Alma Mater Xavier
led by Harriet Beebe

Dear Alma Mater Xavier!
Undying troth we pledge to you
That we the living shall hold true
The faith of those of years now gone
Inviolate kept and thus passed on.
So may the truth within us dwell
And may this song our voices swell
Until resounds o’er hill and dell
Dear Alma Mater Xavier.

Benediction
Elaine Wellinger, HM

Recessional
Rondeau, Jean Joseph Mouret
Trumpet Tune, Henry Purcell

Reception
Plaza Level of Coliseum
Xavier's Class of 1942 is celebrating its 50th anniversary this weekend. As our special guests today, members of the class and their guests are seated to the right of the stage. The University salutes the Class of 1942 for its 50 years of allegiance to its alma mater.

Msgr. Ralph W. Beiting

The good works of the Catholic missionary Msgr. Ralph W. Beiting have a legendary sheen belied by the pragmatic, down-to-earth presence and no-nonsense humility of the man himself. With a characteristic energy and optimism and an abundance of faith, Msgr. Beiting has ministered to the needs of the poor in Appalachian Eastern Kentucky since 1950, earning a reputation as a caring pastor and courageous street preacher and problem solver – an advocate of empowerment who, over the years, has helped bring dignity and economic self-sufficiency to thousands in need. He is perhaps best known as the founder and chairman of the Christian Appalachian Project (CAP), an interdenominational service organization founded in 1964 that today provides education, job training and emergency assistance programs to a population of nearly 50,000 of all faiths in 40 counties of Eastern Kentucky. A Christmas wreath workshop he started in the 1960s under the auspices of CAP is now a local industry, employing over 100 workers and shipping fresh wreaths all over the country. Other business ventures are in the works. CAP itself has meanwhile grown to an organization with regional and national missions. In 1989, Msgr. Beiting received a Brotherhood Award from the Bluegrass Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews for “outstanding leadership in fostering amity, justice and cooperation among the people of central Kentucky.” And in 1990, the Caring Institute, a nonprofit Washington, D.C., group that distributes yearly national awards for public service, honored him for his 40 years of dedication to Appalachian people. Former U.S. Sen. Frank E. Moss, Institute chairman, noted: “The growth of the Christian Appalachian Project from debt to an annual budget in excess of $20 million a year shows the vitality of this organization, and its continuing for so many years to serve so many people in one of the poorest regions of our country – this is a true test of faith.”

With courage and deep faith Msgr. Beiting has practiced a lifelong option for the poor, respecting and defending the dignity of each human person he serves. In recognition of his unstinting love, faith and service to the people of Appalachia, Xavier is honored to award Msgr. Ralph W. Beiting the degree Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Clement L. Buenger

An astute business leader whose performance as chief executive officer of Cincinnati’s Fifth Third Bancorp earned him a CEO of the Year award from Financial World two years in a row, Clement L. Buenger, Xavier class of ’50, is the epitome of the civic good citizen, a hardworking, dedicated and determined contributor to the health and vibrancy of his community. The education of children has been a special mission, one to which he has devoted much time and energy, as well as personal resources. Last year, Clem spearheaded a volunteer commission of 200 business leaders charged with improving the Cincinnati Public School system. The recommendations of the Buenger Commission were very well received and are today being implemented in the schools, as the commission, under Clem’s conscientious leadership, continues to monitor progress. Among his long-term commitments is the Fund for Independent Schools of Cincinnati – or FISC – which helps minority children attend private high schools in the city. Clem was a founder of the Fund and president from 1984 to 1990. In honor of his important role, FISC last year established a scholarship in his name. A trustee of Xavier, FISC and the Cincinnati Symphony, Clem is also a member of the Cincinnati Business Committee and a director of Cincinnati Gas and Electric, the Greater Cincinnati International Airport, and the Mercy Health Care System. He is chairman of the board and a member of the executive committee at Fifth Third. These commitments, considerable though they are, represent only a fraction of Clem’s many efforts over the years on behalf of his community.

In recognition of his key role in the vitality of Cincinnati’s business community and his unselfish dedication to the common good, especially to the children of this city, Xavier is proud to confer on Clement L. Buenger the degree Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.
Peter K. Hamaguchi

Over four centuries ago, St. Francis Xavier brought the Christian message of hope to the people of Japan. Today, Peter K. Hamaguchi, a 1962 Xavier MBA graduate and highly successful and distinguished Japanese business leader, brings his devout Christianity to bear on U.S.-Japan relations. Peter Hamaguchi is president of Hiroya Company, Ltd., a wholesale food company his family has led for 12 generations, and Higeta Shoyu Company, Ltd., a soy sauce manufacturer, both in Tokyo. For six years, he has been working energetically with Xavier’s College of Business Administration to build bridges of mutual understanding and respect between our two countries. Indeed, he has been instrumental in the development of the College’s international program. As the designated mentor for the Center for International Business, Peter has traveled to campus every semester since 1988 to talk to undergraduate and graduate business classes about the Japanese and international business worlds. An advisor to the Center, he helps design and coordinate all the international travel courses. For the Doing Business in Asia course, he generously hosts Xavier student groups, arranges site visits with Japanese corporations, and invites influential Japanese business leaders to address participants. One of Peter’s top goals is to establish strong ties, including a student-exchange program, between Xavier and Sophia University, Tokyo’s Jesuit university. By fostering these connections, he encourages an atmosphere for learning that combines the best of both worlds for better understanding and mutual success.

Peter’s work is that of faith and cooperation, in the true spirit and tradition of St. Francis Xavier. In partnership with the university, he builds bridges toward a truly global community. It is with pride and pleasure that Xavier awards Peter K. Hamaguchi the degree Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

John J. Schiff, Sr.

John J. Schiff Sr. is an outstanding and extraordinary entrepreneur whose immense business accomplishments over the years have helped put Cincinnati on the map as the “Blue Chip City.” In 1990 he made Forbes magazine’s list of Corporate America’s Most Powerful People as chief executive officer of the Cincinnati Financial Corp., a network of insurance companies he and his brother founded in 1950 with assets of $200,000 and which two years ago topped $1 billion in sales. Success has come through an energetic persistence and canny business sense which Jack Schiff combines with an obvious love for people. He was the first president of Cincinnati Financial, from 1968 to 1980, and was its first CEO, appointed in 1973. Although he retired as CEO last year, he has not let “retirement” slow his pace. At 76, Jack continues to put in a six-day workweek as director and chairman of the firm’s executive committee, as well as giving his time to a host of community concerns – arts, health-care and civic organizations serving the many needs of the Cincinnati community. The fine arts receive an extra measure of his attention. He is a longtime supporter of the Cincinnati Art Museum and is president of the Cincinnati Museum Association, as well as a trustee of the city’s Institute of Fine Arts and a member of the Music Hall Association. Other beneficiaries of his assistance include Deaconess Hospital, the Salvation Army, the Hamilton County SPCA, the Commercial Club of Cincinnati, the Cincinnati Historical Association, The Foundation Endowment, and Shiloh Community Methodist Church.

Because with vision, energy and exemplary generosity he has helped make Cincinnati a thriving and humane city for all of us, Xavier is honored to award John J. Schiff Sr. a Doctorate in Humanities, honoris causa.
Xavier’s Heritage

Xavier was founded in 1831 by Bishop Edward Dominic Fenwick, O.P., pioneer Catholic bishop of Ohio, as the first Catholic institution of higher learning in the Northwest Territory.

Known as the Athenaeum, the college’s first building, in downtown Cincinnati, was largely financed by European Catholics and particularly by Catholic citizens of Vienna. The first class numbered 60 students. From its beginning, the school was dedicated to the patronage of St. Francis Xavier. The Athenaeum attracted students from as far away as New Orleans, Mexico and Central America, and its educational quality drew many local Protestant students.

At the invitation of Bishop John Purcell of Cincinnati, the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) assumed control of the institution in 1840, ensuring a steady source of faculty. Under John A. Elet, S.J., the first Jesuit president, the institution was renamed St. Xavier College.

Xavier offered its first evening classes in 1841, and summer courses were introduced in 1914, thus beginning a tradition of serving the unique needs and schedules of professionals and aspiring professionals in the Cincinnati community.

In 1920, the college moved to its present site in Avondale, and in 1930 was renamed Xavier University, reflecting its growth and complexity. While women had been attending Xavier’s evening college since its early years, Xavier’s undergraduate “day” college became coeducational in 1969. In 1980 Xavier acquired the Edgecliff College programs and integrated them with those at Xavier, and by 1987, Edgecliff faculty, staff and students were moved onto the Xavier campus.

Xavier’s growth in over a century and a half since its founding reflects its origins as a teaching institution which soundly prepares students for careers or graduate study or both. A Xavier education, particularly at the undergraduate level, is marked by the emphasis on liberal arts learning contained in Xavier’s core curriculum. Equally important in the Xavier tradition is the synthesis of human, cultural and ethical values, concern and respect for people, and an appreciation of the worth and dignity of the self and others.

The College of Arts and Sciences, Xavier’s largest and oldest college, enrolls approximately 1,400 undergraduate and 100 graduate students, and accepts the primary responsibility for the liberal education of all Xavier undergraduates. The College of Business Administration enrolls 1,200 undergraduate and 1,400 MBA students, and is dedicated to preparing business students for positions of responsibility and leadership. The College of Social Sciences enrolls 900 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students in specialized areas of human services.

Xavier has been an innovator in graduate education, establishing, for example, the first graduate program in Montessori education in the United States. Its graduate programs in education have produced the second highest number of school administrators in the state of Ohio. Xavier’s graduate program in hospital and health administration is a recognized innovator in the field, and also provides timely and expert advice to health-care professionals through its Xavier Centre for Health Management Education. The Executive MBA Program and the Weekend Hospital Administration Program educate upper level managers and executives while they maintain their current positions in their respective organizations.
The seal of Xavier University combines three principle ideas: St. Francis Xavier, patron of the university; the Jesuit order of which he was a distinguished member; and the university. The five vertical stripes suggest the coat of arms of the Xavier family. A right arm wearing the Jesuit robe holds aloft the crucifix, signifying St. Francis Xavier preaching Christ crucified. The three sea shells signify the three journeys of Xavier into the Orient. Above the shield is the Jesuit seal, IHS, the first three letters of the name Jesus in Greek. Below is the Jesuit motto, AMDG [Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam], which translates "to the Greater Glory of God," and the words Vidit Mirabilia Magna, a phrase from the psalms applied to St. Francis Xavier which translates "he has seen great wonders."
Honor Graduates

Honors are awarded on the basis of outstanding achievement in academic study. The student must have completed at least half of the degree requirements and half of the courses in the major field at Xavier University to be eligible for honors. These honors are inscribed on the student's diploma, announced at the commencement ceremony and printed on the student's official university permanent record. Honors printed in this program do not include the Spring 1991 semester.

Summa Cum Laude

Bachelor's degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.90 on a 4 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Summa Cum Laude.

Magna Cum Laude

Bachelor's degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.75 on a 4 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Magna Cum Laude.

Cum Laude

Bachelor's degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.50 on a 4 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Cum Laude.

Associate Degree

Students who complete an Associate Degree with the criteria above will be recognized as graduating "with honor," "with high honor" and "with highest honor."

University Scholars' Programs

Undergraduate students who have completed a series of honors courses in the core curriculum.

Honors Bachelor of Arts Program

Students who complete a major in classical studies with emphasis on history, literature, Latin, Greek, and philosophy.

Academic Apparel History and Significance

The history of academic dress and its significance has its beginnings from the earliest days of the old universities. As early as the fourteenth century some colleges required scholars to wear long gowns. Specifications of academic apparel became greatly diversified in Europe.

American colleges and universities decided to have a standardized intercollegiate academic apparel code for the United States. In May 1895, representatives from interested institutions met at Columbia University and adopted a code for academic dress.

The "Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume" was formed in 1902 to serve as the information source in matters pertaining to academic dress. In 1932 the American Council on Education appointed a committee to revise the apparel codes established in 1895. Review and revisions to the 1895 academic apparel codes occurred in 1932 and 1959.

Gowns

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The master's degree gown has oblong sleeves which open at the wrist and is designed with fasteners so that it may be worn open or closed. Both the bachelor's and master's degree gowns are black with no trimmings except for those worn by the students who are members of the national Jesuit honor society Alpha Sigma Nu. These gowns are maroon with gold trim.

Hoods

Hoods are worn for the master's degree. The material of the hood is black and is made of the same material as the gown. The master's hood should be three and one-half feet in length and lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging is to be three inches of velvet or velveteen with the color being distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. The colors that pertain to Xavier's degrees are as follows:

- Arts...................................... White
- Business ................................. Yale Blue
- Education ............................... Light Blue
- Science ................................. Golden Yellow
- Hospital Administration........... Kelly Green

Caps

Black mortarboards of the same material as the gown are to be worn with the tassel of the color pertaining to the degree fastened to the middle point of the top of the cap.
