"This composition of our time and place embraces six billion people with their faces young and old, some being born and others dying, some white and many brown and yellow and black. Each one is a unique individual, they all aspire to live life, to use their talents, to support their families and care for their children and elders, to enjoy peace and security and to make tomorrow better.

Thanks to science and technology, human society is able to solve problems such as feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless or developing more just conditions of life, but stubbornly fails to accomplish this. How can a booming economy, the most prosperous and global ever, still leave over half of humanity in poverty?

Injustice is rooted in a spiritual problem, and its solution requires a spiritual conversion of each one's heart and a cultural conversion of our global society so that humankind, with all the powerful means at its disposal, might exercise the will to change the sinful structures afflicting our world."

UNIVERSITY AWARDS
In the 11 years since she graduated from Xavier University, Jill Yungbluth Smith has established herself as a talented leader and committed advocate for non-profit organizations, specifically working to promote peace and justice through education.

After earning a Bachelor of Arts in psychology, Smith took a position with the Jesuit Volunteer Corps, working with the developmentally disabled in Spokane, Washington. Upon the completion of her assignment, she returned to Cincinnati and joined the Center for Peace Education, whose mission is to teach schoolchildren to deal with conflict peacefully and without violence. Through its school programs and summer camps, the Center succeeds in giving children conflict-resolution skills they can use for a lifetime, stressing affirmation, cooperation, communication and an appreciation of differences.

Smith began at the Center as program and training manager, but was asked after two years to serve as interim director and eventually hired to lead the organization as its full-time director. Colleagues and board members praised her maturity, her wisdom and her ability to handle difficult decisions with an open mind and respectful spirit.

She continued on her path of service by joining the KnowledgeWorks Foundation as its online community manager, where she once again earned praise for her managerial abilities, knowledge, skills, personality and drive to excel.

Smith now serves as resource coordinator at the Academy of World Languages, a Cincinnati public school that serves many immigrant and low-income children. As part of the nationally recognized Community Learning Centers initiative, Smith’s work seeks to link schools and the communities that surround them, thereby improving student performance and strengthening neighborhoods simultaneously.

For exemplifying the Jesuit ideals of seeking peace and improving the world through education, Xavier University is proud to present Jill Yungbluth Smith with the Magis Award for recent alumni.
In a distinguished career that has spanned three decades, Barbara J. Howard has sought to use the law to improve the lives of families, as well as to advocate for the underprivileged and others in need of legal protection. As a certified family-law specialist with training in the area of collaborative law, she advocates for the use of the process that enables divorcing couples to work out their agreements and resolve problems more amicably outside of the court, thereby reducing the amount of conflict and expense. Howard also assists families with issues of custody, paternity and juvenile law.

In addition to working with clients both in and outside the Cincinnati area, Howard has served as president of the Cincinnati Bar Association and was one of the creators of the Cincinnati Academy of Leadership for Lawyers, now in its 13th year. She currently sits on the boards of both the Cincinnati Bar Foundation and Volunteer Lawyers for the Poor Foundation. Her impact, though, reaches far beyond the immediate area. She has held a variety of positions with the American Bar Association, including serving as a member of its legislative body, the House of Delegates since 1986 and as a member of the Board of Editors of the ABA Journal.

Howard currently serves as president of the Ohio State Bar Association. One of Howard's signature issues has been a focus on diversity and inclusion within the legal profession. She has done this by initiating a Gender Fairness Task Force and by empowering the State Bar's Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Council to tackle tough issues relating to racial fairness in the courts and in the profession. She has also been instrumental in efforts to increase the number of attorneys from minority and underprivileged backgrounds. In particular, she takes great pride in the Law and Leadership Institute, initiated by the state bar association and Ohio law schools, a program designed to expose underserved 9th through 12th graders to legal careers.

As president of the state bar, Howard has been actively involved in an initiative with recently deceased Chief Justice Thomas Moyer to change the way members of Ohio's Supreme Court are selected, and addressing concerns that campaign contributions in judicial races can influence the decisions judges make. Through the state bar, Howard has also launched a statewide Leadership Academy for lawyers. In her field of family law, she is continuing efforts to re-write Ohio's spousal-support statute.

Howard graduated from Xavier University magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, and she received her Juris Doctor from the University of Cincinnati College of Law. She has served as a member of Xavier's Board of Trustees since 1995, and also serves on the boards for the Athenaeum of Ohio, Cincinnati Union Bethel and the University of Cincinnati College of Law.

In recognition of her outstanding service to the University and society, and of her commitment to Jesuit values, Xavier University is honored to present Barbara J. Howard with its Distinguished Alumna Award.

Susan Smyth Tew

Susan Smyth Tew has promoted the causes of education and spiritual development and comforted the ill and grieving in a wide range of ministries that span decades. Her work is evident in the organizations she’s co-founded and communities she’s created, and also in quiet gestures that bear her hallmark of Christian commitment and caring.

A product of Catholic education, Susan taught school at the grade-school and high-school levels, and she has shown her support for education by serving on the boards of Purcell Marian High School, the Catholic Inner City Schools Education Fund and the Friends of the Public Library.

Fostering her own spiritual development and that of others has been a priority for Susan, and she has shown this by hosting a Scripture study group in her home for more than 25 years. She has served as a long-time adviser to and supporter of the Fountain Square Fools, a traveling Christian theater company. And she has provided spiritual enrichment to people of all faiths by helping create the former Shepherd Center in Hyde Park. Her faith also led her to participate in the lay pastoral ministry program at the Athenaeum of Ohio, which led to the formation of the Adult Spirituality Institute offering enrichment courses to lay people.

Providing care for the grieving and the ill has been another important theme in Susan’s work. She is co-founder of the Good Samaritans, a group that has raised more than $4.5 million to support the work of Good Samaritan Hospital in improving health care in Cincinnati. She has also ministered personally to the sick and dying and their families in countless ways, from listening to patients on the phone to serving on the bereavement committee at Bellarmine Chapel.

Most importantly, Susan’s primary life vocation is to be an educated, responsible Catholic woman, wife, mother, grandmother and community organizer who for the past 25 years has been actively engaged in the process of personal transformation.

Her caring heart and good will can also be found in her support of the fine arts, the homeless and visitors from foreign lands. She often opens up her own home or meets the needy in their homes, truly striving to see the face of Jesus in everyone she meets.

In recognition of her tireless service to others and her dedication to the causes that matter most to her, Xavier University is honored to present Susan Smyth Tew with its Leadership Medallion.
Xavier was founded in 1831 by Bishop Edward Dominic Fenwick, O.P., pioneer Catholic bishop of Ohio, as the first Catholic institution of higher learning in the Northwest Territory.

Known as the Athenaeum, the college’s first building in downtown Cincinnati, was largely financed by European Catholics and particularly by Catholic citizens of Vienna. The first class numbered 60 students. From its beginning, the school was dedicated to the patronage of St. Francis Xavier. The Athenaeum attracted students from as far away as New Orleans, Mexico and Central America, and its educational quality drew many local Protestant students.

At the invitation of Bishop John Purcell of Cincinnati, the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) assumed control of the institution in 1840, ensuring a steady source of faculty. Under John A. Elet, S.J., the first Jesuit president, the institution was renamed St. Xavier College.

Xavier offered its first evening classes in 1841 and summer courses were introduced in 1914, thus beginning a tradition of serving the unique needs and schedules of professionals and aspiring professionals in the Cincinnati community.

In 1920, the college moved to its present site in Avondale, and in 1930 was renamed Xavier University, reflecting its growth and complexity. While women had been attending Xavier’s evening college since its early years, Xavier’s undergraduate “day” college became coeducational in 1969. In 1980 Xavier acquired the Edgecliff College programs and integrated them with those at Xavier, and by 1987 Edgecliff faculty, staff and students were moved onto the Xavier campus.

Xavier’s growth in over a century and a half since its founding reflects its origins as a teaching institution which soundly prepares students for careers or graduate study or both. A Xavier education, particularly at the undergraduate level, is marked by the emphasis on liberal arts learning contained in Xavier’s core curriculum. Equally important in the Xavier tradition is the synthesis of human, cultural and ethical values; concern and respect for people; and an appreciation of the worth and dignity of the self and others.

The College of Arts and Sciences, Xavier’s oldest college, enrolls approximately 1,990 undergraduate and 50 graduate students, and accepts the primary responsibility for the liberal arts education of all Xavier undergraduates. The Williams College of Business enrolls 1,025 undergraduates and 1,050 MBA students, and is dedicated to preparing business students for positions of responsibility and leadership. The College of Social Sciences, Health, and Education enrolls 1,075 undergraduate and 1,640 graduate students in specialized areas of human services.

Xavier has been an innovator in graduate education, establishing, for example, the first graduate program in Montessori education in the United States. Its graduate programs in education have produced the second highest number of school administrators in the state of Ohio. Xavier’s graduate program in health services administration is a recognized innovator in the field. The Executive MBA Program, the Health Services Administration Program and the MEd in Human Resource Development educate upper level managers, professionals and executives while they maintain their current positions in their respective organizations. The Department of Psychology offers a master’s degree with specializations in General Experimental and Industrial/Organizational. While some of these graduates continue their education, many assume responsible positions in corporate America. The Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) Program holds the distinction of being the first doctoral program at Xavier.
Honors Bachelor of Arts Program

Students who complete a major in classical studies with emphasis on history, literature, Latin, Greek, and philosophy.

University Scholars Program

Undergraduate students who have completed a series of honors courses in the core curriculum.

Honors are awarded on the basis of outstanding achievement in academic study. The undergraduate student must have completed at least half of the degree requirements and half of the courses in the major field at Xavier University to be eligible for honors. These honors are inscribed on the student’s diploma, printed on the student’s official university permanent record and announced at the commencement ceremony. These students are easily recognizable by their gold honors cord.

Community Engaged Fellows

This nationally recognized service fellowship program honors the highest academic achievement and an outstanding record of volunteer community service. The recipients keep their fellowships through their four years at Xavier by maintaining a 3.25 grade point average and performing ten hours of community service a week.

Summa Cum Laude

Bachelor’s degree students who have earned a quality point average of at least 3.90 on a 4.00 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Summa Cum Laude.

Magna Cum Laude

Bachelor’s degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.75 to 3.899 on a 4.00 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Magna Cum Laude.

Cum Laude

Bachelor’s degree students who have earned a quality point average of 3.50 to 3.749 on a 4.00 point scale in college work will be recognized as graduating Cum Laude.

Associate Degree

Students who complete an Associate Degree with the criteria above will be recognized as graduating “with highest honor,” “with high honor” and “with honor.”

Special University Programs

The history of academic dress and its significance has its beginnings from the earliest days of the old universities. As early as the fourteenth century some colleges required scholars to wear long gowns. Specifications of academic apparel became greatly diversified in Europe.

In May 1895, representatives from colleges and universities in the United States met at Columbia University to adopt a national standardized intercollegiate academic apparel code.

The “Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume” was formed in 1902 to serve as the information source in matters pertaining to academic dress. In 1932 the American Council on Education appointed a committee to revise the apparel codes established in 1895. Review and revisions to the 1895 academic apparel codes occurred in 1932 and 1959.

Hoods

Hoods are worn for the master’s degree. The material of the hood is black and is made of the same material as the gown. The master’s hood should be three and one-half feet in length and lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging is to be three inches of velvet or velveteen with the color being distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. The colors that pertain to Xavier’s degrees are as follows:

- Arts
- Business
- Education
- Drab
- Light Blue
- Science
- Golden Yellow
- Health Services
- Administration
- Kelly Green Nursing
- Apricot

Gowns

The gown for the bachelor’s degree has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The master’s degree gown has oblong sleeves which open at the wrist and is designed with fasteners so that it may be worn open or closed. Both the bachelor’s and master’s degree gowns are black with no trim. The robes worn by Xavier’s doctoral candidates are blue. The sleeves of the doctoral robes are longer than the master’s, are trimmed in black velvet and have three velvet bands around each sleeve above the elbow. Doctoral gowns from other universities are most often black, but some universities have adopted colors.

The Doctoral Hooding Ceremony

The hooding ceremony is the traditional ceremony for conferring the doctorate. The Xavier Doctor of Psychology degree (Psy.D.) is based in the practitioner-scientist model. This means that graduates are skilled in the practice of clinical psychology and in the research process that develops the scientific base of such practice. The hooding ceremony reflects this model. Graduates are greeted and escorted by the Director of Clinical Training, while the hooding itself is carried out by the Chair of the student’s dissertation committee and the Chair of the Psychology Department. Thus, clinical work, research activity, and scholarship are all represented.

Caps

Black mortarboards of the same material as the gown are to be worn with a black tassel for undergraduates and the tassel of the color pertaining to the degree fastened to the middle point of the top of the cap for graduate degrees.
PROCESSIONAL BANNERS

The banners carried in today’s ceremony represent Xavier’s three colleges. A banner precedes the students from each college.

THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Wisdom, revealed by Christ and discovered by human reason, was seen in the Middle Ages as a lamp, and the university was created to be the lampstand that would make it shine before all.

THE WILLIAMS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The ship of commerce recognizes that the earliest business communication and trade between nations was by merchant ships. The spirit of these early entrepreneurs sparked the growth of modern day business.

THE COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, HEALTH, AND EDUCATION

The orb is symbolic of the many cultures who benefit from the associate through doctoral degree programs offered in professional and liberal arts disciplines. The quill represents devotion to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge locally, nationally and internationally.

THE MACE

The mace symbolizes the legal and chartered authority of Xavier University. It is brought into the gathering immediately before the President. Historically, the mace was a war club. In the Middle Ages it was carried by a bodyguard to defend a person of authority. Today, its purpose is strictly ceremonial and carried by the Grand Marshal. During the ceremony the mace rests at the front of the stage in its holder.

A mace is a custom-made piece of art and sometimes crafted from relics of the university. It can be decorated with gems and precious metals, sometimes in the official university colors. The Xavier University mace was designed and crafted by Bernard Schmidt, Professor Emeritus, of the department of art.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photographs of the graduates will be taken by a professional photographer during the ceremony. Guests are permitted to take pictures from the floor area by the stage. Please use the stairs between sections. In consideration of others, please limit your time in the photography area.
The names and honors of the graduates listed are for purposes of this program and do not represent a final certification of graduation.

The seal of Xavier University combines three principal ideas: St. Francis Xavier, patron of the university; the Jesuit order of which he was a distinguished member; and the university. The five vertical stripes suggest the coat of arms of the Xavier family. A right arm wearing the Jesuit robe holds aloft the crucifix, signifying St. Francis Xavier preaching Christ crucified. The three sea shells signify the three journeys of Xavier into the Orient. Above the shield is the Jesuit seal, IHS, the first three letters of the name Jesus in Greek. Below is the Jesuit motto, AMDG [Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam], which translates “to the Greater Glory of God,” and the words Vidit Mirabilia Magna, a phrase from the psalms applied to St. Francis Xavier, which translates “he has seen great wonders.”

Xavier is our family tree, rooted in one history. Nurtured by our Fame that no one can impeach, growing to extend our reach, Planting fertile legacy, Xavier's humble pedigree branches out to touch the same God seeds in each soul and mind we serve and teach. One community we stand, build we call by many names, and a glow in
- ding dreams and hopes with hands Stretching out a love a flame, bear the fruit of Xavier's fame.
cross the land for each woman, child and man.
