaluation, etc.) will be considered cheating.

For further information regarding student conduct, see Hope's Code for Academic Honesty at www.xavier.edu/library/xu-tutor/Xaviers-Policy-on-Academic-Honesty.cfm

NOTE TO STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: If you have special needs related to a documented disability which may affect your performance in this course, please visit me during office hours or arrange an appointment with me within the first two weeks of the course to discuss your needs privately.

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR: Appropriate classroom behavior is expected at all times. It will be reflected in your PARTICIPATION GRADE. Any repeated, continuous, or multiple student behaviors that prevent me from teaching and/or prevent students from learning will not be tolerated. Please make sure to turn off your cellphone and PUT IT AWAY before class starts. Any student caught using a cell phone for any reason (without prior permission from me) will receive a 0 for that day's participation.

CANVAS: This site contains information and resources essential to the course. If you have questions or problems accessing the site, please call the Canvas Help Line.

PARTICIPATION: Learning a foreign language requires your active participation and a positive attitude. Class attendance alone will not suffice to earn participation credit. This grade includes measures of preparation for class activities; use of the grammar and vocabulary; use of the target language; and active involvement in class activities (see PARTICIPATION GUIDE).

DEVOIRS (homework): Homework includes activities in the online workbook accessed through Promenades' WEBSAM. Online assignment due dates can be viewed on the online assignment calendar once you sign onto the site and access your course. All assignments are due by 11:59pm on the due date. Frequently, some activities will be assigned in preparation for what will be studied in class the next day. In this case, refer to your textbook for help. Make note of any questions you have about the new material and be prepared to use what you've learned in class the next day. Additional off-line activities may be assigned by me and are due as indicated on the assignment calendar or as discussed in class.

RÉDACTIONS (writing compositions): There will be three short in-class writing activities focused on the cultural discussions, structures, functions, and vocabulary presented in the lesson. Lowest score is dropped.

QUIZZES: Periodic vocabulary and grammar quizzes will be given throughout the semester. If I specifically ask you to review a grammar or vocabulary point, there could be a pop quiz to check that you have done your homework. Lowest score is dropped.

CONTRÔLES (tests): Three tests will be given during the semester and will cover the culture and grammar you have learned in recent chapter(s). No make-ups.

EXPOSÉS: You will be asked to give three exposés (group presentations) throughout the semester with the final exposé taking the form of a skit. Topics to be discussed. Lowest score is dropped.

EXAMEN FINAL: The written final exam will be cumulative and summative in nature.

OTHER NOTES:

- EMAIL: I'm always happy to help and usually respond pretty quickly to email. If you haven't heard from me in a reasonable amount of time, assume I did not receive your email and shoot me another or speak to me after class!
- TECHNICAL ADVICE: I want to help you succeed the best I can academically, and am happy to answer questions related to coursework via email or during office hours. However, I am no computer technician. If for some reason you're having technical problems with WEBSAM or Canvas, please contact their respective technical helplines for troubleshooting first. I encourage you to NOT wait until the last minute to complete homework in order to head off any potential problems.
- CANVAS & Supersite: Make sure to check WEBSAM (Supersite) daily and Canvas at least weekly.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS: Daily practice is essential. When you study a foreign language, you build upon structures and vocabulary from previous lessons. Therefore:

- ❖ Read new material in the textbook before coming to class.
- ❖ Do WEBSAM activities as assigned before coming to class.
- ❖ Come to class every day, ready to participate.
- ❖ Spend time every day after class reviewing the material covered (it is suggested 5-6 hours outside of class per week).
- ❖ Memorize the vocabulary. Make flashcards.
- ❖ Practice speaking and listening using the various resources available in the Supersite.
- ❖ Ask questions!

NB: It is your responsibility to note the due dates for all assignments and tests. Late work will not be accepted without the student first notifying the dean as to the reason for the absence.

A grade of "C" is what students can expect who meet the basic requirements stated in this syllabus. To earn above a "C", students must demonstrate above average ("B") or outstanding ("A") performance.
