SPAN 201-06 Intermediate Spanish I - FALL 2016

TF 10:00 a.m. – 11:15 a.m. ALTER HALL 206

Professor: Dr. Iliana Rosales Figueroa

e-mail: rosalesfigueroai@xavier.edu

Office hours: TF 12:45pm – 1:40pm and by appointment.

Course Description: This course is the beginning of the intermediate Spanish sequence. The principal goals of language study are communication and proficiency while learning about the Spanish speaking world. Classes are conducted in Spanish. The majority of each class session will be dedicated to conversation and writing practice, applying the assigned vocabulary and grammar structures to real situations and contexts. This model places greater responsibility on students' preparation and study of grammatical structures and vocabulary prior to class sessions. Class activities will take place both in the assigned classroom and the Language Resource Center, making use of technology

Placement: This course is for students who have earned credit for Spanish 102 or Spanish 103, or who have placed into the course through examination. All students with 2 years or more of a language in high school are required to take a placement test in the language that they took in high school. Students wishing to move down to SPAN 102 will earn elective credit for that level and will fulfill the requirement with SPAN 201. In order to change levels the student needs to see the language coordinator. Please consult with the instructor if you any other question regarding placement.

Course Objectives: Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

Perform the basic communication tasks from S101, S102 and the S201 Adelante TRES text and explore the following themes through conversation, listening, viewing, reading and writing:

- Outdoor adventures, nature and the environment, recycling and conservation
- City life, daily chores, money and banking
- Health and well-being, exercise and nutrition
- The world of work and your future career
- Expression of doubt and disbelief
- Unreal, imagined and possible persons, places, things, activities and events
- Everyday activities, people and places

Required Materials: Students taking 201 this semester should purchase the REQUIRED COMPONENTS IN ONE PACKAGE:

Adelante! Tres (W/Supersite & WebSAM Access Code) Edition: 2nd

Author: Jose Blanco

Publisher: Vista Higher Learning

ISBN: 9781618579881

TalkAbroad credit for three conversations (to be purchased in bookstore or online)

The Supersite is free with purchase of the textbook (Lab manual activities are also included in the text). The supersite includes the many important components such as homework and grammar tutorials.

Students will need the access code provided in the inside of the textbook to register for the Supersite. The access code cannot be used more than once; thus, a used text book will not serve you. It is also important to note that the access code cannot be purchased separately. Please keep this in mind if you choose to purchase course materials from an off campus provider such as Amazon.

*A new textbook, with a Supersite code, is required: The Publishing company will not sell codes

Student Responsibilities:

- Attend and be ready to participate in classes regularly. Notify your instructor via email of issues regarding any extended absences. (Consult departmental Attendance and Class Participation norms below, but Please note that any student with six or more unexcused absences will receive a grade of F for this course.)
- Check syllabus calendar and be alert to all emails, texts, and Canvas messaging about class location and homework.
- Follow language learning strategies provided to you and develop your own.
- Store all electronic devices during class sessions.
- Show respect for classmates and instructor. Please do not interrupt or speak when others are answering or explaining and never laugh at others' attempts to communicate.
- Take advantage of the instructor's office hours for any and all questions.
- Take all quizzes and exams at scheduled times.

Assessment and Evaluation Policies:

Homework: Assignments will include the following: WebSAM and Lab Manual online exercises, and additional assignments per instructor. Students should always review grammatical explanations in textbook and view grammar tutorials on Supersite before the class for which they are assigned. This will allow for greater comprehension and facilitate student participation during class sessions

TalkAbroad: You will have three 30 minutes long conversations with a native Spanish speaker throughout the semester via Skype. Detailed instructions will be given at the beginning of the semester. Your section code is: Rosal2016-361202

Final Interview: You will have a 10-15 minute long conversation in Spanish with your instructor at the end of the semester in which you will utilize themes, vocabulary and grammar we have practiced throughout the course. Given that you will have already conversed with your TalkAbroad partner about some of these themes, you will be able to share interesting conversation points with your instructor at this time.

Testing: There will be 4 chapter tests, a midterm exam and a cumulative final exam. Dates for the tests and exams are listed on the syllabus. Format will vary. All assessments will consist of listening and written sections.

2 Compositions: These will be written in class per the instructor's guidelines. Your compositions should be at least 150 words in length and contain vocabulary and grammar that reflect the course.

Cultural Event Paper: See instructions for Cultural Activity Reaction paper below.

Make-up Policy:

There will be no make-ups for Tests. Except for XU sanctioned events, work, illness or family travel plans do not constitute exceptions.

There will be no individual make-ups for exams except in verifiable cases of illness or emergency (problems with work schedule or personal travel plans are not normally valid excuses). The student is responsible for notifying the teacher before the exam or as soon as possible. The mid-term exam will be reviewed in class and may also be reviewed in the instructor's office. Both exams, mid-term and final examination, will be kept in the instructor's office.

I. ACADEMIC HONESTY

You should be aware of the University policy on Academic Honesty as it appears in the website. This policy applies to all courses in the Department of Modern Languages.

“All work submitted for academic evaluation must be the student’s own. Certainly, the activities of other scholars will influence all students. However, the direct and unattributed use of another’s efforts is prohibited as is the use of any work untruthfully submitted as one’s own.

Penalties for violations of this policy may include one or more of the following: a zero for that assignment or test, an “F” in the course, and expulsion from the University”

Your instructor may use plagiarism detecting software, such as Turn-It-In, to review your written assignments. Help on specific homework from a tutor is also considered a violation since your work is yours not the tutor’s; tutors can help with general questions and grammatical problems; they are not to correct work that is going to be submitted for a grade. Copying homework from a classmate, copying from internet sources including translation services, will be considered violations. As you can see, penalties for violations can be severe, so you are encouraged to submit only your own work in all your classes.

II. Department of Modern Languages ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Department of Modern Languages at Xavier University strives to increase the student's fluency and competency in listening, comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing while providing a solid grammatical background for the modern language offered. The focus is on a communicative and proficiency-based approach while providing an in depth exposure to the workings of both language and culture of the target language. A significant key to success in a modern language course which teaches a skill and moves at a fast pace is regular class attendance.

The entire range of the students' skills can be evaluated only if they are in class. Therefore, we will allow NO absences without penalty. Any absence will result in a loss of 3% per absence from the student's final course participation grade. Attendance will be accurately documented to ensure fairness in enforcement. If a student is more than 5 minutes late, he/she will be COUNTED AS ABSENT. Students are strongly discouraged to schedule appointments or interviews during class time! Please note that any student with six or more unexcused absences will receive a grade of F for this course.

There is a strict NO MAKE-UP POLICY. A grade of zero will be given for any missed work.
