SUMMER STUDIES

"Xavier University will again offer a large number of course options during the 1976 Summer Sessions."

"The schedule (pages 2 and 3) includes courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels,—both day and evening—a very interesting Intersession program (page 4), short-term workshops and institutes," stated Dr. Milton Parrtridge, Summer Sessions, Xavier University.

Course offerings include a wide variety for the degree student,—both graduate and undergraduate—for the individual in the community interested in continuing education in a non-degree status, a great variety of hobby courses, and courses for the out-of-town student, home for the summer, who will find many courses acceptable for transfer to his college or university," added Dr. Parrtridge.

Dean Raymond McCoy, Graduate School, pointed out also that, "The Summer Sessions offer many choices for the professional educator, for the Master of Business Administration candidate, for the Masters of Arts and Science, and for the Correctional Program."

"For teachers whose schools do not close until Friday, June 11, special session courses are especially attractive. In the week of June 14 is the Workshop-Institute: Children's and Adolescents' Books and Related Media. During the week of July 19, three workshops—Group Dynamics, Alcoholic Education, and School Community Relations for the Principal—and an Institute—Vocational America: Toward Century IV—will be offered."

Individuals may register as special students if they do not wish to pursue a degree program. Any person holding a bachelor's degree registers through the Graduate School of the University, while anyone without a college degree registers through the University's College of Continuing Education.

The University is presenting a unique workshop in Adult Christianity during the first three weeks of the summer sessions. The workshop is offered through the Department of Theology and the College of Summer Sessions, and the Religious Education Office, Archdiocese of Cincinnati. The program includes the following features: a communal experience of the new Rite of Christian initiation of Adults; an exploration of adult Christian faith levels; the relationship between liturgy and catechetics in light of the new rite; ecclesial implications of the new rite; a clarification of one's personal faith level; and an opportunity to develop a personal program for growth. The workshop will also feature participated experiences of shared prayer and liturgy.

The workshop will be held from June 13 to July 2, 1976. The first session is on Sunday, June 13, 7:00 P.M., in the Terrace Room of the University Center. The three-week program carries six graduate credit hours and calls for an exclusive commitment of time during the first two weeks—9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.—daily plus the entire weekend of June 18-20. The third week will be given to an independent project of the participant—related to the participant's needs and interests. The third week may be completed on or off the University campus.

The workshop may be taken on a Pass/Fail audit basis. Evaluation will be based on individual participation and the independence of the participant.

The workshop is under the direction of Leo Klein, S.J., Department of Theology, Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio 45207. For information call (513) 745-3653 or the Summer Sessions Office.
