"This composition of our time and place embraces six billion people with their faces young and old, some being born and others dying, some white and many brown and yellow and black. Each one is a unique individual, they all aspire to live life, to use their talents, to support their families and care for their children and elders, to enjoy peace and security and to make tomorrow better.

Thanks to science and technology, human society is able to solve problems such as feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless or developing more just conditions of life, but stubbornly fails to accomplish this. How can a booming economy, the most prosperous and global ever, still leave over half of humanity in poverty?

Injustice is rooted in a spiritual problem, and its solution requires a spiritual conversion of each one’s heart and a cultural conversion of our global society so that humankind, with all the powerful means at its disposal, might exercise the will to change the sinful structures afflicting our world."

UNIVERSITY AWARDS AND HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS
It seems unlikely that anyone could be more deeply intertwined with Xavier University than J. Leo Klein, S.J. Currently the University's vice president for mission and ministry and a professor in the department of theology, Fr. Klein came to the University as an undergraduate and has attended to Xavier's spiritual, academic and leadership needs for almost 38 years.

A Chicago native and Cincinnati transplant, Fr. Klein graduated from St. Xavier High School and entered the Society of Jesus on Sept. 2, 1951. He graduated from Xavier in 1955, earned one master's degree in classical languages from Loyola University of Chicago in 1959 and another in liturgics from the University of Notre Dame in 1963. Fr. Klein was ordained to the Roman Catholic Priesthood on June 14, 1964. He received his doctorate in historical theology from Fordham University in 1971.

From 1958 to 1961, Fr. Klein taught classical languages at the University of Detroit High School. He joined Xavier's department of theology in 1970 and served as department chair from 1975-1979. He has also served as pastor of Bellarmine Chapel, director for campus ministry and rector of the Jesuit community. In addition to those commitments, he was a member of the University board of trustees from 1986 to 1992. Fr. Klein was named the University's vice president for mission and ministry in 1992, and was the visionary and driving force behind Xavier's 175th anniversary celebration in 2006. During the past 20 years he was a pioneer and major force in the establishment of the Ignatian Programs, the Academic Service Learning Semester Program, as well as the principal visionary in the fostering of a Jesuit lay partnership at Xavier.

In addition to his work at Xavier, Fr. Klein served on the board of the Lilly Fellows Program in the Humanities and the Arts and is a member of the Catholic Theological Society of America, the North American Academy of Liturgy and the Societas Liturgica. He is a former trustee of the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation in Cincinnati and a former member of the board of advisors for the Milford Spiritual Center in Milford, Ohio. Fr. Klein also served for 10 years as an adjunct faculty member at Mount St. Mary's of the West Seminary in Cincinnati. From 1979 to 1985, Fr. Klein was Provincial Superior for the Chicago Province of the Society of Jesus.

In recognition of his years of focused dedication to Xavier University and its mission, as well as his wisdom, leadership and tireless work in developing the spiritual and academic lives of countless students, Xavier University is proud to present J. Leo Klein, S.J., with the Paul L. O’Connor, S.J., Leadership Award.
Norman A. Murdock combined talent, hard work, discipline and determination to forge a special niche in public service that stretches from Greater Cincinnati to Washington, D.C. In his distinguished public career, Murdock served on the county, state and national levels. Elected to posts in the executive, judicial and legislative branches of government. He was a key member of the legal team representing Ohio that won a $9.8 billion settlement from national tobacco companies in 1998.

Murdock’s capacity for hard work surfaced early. The son of Lebanese immigrants, he earned money as a grade-schooler by mowing lawns, selling The Saturday Evening Post and Collier’s magazines door-to-door, peddling newspapers on a Cincinnati street corner and selling Coca-Cola in the bleachers at Crosley Field. He came to Xavier in 1951 and worked full time all four years at the University. In spite of his schedule, Murdock graduated 12th in his class in 1955. He entered the U.S. Army in 1956 and served six months of active duty, then spent seven-and-a-half years in the reserves, honorably discharged as a captain.

From 1957 to 1967, Murdock first worked as a district scout director for the Boy Scouts of America in Dodge City, Kansas, then as a self-employed Cincinnati public accountant. As a father of six during law school, he worked full time and earned his law degree from the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 1968.

Murdock was elected to the Ohio House of Representatives in 1967 and served six terms. In 1979, he was elected a Hamilton County Commissioner, a position he held until 1989 when he was elected to a term as judge in the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court. Murdock chaired Ronald Reagan’s 1979-80 presidential campaign and cast Ohio’s votes for Reagan at the 1980 Republican National Convention. In 1982, President Ronald Reagan appointed Murdock vice-chairman of the intergovernmental council on education under the Secretary of Education.

During his career in the Ohio House of Representatives he was the second ranking Republican, chaired the Health, Education and Welfare Committee, sponsored and co-sponsored over 200 bills into law, and sponsored the amendment creating the Ohio Arthritis Foundation.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, Murdock has served the community in a broad range of roles, including chair for the Holy Family Parish fundraising campaign, as a volunteer attorney for the Greater Cincinnati Police Athletic League Cincinnati Golden Gloves, as a trustee for the College of Mount St. Joseph, on the Board of Visitors for the University of Cincinnati College of Law, and as a Boy Scout volunteer. He was named one of Elder High School’s 25 outstanding graduates in its first 50 years. And he continues to be a generous supporter of Xavier, most recently establishing an endowed scholarship at the University.

Family has also played a central role in Murdock’s life. He and his wife Patricia have been married 50 years and have six children and 15 grandchildren.

In recognition of his outstanding service to the University and society, and of his life reflecting Jesuit values, Xavier University is proud to present Norman A. Murdock with its Distinguished Alumnus Award.
Honorary Degree Citation

Alan G. (A.G.) Lafley

Alan G. (A.G.) Lafley has a gift for transforming business vision into bottom-line reality. As chairman, president and CEO of the Procter & Gamble Co., Lafley has, over the past seven years, significantly improved the Cincinnati-based consumer-product giant’s performance and established a clear vision for future growth. During his tenure, he has built a reputation for both management excellence and ethical practice.

A native of Keene, N.H., Lafley received a bachelor’s degree in history from Hamilton College and a master’s degree in business administration from Harvard Business School. He served five years in the U.S. Navy before joining P&G in 1977, holding a number of positions before being named group vice president in 1992. In 1995, Lafley was named executive vice president responsible for Asia.

Lafley was named president of P&G’s global beauty care business and its North American market development organization in 1999. Lafley laid the groundwork for a comprehensive global strategy to revitalize the company’s beauty business.

Lafley became P&G’s president and chief executive officer in 2000. In July 2002 the company added chairman to his title. In 2005, he oversaw P&G’s acquisition of Gillette—the company’s largest acquisition to date.

His local and national activities include: member, board of trustees, Hamilton College; member, board of directors, United Negro College Fund; member, board of directors, General Electric Company; board of directors, Dell Inc.; chairman, Cincinnati Center City Development Corporation (3CDC); member, American Society of Corporate Executives, and the Business Roundtable; member, board of trustees, US Council for International Business; member, the Business Council; The Lauder Institute board of governors, Wharton School of Arts & Sciences; and member, board of trustees, Grocery Manufacturers of America.

In recognition of his impact locally and around the world, his vision, his openness to new ideas and his willingness to give generously of himself, Xavier University is proud to present Alan G. Lafley with the Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

John L. Muething is a man committed to excellence in all aspects of life. In more than 50 years of practicing law, he inspired, taught and guided hundreds of young attorneys, and in the process has become widely recognized and admired for his wisdom and sense of honor. At the same time, he has selflessly given of his time, talent and resources to support a wide range of community institutions.

Muething graduated summa cum laude from Xavier in 1943. He served in the U.S. Army in the Far East from 1943 to 1946, and then attended the University of Cincinnati College of Law, graduating in 1948. In 1954, he formed the law firm that became Keating, Muething & Klekamp, now the largest first-generation law firm in Greater Cincinnati. He retired as an active partner in 1986 and remains a senior partner in the firm.

Always willing to share his talents, Muething has served as chairman of the Ohio Board of Bar Examiners; as councilman, vice mayor and mayor of Amberley Village; and as a member and president of the Cincinnati Board of Education. He has also voluntarily shared his professional services, at various times representing the Ursulines of Brown County, Ohio; the Jesuit Community of Xavier University; St. Xavier High School; and St. Rita’s School for the Deaf. He currently serves on the board of Discover Health and is a member of the president’s advisory council at Xavier.

Muething is a past recipient of the Cincinnati Bar Association’s Lifetime Achievement Award, an honorary doctor of humanities from Xavier and outstanding alumnus awards from both Xavier and the University of Cincinnati College of Law.

Muething and his late wife, Mildred, who was an Edgecliff College graduate, were married for 57 years and raised nine children—seven boys and two girls. His belief in Jesuit education is reflected there as well—all of the Muething boys attended St. Xavier High School and several of them continued their education at Xavier.

Muething has long been an important Xavier supporter in a variety of ways, including establishing the John and Mildred Muething Endowed Scholarship Fund. But his generosity and belief in Catholic education, and the Jesuits and their mission in particular, extend well beyond the campus. He has reached out to other Jesuit ministries and causes, including gifts to the Chicago Province and the Colombiere Center in Clarkston, Michigan, which serves as a Jesuit retirement community.

In recognition of his professional achievements, his generosity in giving back to the community he loves and his dedication to Catholic, Jesuit education, Xavier University is proud to honor John L. Muething with its Leadership Medallion.
Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth is one of the great historical figures of our time. In more than a half-century as a civil rights activist, and more recently as an advocate for the homeless, Rev. Shuttlesworth has displayed steadfast faith, dedication and the most rare kind of courage. In the 1950s, as the Civil Rights Movement gained momentum in the South, he survived three attempts on his life and vowed to “kill segregation or be killed by it.”

A native of Mugler, Alabama, Rev. Shuttlesworth graduated from Selma University in 1951 and Alabama State College in 1952. He became pastor of Birmingham’s Bethel Baptist Church in 1953, and in 1956 he took over as membership chairman of the Alabama chapter of the NAACP. In May of that same year, he organized the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights and spearheaded the efforts to integrate Birmingham’s schools and public facilities.

In December 1956, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that bus segregation in Montgomery, Alabama was illegal, prompting Rev. Shuttlesworth and the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights to announce the organization would test Birmingham’s segregation laws. On Christmas Day, Rev. Shuttlesworth’s home was bombed, but he escaped uninjured.

The following year, he joined Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, Rev. Joseph Lowery, Rev. T.J. Jemison, Rev. C.K. Steele, Rev. A.L. Davis and Bayard Rustin to form the organization that became the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. In 1957, Rev. Shuttlesworth was beaten and his wife stabbed by Klansmen when the couple tried to enroll their children in a previously all-white Birmingham school. Rev. Shuttlesworth survived another bombing attempt in 1958, saved by a church member who spotted the bomb before it detonated.

In the early 1960s, Rev. Shuttlesworth took part in sit-ins in segregated lunch counters and helped organize the Freedom Rides. He moved to Cincinnati in 1961, and five years later organized the Greater New Light Baptist Church. In 1965, Rev. Shuttlesworth helped organize the historic Alabama march from Selma to Montgomery. In 1981, he launched the Shuttlesworth Housing Foundation in Cincinnati to help families who might not otherwise be able to afford their own homes. The Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce named him a “Great Living Cincinnatian” in 2000, and President Bill Clinton awarded him the President’s Citizens Medal in 2001. Rev. Shuttlesworth retired from the ministry in 2006.

In honor of his lifelong devotion to justice and his willingness to repeatedly risk his own life that others might live in a better world, Xavier University is proud to present Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth with a Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.
Xavier’s Heritage

Xavier was founded in 1831 by Bishop Edward Dominic Fenwick, O.P., pioneer Catholic bishop of Ohio, as the first Catholic institution of higher learning in the Northwest Territory.

Known as the Athenaeum, the college’s first building in downtown Cincinnati, was largely financed by European Catholics and particularly by Catholic citizens of Vienna. The first class numbered 60 students. From its beginning, the school was dedicated to the patronage of St. Francis Xavier. The Athenaeum attracted students from as far away as New Orleans, Mexico and Central America, and its educational quality drew many local Protestant students.

At the invitation of Bishop John Purcell of Cincinnati, the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) assumed control of the institution in 1840, ensuring a steady source of faculty. Under John A. Elet, S.J., the first Jesuit president, the institution was renamed St. Xavier College.

Xavier offered its first evening classes in 1841 and summer courses were introduced in 1914, thus beginning a tradition of serving the unique needs and schedules of professionals and aspiring professionals in the Cincinnati community.

In 1920, the college moved to its present site in Avondale, and in 1930 was renamed Xavier University, reflecting its growth and complexity. While women had been attending Xavier’s evening college since its early years, Xavier’s undergraduate “day” college became coeducational in 1969. In 1980 Xavier acquired the Edgecliff College programs and integrated them with those at Xavier, and by 1987 Edgecliff faculty, staff and students were moved onto the Xavier campus.

Xavier’s growth in over a century and a half since its founding reflects its origins as a teaching institution which soundly prepares students for careers or graduate study or both. A Xavier education, particularly at the undergraduate level, is marked by the emphasis on liberal arts learning contained in Xavier’s core curriculum. Equally important in the Xavier tradition is the synthesis of human, cultural and ethical values; concern and respect for people; and an appreciation of the worth and dignity of the self and others.

The College of Arts and Sciences, Xavier’s largest and oldest college, enrolls approximately 1,800 undergraduate and 65 graduate students, and accepts the primary responsibility for the liberal arts education of all Xavier undergraduates. The Williams College of Business enrolls 925 undergraduates and 975 MBA students, and is dedicated to preparing business students for positions of responsibility and leadership. The College of Social Sciences enrolls 925 undergraduate and 1,725 graduate students in specialized areas of human services.

Xavier has been an innovator in graduate education, establishing, for example, the first graduate program in Montessori education in the United States. Its graduate programs in education have produced the second highest number of school administrators in the state of Ohio. Xavier’s graduate program in health services administration is a recognized innovator in the field. The Executive MBA Program, the Health Services Administration Program and the MEd in Human Resource Development educate upper level managers, professionals and executives while they maintain their current positions in their respective organizations. The Department of Psychology offers a master’s degree with specializations in General Experimental and Industrial/Organizational. While some of these graduates continue their education, many assume responsible positions in corporate America. The Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) Program holds the distinction of being the first doctoral program at Xavier.
Honors Bachelor of Arts Program

Students who complete a major in classical studies with emphasis on history, literature, Latin, Greek, and philosophy.

University Scholars Program

Undergraduate students who have completed a series of honors courses in the core curriculum.

University Service Fellows

This nationally recognized service fellowship program honors the highest academic achievement and an outstanding record of volunteer community service. The recipients keep their fellowships through their four years at Xavier by maintaining a 3.25 grade point average and performing ten hours of community service a week. Service fellows receive full tuition, fees, room and board and a book stipend.

Honor Graduates

Honors are awarded on the basis of outstanding achievement in academic study. The undergraduate student must have completed at least half of the degree requirements and half of the courses in the major field at Xavier University to be eligible for honors. These honors are inscribed on the student's diploma, printed on the student's official university permanent record and announced at the commencement ceremony. These students are easily recognizable by their gold honors cord.

Summa Cum Laude

Bachelor's degree students who have earned a quality point average of at least 3.90 on a 4.00 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Summa Cum Laude.

Magna Cum Laude

Bachelor's degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.75 to 3.899 on a 4.00 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Magna Cum Laude.

Cum Laude

Bachelor's degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.50 to 3.749 on a 4.00 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Cum Laude.

Associate Degree

Students who complete an Associate Degree with the criteria above will be recognized as graduating “with highest honor,” “with high honor” and “with honor.”

Special University Programs

Academic Apparel History and Significance

The history of academic dress and its significance has its beginnings from the earliest days of the old universities. As early as the fourteenth century some colleges required scholars to wear long gowns. Specifications of academic apparel became greatly diversified in Europe.

In May 1895, representatives from colleges and universities in the United States met at Columbia University to adopt a national standardized intercollegiate academic apparel code.

The “Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume” was formed in 1902 to serve as the information source in matters pertaining to academic dress. In 1932 the American Council on Education appointed a committee to revise the apparel codes established in 1895. Review and revisions to the 1895 academic apparel codes occurred in 1932 and 1959.

Hoods

Hoods are worn for the master’s degree. The material of the hood is black and is made of the same material as the gown. The master’s hood should be three and one-half feet in length and lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging is to be three inches of velvet or velveteen with the color being distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. The colors that pertain to Xavier’s degrees are as follows:

- Arts........................................White
- Business ...................................Drab
- Education ...............................Light Blue
- Science .................................Golden Yellow
- Health Services
- Administration ........................Kelly Green
- Nursing ................................Apricot

The Doctoral Hooding Ceremony

The hooding ceremony is the traditional ceremony for conferring the doctorate. The Xavier Doctor of Psychology degree (Psy.D.) is based in the practitioner-scientist model. This means that graduates are skilled in the practice of clinical psychology and in the research process that develops the scientific base of such practice. The hooding ceremony reflects this model. Graduates are greeted and escorted by the Director of Clinical Training, while the hooding itself is carried out by the Chair of the student’s dissertation committee and the Chair of the Psychology Department. Thus, clinical work, research activity, and scholarship are all represented.

Caps

Black mortarboards of the same material as the gown are to be worn with a black tassel for undergraduates and the tassel of the color pertaining to the degree fastened to the middle point of the top of the cap for graduate degrees.
PROCESSIONAL BANNERS

The banners carried in today’s ceremony represent Xavier’s three colleges. A banner precedes the students from each college.

THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Wisdom, revealed by Christ and discovered by human reason, was seen in the Middle Ages as a lamp, and the university was created to be the lampstand that would make it shine before all.

THE WILLIAMS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The ship of commerce recognizes that the earliest business communication and trade between nations was by merchant ships. The spirit of these early entrepreneurs sparked the growth of modern day business.

THE COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

The orb is symbolic of the many cultures who benefit from the associate through doctoral degree programs offered in professional and liberal arts disciplines. The quill represents devotion to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge locally, nationally and internationally.

THE MACE

The mace symbolizes the legal and chartered authority of Xavier University. It is brought into the gathering immediately before the President. Historically, the mace was a war club. In the Middle Ages it was carried by a bodyguard to defend a person of authority. Today, its purpose is strictly ceremonial and carried by the Grand Marshal. During the ceremony the mace rests at the front of the stage in its holder.

A mace is a custom-made piece of art and sometimes crafted from relics of the university. It can be decorated with gems and precious metals, sometimes in the official university colors. The Xavier University mace was designed and crafted by Bernard Schmidt, Professor Emeritus, of the department of art.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photographs of the graduates will be taken by a professional photographer during the ceremony. Guests are permitted to take pictures from the floor area by the stage. Please use the stairs between sections. In consideration of others, please limit your time in the photography area.
The names and honors of the graduates listed are for purposes of this program and do not represent a final certification of graduation.

The seal of Xavier University combines three principal ideas: St. Francis Xavier, patron of the university; the Jesuit order of which he was a distinguished member; and the university. The five vertical stripes suggest the coat of arms of the Xavier family. A right arm wearing the Jesuit robe holds aloft the crucifix, signifying St. Francis Xavier preaching Christ crucified. The three sea shells signify the three journeys of Xavier into the Orient. Above the shield is the Jesuit seal, IHS, the first three letters of the name Jesus in Greek. Below is the Jesuit motto, AMDG [Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam], which translates “to the Greater Glory of God,” and the words Vidit Mirabilia Magna, a phrase from the psalms applied to St. Francis Xavier, which translates “he has seen great wonders.”
XAVIER ALMA MATER

Lyrics by Tyrone Williams

Music by Thomas Merrill

\[ \text{Xavier is our family tree, rooted in one history.} \]
\[ \text{Nurture by our} \]
\[ \text{Fame that no one can impeach, growing to extend our reach,} \]
\[ \text{Planting fertile} \]
\[ \text{legacy, Xavier's humble pedigree.} \]
\[ \text{Branches out to touch the same God} \]
\[ \text{seeds in each soul and mind we serve and teach.} \]
\[ \text{One community we stand, building dreams and hopes with hands} \]
\[ \text{And glowing} \]
\[ \text{love a flame, bear the fruit of Xavier's fame.} \]
\[ \text{Cross the land for each woman, child and man.} \]
