Welcome to Visiting Students

Students—men and women at all levels of education—regularly enrolled at other schools find it convenient and pleasant to fulfill some of their academic requirements at Xavier during the Summer Sessions.

To register for one or more of the 300 day and evening classes, a student need only—

• Complete the Xavier Admission Form, and return it to the Office of Summer Sessions, Alter 102B, Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio 45207.

• Get a Letter of Authorization specifying courses that he or she may complete at Xavier and signed by an official of the home school. This also should be sent to the Office of Summer Sessions.

• Formally register. See the Summer Sessions Calendar.

Registration of visiting students is necessarily subject to cancellation if, after registering at Xavier, they are dismissed from their home schools.

Xavier University's Admission Policy is non-discriminatory for all persons regardless of race, creed, sex, or national origins.

THE UNIVERSITY

UNDERGRADUATE

Undergraduate programs lead to the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science, and the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. For information about departments, curricula, degree requirements, grades, attendance, etc., see the University Catalogue.

GRADUATE

The Graduate School, established in 1946, offers programs for the Master of Arts in classics, economics, English, history-political science, philosophy, and psychology; the Master of Science in chemistry, corrections, mathematics, and physics; the Master of Education; and the Master of Business Administration.

For information and application forms, write to the Dean of the Graduate School, and mention the academic area of interest.

Students with a Bachelor's degree must register through the Graduate School. This regulation applies for graduate or undergraduate credit and for day or evening classes.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

The academic regulations of Xavier University, stated in the University Catalogue, apply to Summer Sessions students.

The University reserves the right to modify its arrangements when extraordinary circumstances arise.

UNIVERSITY SERVICES

Day and evening hours for the University Library, the Bookstore, the Dining Hall, and the Musketeer Grill will be posted.

During the first week of a summer session a student may return a text for refund or exchange if he withdraws from the course or has erred in selecting the text. The cash register receipt must be presented for refunds or exchanges.

HOUSING

Men and women may live on campus starting at noon on Sunday, June 11. All rooms are equipped with a bed, desk, chair, bed linen, and desk lamp. Students are expected to bring towels and soap. Blankets are available on a rental basis.
TUITION AND FEES

REGISTRATION FOR THE SUMMER SESSION. Registration is final. Students who register for courses and who fail to appear, unless officially withdrawn in accordance with the catalogue regulations regarding withdrawals, will receive automatic FAILURE for their courses and will be charged the regular summer session fees. Withdrawals must be made in the office through which registration was made.

WORKSHOPS: First Summer Session

Ed 320-21 ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SCIENCE CURRICULUM PROJECTS
July 19 to July 21: Schmidt 202
Director: Dr. Napoleon Bryant
Three credit hours
The workshop is designed to provide experience in understanding the philosophy, rationale, and methodological approaches of curricular projects in science developed for use with pupils in the elementary grades. Objectives include: 1) "hands-on" experiences with materials of Science—A Process Approach (SAPA); Elementary School Science (ESS); and Science Curriculum Improvement Study (SCIS); and 2) to illustrate ways in which many commonly available items can be effectively utilized to teach pupils major concepts and principles of science.

Ed 322-31 CONTEMPORARY SCIENCE CURRICULUM PROJECTS: INTERMEDIATE AND JUNIOR HIGH
June 19 to July 21: Schmidt 202
Director: Dr. Napoleon Bryant
Three credit hours
The workshop is designed to provide experience in understanding the philosophy, rationale, and methodological approaches of the Intermediate Science Curriculum Study developed for use with pupils in the intermediate and/or junior high grades. The objectives of the course include: 1) "hands-on" experiences with Level I materials of the Intermediate Science Curriculum Study (ISCS); and 2) exploration of the pedagogical concerns inherent in the program.

Ed 660-01 CURRICULUM DESIGN AND TEACHING STRATEGY
June 19 to July 21: Schmidt 203
Director: Professor William Daily
Six credit hours
Teaching for large groups, small groups, and independent study leading to individualized instruction. Encounter groups. Preparation for greater sensitivity in teaching. Strategies for fostering interaction with large groups in the classroom. Theory of individualizing instruction. Production techniques and requirements in selecting, creating, and evaluating instructional materials.
QUEEN CITY COMMUNITY RESOURCES WORKSHOP
June 19 to July 14: University Center

Director: Mr. Dean Moore

Xavier University participates in the Queen City Community Resources Workshop in conjunction with the University of Cincinnati and Miami University. Enrollment is limited to school personnel selected by the Workshop Trustees and acceptable to the student's Graduate School.

Four credits are granted, but the amount of such credit accepted for graduate degrees is left to the discretion of each institution. Applicants should inquire at the school at which they plan to register. Applications for appointment may be requested from the Queen City Community Resources Workshop, Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, 55 Central Trust Building, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

The host for the 1972 Workshop will be Xavier University.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY

It is the policy of Xavier University to provide equal opportunity in all areas of employment for all qualified persons and to prohibit discrimination in employment because of race, creed, color, sex, or national origin. This policy of equal opportunity applies to all University policies and practices. The University's goal is to achieve a diverse, multi-racial faculty and staff of men and women dedicated to the objectives of the University and capable of providing for excellence in the education of its students.
