General Information

History. Xavier University Evening Division, formerly known as the School of Commerce of St. Xavier College, was opened in October, 1911, for young men who realize that scientific training is the best equipment for success in modern business. Non-Catholics as well as Catholics were admitted to the classes from the very beginning of the school.

A department of Journalism was organized in 1913, of Advertising in 1914, of Sociology in 1918. Shortly after, these departments were incorporated into the Department of Commerce and Finance, and the Department of Liberal Arts. The Department of Liberal Arts has grown steadily, approximating in courses and student enrollment the Department of Commerce and Finance.

The absence of an evening college where women might receive a cultural or business education induced the authorities to admit women to all courses in the Evening Division. For the past two decades women students have represented an average of forty-five per cent of the entire enrollment.

The Evening Division is an integral part of the University. The standards of academic achievement are equivalent in method, character, and credit value to those of the day session.

Courses in business are taught by men of wide business experience and broad university training. The Liberal Arts courses and instructors are, with few exceptions, the same as for the day session. Business, professional, technical, literary, and cultural training are integrated in a well-balanced program of general education in harmony with the Catholic philosophy of life.

Location. From 1911-1919, Xavier Evening Division shared the college quarters at Seventh and Sycamore Streets, and after the removal of the Day College to Avondale, the evening classes continued in session at Seventh and Sycamore. In August of 1935 the Evening Division moved to 520 Sycamore Street, its present location.

General Objectives. As a Catholic and Jesuit institution, Xavier University adheres to the definite philosophy embodied in the Encyclical of Pius XI “On Christian Education of Youth” (1919): “... Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic, and social, not with a view of reducing it in any way, but in order to elevate, regulate, and perfect it...”

System of Education. Xavier University is one of a group of twenty-seven Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. From the Jesuit Order the University has received a rich heritage of four centuries of educational experience together with an educational system which is truly psychological, philosophically sound, and sufficiently elastic to make allowances for the widely varying circumstances of time and place. To all that is most valuable in older learning is added what is really worthwhile of modern educational subjects and techniques.

Accreditation. The University is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools as a degree-granting institution, and is approved by the Department of Education of the State of Ohio, by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York, and by the University of Illinois.

Memberships. To stimulate active interest in matters educational and to afford both faculty and students the value of recent research, the University maintains membership in the following educational and learned organizations:

The Jesuit Educational Association
The National Catholic Educational Association
The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools
The American Association of Collegiate Registrars
The American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia
The American Catholic Philosophical Association
The American College Public Relations Association
The American Council on Education
The American Historical Association
The American Library Association
The Association of American Colleges
The Association of Ohio College Registrars
The Association of University Evening Colleges
The Catholic Library Association
The Mid-West Conference on Graduate Study and Research
The Mississippi Valley Historical Association
The National Conference of Church-Related Colleges
The National Education Association
The Ohio College Association
The United States Catholic Historical Society
The United States Field Artillery Association

The University is represented in many other associations and societies through the individual memberships of its faculty.

Purpose of the Evening College. The Evening College of Xavier University conducts a large number of university courses in the Department of Liberal Arts and in the Department of Commerce and Finance.
These courses have been arranged especially for men and women who are engaged during the day, who experience the need of additional education, and who wish to devote one or more evenings a week to the study of particular subjects of interest.

Objectives of the Department of Liberal Arts. The Department of Liberal Arts aims to produce educated Christian men and women of character, who think straight, vigorously and independently in the light of a consistent philosophy of life that sees life whole; who express themselves in oral and written speech clearly, effectively and securely; who adopt a scientific attitude of mind toward the problems of their environment with a view to controlling them for their own well-being and that of their fellow men; who understand why they must be moral, understand the religion they profess, and in accordance with that profession act uprightly and finely in their relations to God, their fellow men, and themselves. The Department of Liberal Arts has a threefold purpose:

1. To offer opportunities to high school graduates to begin or complete required and elective subjects towards degrees.
2. To provide high school graduates with opportunities to fulfill pre-legal requirements.
3. To present fields of study to persons interested in cultural subjects.

Objectives of the Department of Commerce and Finance. The Department of Commerce and Finance, like the Department of Liberal Arts, aims first at producing men and women of Christian education and character. Specifically, it provides the scientific training which is essential to success in modern business. Through a progressive system of courses it offers not only a formal education in this field, but also a wide range of practical suggestions which have been drawn from the accumulated experience of successful business minds. The Department of Commerce and Finance has a fivefold purpose:

1. To provide those who are able and qualified with four year programs of study leading to certificates in various specialized fields.
2. To provide those who are able and qualified with a longer program of study leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.
3. To offer to special students particular courses which they may desire either for general knowledge of the workings of business or for aid in the work in which they are employed.
4. To offer specialized training in the field of accounting for those who desire to enter the accounting profession and who wish to take the C.P.A. examination.
5. To offer other courses and programs which commercial, industrial, social, civic, and educational needs may dictate.

Types of Courses. Three types of courses are available to students in Xavier University Evening College:

1. For the majority of its students of business, the Evening Division strongly recommends the progressive programs, certificate (4 years), and degree (6 years or longer). These programs require attendance at least two nights a week. The certificate programs, while complete, are fundamental and in most cases, credits earned may be applied to the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree program.

2. For the majority of students electing cultural courses, the progressive program leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science is recommended.

3. Students of sufficient maturity, experience, and previous education may take any individual subject. These subjects are given in classes which meet one or two evenings a week for a half year or a full year.

Awards. The Kappa Sigma Mu Scholarship Award (First Prize $25.00) is awarded to the Freshman or Sophomore student who attains the highest scholastic average in a degree or certificate program.

The Cincinnati Chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants Manuscript Writing Award. This award of $25.00 is granted to the student submitting the best manuscript on a subject of working interest to the accountant in industry.

School Organizations. Xavier University Evening Division has provided several forms of student activities and organizations for the purpose of promoting religious, social, academic, and cultural relations among the student body. All student organizations are under the supervision of the Dean. The University reserves the right to moderate, or discontinue, any student activity or organization.

The Social Club. All students interested in the social functions of the Evening College are invited to participate actively in this organization. All social and extra-curricular activities of the Evening College are under the direction of this group. A year-round program of parties, dances, picnics, hobby clubs, etc., gives satisfying outlets to the varying social interests of the student body.

The Economics Club. Founded in 1938 as the Commerce Club, this group combines a discussion program with social activities. Outstanding Cincinnati business men are guest speakers at the monthly meetings. Membership is open to students of economics.

The Family Relations Club of the Catholic Colleges of Greater Cincinnati has a dual purpose: (1) to develop and strengthen in the members the right and wholesome attitude toward Christian marriage and family life, and further a true appreciation of the dignity and beauty of the Christian home, as well as the privilege of duties and obligations involved; (2) to offer the community a clear interpretation of the Catholic position on marriage and the family, and an authoritative refutation of erroneous views relative thereto. Student and guest speakers participate in the regular monthly meetings. The apostolic work of the club is carried out by utilizing "a workshop technique" in four committees on the following activities: public speaking, radio and television presentations, writing, research, surveys, arranging pre-Cana conferences for engaged couples, and sponsoring Catholic recreation in the home, school, and parish. Members are trained in these various works by experts in these fields.

Kappa Sigma Mu. Composed of present and former students, Kappa Sigma Mu is a student as well as an alumnae organization. Men and women students are eligible for membership. Membership is limited to students who have been in attendance for at least four semesters and who are leaders in curricular and extra-curricular activities. The purpose of the organization is to strengthen and perpetuate college friendships among students of the Evening Division.

The Xavier Accounting Society, organized in 1947, has as its prime objectives the broadening of knowledge and the deepening of the interest of its members in the field of accounting; the promotion of mutual helpfulness and the fostering of fellowship in the pursuit of this worthy aim. Monthly meetings are devoted to papers, discussions and lectures. The guest speakers are outstanding professional accountants and business executives. Accounting students are eligible to membership.

The Xavier University Alumnae Association. Any woman student who has acquired 30 or more credits in residence is eligible for membership. The group was founded in 1926 and is affiliated with the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae.

Xavier Television Program. Xavier Television Program "Xavier Presents," a student-produced radio show begun in 1946, has been revised for television and is now presented weekly over Cincinnati's WCPO-TV station. The show is completely produced by the students who plan the production, write the scripts, recruit the talent, conduct rehearsals, and participate as announcers, actors, and performers. Guest performers are presented each week from the colleges and universities in the tristate area.

Placement and Guidance Service. The University operates a Guidance and Placement Center to assist the students in their educational, vocational and occupational plans.

The Guidance Service assists the student to know himself. It will aid him in learning his qualifications, strengths and limitations. Through a series of tests a study is made of his interests, aptitudes, abilities and personality traits. These together with a knowledge of his background and training will afford the counselor an appraisal of the student. Through personal interviews recommendations will be made so that the student may choose his life's work more intelligently and more in accord with his personality. A fee is charged for this service.

The Placement Service is maintained to assist the student in finding suitable employment in accordance with his training. This service has available occupational material. It makes contact with companies and alumni and arranges for company representatives to confer with the student. The Service also aids as much as possible in part-time employment. There is no charge for this service.

General Administration

Admission. Because the Evening Division is intended to serve the educational needs and interests of persons who are occupied in business or other pursuits during the day, the requirements for admission to the evening classes have been given a degree of flexibility. Accordingly, an applicant for the evening classes may establish his eligibility either by graduation from a formal high school course, by examination, or by the attainment of sufficient maturity and experience to enable him to follow an evening course with profit.

Evening students who wish to extend their studies beyond the four-year evening curricula, in order to fulfill the requirements of Bachelors' Degrees must, in every case, satisfy the entrance requirements stated below.

Admission to Certificate Programs.

Those who wish to enter the certificate programs must submit a certificate of graduation from high school with an official record of at least 18 units of satisfactory work. Those who have not completed these units may be admitted as Certificate Students if they pass with a satisfactory grade those examinations prescribed by the University.

If the student wishes to receive credit for even the first semester of a Certificate Program, he must submit this record of high school work, or must pass the prescribed examinations before he enters the Certificate Program.

Those who have completed a Certificate Program are not ipso facto eligible for admission to a Degree Program.

Admission to Degree Programs.

1. Graduates of Accredited High Schools. The usual method of admission for high school graduates is by certificate of graduation from an accredited high school together with an official record of units and an official recommendation from the principal. A unit is the equivalent of a subject extending through a school year of thirty-six weeks with five recitations per week. A minimum of fifteen units is required.

   a. The following units are required of all applicants for admission:

<thead>
<tr>

An applicant who does not present two units of credit in a foreign language (modern or classical) may offer as a substitute two units of either history and/or natural science.

b. At least 11 of the 15 units must be offered from the following non-vocational (or college preparatory) subjects. Not more than 4 units in any one subject will be accepted.

d. Applicants who do not meet the qualifications outlined above may, under special circumstances, be admitted at the discretion of the Committee on Admissions.

2. Mature students who are not high school graduates, may be admitted to the Degree Program by examination. The examination will include various tests which will determine whether such applicants have the ability to do satisfactory college work. All applicants admitted by examination will be admitted on probation. The probation period will continue for at least one semester.

Admission to Special Evening Courses. Although the school usually recommends a complete curriculum, students who possess sufficient maturity, experience and educational foundation are permitted to take certain individual courses without following a complete curriculum.

Admission with Advanced Standing. Evening students who have satisfactorily completed college work in other recognized colleges or universities will be given credit for such work to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of a curriculum in the Evening Division of Xavier University.

Admission - Veterans. Veterans who wish to enter college or return to interrupted college work should, as soon as possible after discharge, apply to the Veterans Administration for a certificate of eligibility which is the official form designating the amount of schooling to which a veteran is entitled under the G.I. Bill of Rights. The Veterans Administration Regional Office for the Cincinnati area is located at 209 East Sixth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Veterans who live in other cities should make application to the V.A. Office nearest their homes. Applications must be accompanied by original or photostatic copies of discharge papers.

Korean veterans are cautioned to select their programs of study with the utmost care since only one change of course program is allowed, except under special conditions determined by the Veterans Administration.

Readmission. Readmitted students who have been absent for more than two years are subject to the curricular requirements in force at the time of their readmission. If a student has attended another school since his withdrawal from the Evening Division of Xavier University, a record of that work must be submitted before readmission.

Veterans who apply for readmission, however, may qualify for degrees and certificates under requirements in force at the time of their departure from the Evening Division for military service, depending upon their classification at the time of their entrance in the service.

Registration. Fixed dates in each semester are reserved for registration and are to be found in the academic calendar on page 7 of this catalog.

College Year. The college year usually begins the third week in September and ends the fourth week of May. It is divided into two semesters. There is a Christmas and an Easter recess. Classes are not usually held on legal holidays nor on the more solemn religious festivals of the Catholic Church.

Time of Classes. Classes are held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 6:40 to 8:20; 6:40 to 9:15; 6:40 to 10:10, and 8:25 to 10:10.

Unit of Instruction—Credit Hour. A unit of instruction is one class hour a week for one semester. The unit is called a credit hour and is the measure of work in the Evening Division. A weekly two-hour period of laboratory work is considered equivalent to one credit hour. The fundamental accounting courses include lecture and laboratory work.

Grading System and Reports. At the middle and the end of each semester the student receives an estimate of the quality of his work in each of the courses which he has pursued. This estimate is based upon the combined results of examinations and class work, and is expressed by the following symbols:

A—Exceptional. Indicates not only high achievement but also an unusual degree of intellectual initiative.
B—Good. Indicates attainment above the average.
C—Average. Indicates the normal attainment for the average student.
D—Inferior. Indicates passing work but below the normal attainment.
F—Failure.
FA—Failure because of excessive absences.
I—Incomplete; grade withheld pending fulfillment of assignment
W—Withdrawal (approved).
WP—Withdrew passing.
WF—Withdrew failing.
X—Absent from examination.

Quality Points. A candidate for a bachelor's degree must earn not only the number of credit hours (120) required for the bachelor's degree, but his work must also possess a certain excellence which is measured by quality points.

The number of quality points is determined partly by the grade received and partly by the number of credit hours attached to the course. Quality-point averages, however, are determined on the basis of hours attempted, not merely passed, and quality points earned. The grade points are as follows:

A—Four points per credit hour
B—Three points per credit hour
C—Two points per credit hour
D—One point per credit hour

The number of quality points which will be received for any course is the number of points attached to the grade received multiplied by the number of credit hours attached to the course. The scholastic standing of the student at the end of any semester is the ratio of the total number of quality points received to the total number of credit hours carried in that semester.

Student Classification. Students are classified as Sophomores who have at least twenty credit hours and forty quality points; Pre-Juniors, who have forty credit hours and eighty quality points; Juniors, who have sixty credit hours and one hundred and twenty quality points; Pre-Seniors, who have eighty credit hours and one hundred and sixty quality points; Seniors, who have one hundred credit hours and two hundred quality points. The Freshman, Sophomore and Pre-Junior years are grouped as lower division years; Junior, Pre-Senior and Senior as upper division years.

Students are also classified as Degree Students, if they are working for a degree; Certificate Students if they are working for a certificate; Special Students, if they are taking one or more courses for credit without reference to a program; Auditors, if they do not elect to fulfill scholastic requirements for academic credit.

Major. The major will ordinarily consist of a minimum of eighteen credit hours of upper division work completed with an average of C in one department. This work will suppose the completion of required courses of lower division work (C average) in the department of the major.

In the departments of classical and modern languages lower division work is not satisfied by beginning courses or their equivalent.

Minor. The minor will ordinarily consist of a minimum of twelve credit hours of upper division work in another department approved by the student's adviser and completed with an average of C. This work will suppose the completion of required courses of lower division work (C average) in the department of the minor.

Attendance.

1. To secure credit in any course in which he is registered, the student is required to attend classroom exercises regularly and promptly. Absences due to late registration, or to a change in course even at the recommendation of the office, date from the day of opening announced in the calendar.

2. Attendance and preparation are required at all classroom exercises as primary conditions for meriting academic credit.

3. Three absences in any one course automatically disqualify the student from receiving credit for the course.

4. Absences caused by serious illness may be excused, wholly or in part, by the Dean.

5. Tardiness at class or leaving class before the expiration of the period will be counted as one-half of an absence.

Withdrawal. A student who wishes to withdraw from one or more of his courses must sign at the Office a notification of intention to withdraw. A student is considered in attendance until this formal notice of withdrawal has been duly signed. No withdrawal is effective earlier than the date recorded on this signed notice.

Examinations.

1. Examinations in all subjects are held at the middle and the close of each semester. The result of the mid-semester and the semester examinations, combined with the student's classwork, will determine his grade for the semester. No academic credit is given unless a passing grade is obtained.

2. A student who has been absent from a regularly scheduled examination will receive a grade of X if the excuse for the absence is acceptable to the Dean, otherwise the absentee will receive an automatic failure. Absence, however, does not excuse a student from the requirement of a special examination at a time determined by the Dean.
grade is not removed within thirty days a grade of F will be given for the course.

3. A fee of $2.00 will be charged for each special examination taken before or after the regularly scheduled examination. No charge will be made if an examination is missed because of illness if the illness is reported to the school office prior to the time of the scheduled examination.

4. Auditors are not obliged to take examinations.

Censures. Any student whose quality-point average is below 1.5 for each session of the first year, or 1.75 for each session of the second year, or 2.0 for each session of the succeeding years will be automatically placed on probation.

This censure excludes the student from participation in any extra-curricular activity except of a religious nature, and reduces the number of credit hours which the student may carry.

The censure will continue for at least one session. At the end of this session any student on probation who fails to average "C" in the semester's work will be dismissed from the University. Any student on probation whose semester average is "C," but whose general overall average is below "C," will be continued on probation for one more session. If, at the expiration of the continued probationary period, the student's average is below "C" he will be dismissed from the University.

Any student whose quality-point average is low, but not so low as to warrant the censure of probation, may be placed on the "warned" list.

This censure does not demand a reduction of the student's load nor does it positively exclude the student from participation in extra-curricular activities, but such participation may be restricted at the discretion of the dean or the departmental adviser.

Failure in a number of courses is regarded as poor scholarship. At the discretion of the dean, such a student will be excluded from registration in the University for at least one session. Permission to return after one session, or at any subsequent time, will be granted only at the discretion of the Committee on Admissions.

If a student is placed under scholastic censure, the University assigns the right to change or limit the student's program of courses to the student's departmental adviser or to the dean. The same right will be exercised in the case of poor health or other circumstances unfavorable for study.

The University reserves the right to censure the conduct of any student on or off the campus in accord with the generally accepted norms of good behavior, Catholic practice, and Catholic principles of morality. This censure will be regarded as purely disciplinary and may take the form of correction, suspension, or dismissal which the President of the University, upon advice of the Committee on Student Problems, may deem appropriate.

Suspension will carry with it the loss of credit hours. When a student incurs the disciplinary censure of dismissal, or withdraws while under the censure of suspension, the University has the right to declare, at the discretion of the president, the fact of disciplinary censure to the admissions officer of any educational institution to which the student may subsequently apply.

Transcript of Records. Upon the student's request the Evening College will send one complete transcript of his scholastic record to any educational institution or business organization. If more than one transcript be requested, a charge of two dollars will be assessed for each additional transcript. No transcripts are issued during the busy periods of registration or examination. Transcripts are issued only after the student has fulfilled all financial obligations to the University.

Tuition and Fees. Registration for a course or courses makes the student liable for the tuition of the whole semester. All tuition and fees required from students must be paid before the third class-session of each semester. Students failing to discharge these obligations promptly are subject to dismissal.

1. The tuition fee for all subjects is $10.00 per class hour. (Chemistry course tuition rate is $12.00 per hour.)

2. Students registering at Xavier University for the first time pay a matriculation fee of $5.00.

3. A late registration fee of $2.00 is charged students registering during the first week of class. A late registration fee of $5.00 is charged students registering during the second week of class.

4. Additional fees:
   a. Biology Course (each semester) ................. $ 1.00
   b. Chemistry Laboratory Fee (each semester) ... 10.00
   c. Chemistry Laboratory Materials Deposit (each semester—partially refundable) .............. 5.00
   d. Typewriting Course (each semester) .......... 1.00
   e. Special Examination .................................. 2.00
   f. Certificate Fee ..................................... 10.00
   g. Bachelor's Degree Fee .............................. 25.00
   h. Xavier University News. (Required). Per semester ....... .75

NOTE.—STUDENTS CARRYING THREE HOURS WORK OR LESS MUST PAY IN FULL AT THE TIME OF REGISTRATION; OTHERS MUST PAY A MINIMUM OF $30.00 PLUS ALL FEES (REGISTRATION, XAVIER UNIVERSITY NEWS, TYPewriting Course), THE BALANCE TO BE PAID BEFORE THE THIRD WEEK OF CLASS.
Curricular Administration

Courses. Courses are grouped according to their basic or advanced content. Basic courses, which are ordinarily open to Freshman, Sophomore, and Pre-Junior students, are regarded as lower division courses. Upper division courses are ordinarily open only to Junior, Pre-Senior and Senior students.

Departments of Instruction. For the purpose of faculty administration and of classification of courses according to the nature of their subject matter, all courses are grouped in departments. In the Evening Division there are twelve departments: Accounting, Biology, Chemistry, Economics and Business Administration, English, History and Political Science, Mathematics, Modern Languages, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, and Theology.

Lower Division Objectives. Toward realization of the immediate University objectives (intellectual competence with a sense of religious and moral responsibility) and the objectives of the undergraduate division, the student should, at the completion of his work of the first three years, have attained the following:

1. A religious knowledge adequate for personal orientation and influential Christian living.
2. An acquaintance with, and some practice in, the modes of thinking—philosophical, mathematical, and scientific.
3. A competence in basic English communication, written and oral, with an adequate acquaintance with the types, and some of the masterpieces of English literature.
4. A reading knowledge of at least one modern language (this is not required in the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration program).
5. An acquaintance with the history and principles of social institutions.

The objective and standards of the several departments concerned in this program indicate their special contribution to the above, in such a way that a student who has completed a minimum of sixty hours with a C-average, can be regarded as having sufficiently attained the objectives.

Excess quality points at the completion of the student’s lower division work may not be applied to remove a quality-point deficiency in the upper division work.

Before the close of his Pre-Junior year, the student who wishes to continue his education in the University will be required to choose a field of specialization for his future work. Only upon acceptance by the chairmen of the departments concerned, and on successful completion of his lower division work, may the student be considered eligible to continue.

In the last semester of his lower division work, a student who has satisfied the lower division prerequisites in a particular subject may, if his schedule allows, and if the dean and the chairman of the department concerned authorize it, take an upper division course in that subject.

Upper Division Objectives. Toward more special realization of the immediate University objectives (intellectual competence, etc.) and the objectives of the undergraduate division for the last two years of college
the student is offered the following:

1. A continuation of his general and liberal training in the study of philosophy and allied subjects.
2. Fields of specialization, with a major and minor system, for prudent concentration.

At the completion of this work, the student must qualify as to his attainment of the University and undergraduate division objectives through a thesis or a comprehensive examination. The matter of these, broadly stated, will be: his knowledge of his field of specialization, his grasp of the principles of knowledge, and his ability in the application, co-ordination and systematization of facts and principles.

Certificates and Degrees. The University will confer a certificate or a degree upon any candidate in the Evening Division who has successfully completed an accepted program of studies, and who has fulfilled, prior to graduation, all requirements both general and particular. In the Evening Division the University confers the following Certificates:
Accounting; General Business; International Trade; Labor Relations; Marketing; Secretarial Practice; and Traffic Management; and the following Degrees: Bachelor of Arts; Bachelor of Science; and Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

Subject Requirements for Degrees. In addition to the fulfillment of other requirements, a candidate for a degree in the University must follow a definite program of studies. The prescribed subjects together with the corresponding minimum semester hours for each degree program are listed as follows:

Bachelor of Arts

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred on the candidate whose major field has been chosen from any one of the four curricular fields, and whose program included twelve semester hours in the study of Latin. The prescribed subjects together with the corresponding minimum semester hours required and suggested block schedules are listed on pages 42-43.
Accounting. For a major in accounting a student must complete the following total hours in business: accounting, 30; economics and business administration, 21. Therefore, in addition to the basic courses listed above for all B.S. in B.A. programs, the student is required to take the courses listed below:

Course No.  Subject                        Sem. Hrs.
Ac 51, 52  Introductory Accounting          6
BA 23, 24  Business English                 4
BA 123    Business Statistics               3
BA 161, 162 Business Law                    4
Ec 35, 36  Principles of Economics          4
Ec 151    Money and Banking                 3

Total                                24

NOTE: For the complete B.S. in B.A. (Accounting) curriculum, see block schedules on pages 48-49.

Economics. For a major in economics a student must complete the following total hours in business: economics, 22; accounting, 18; business administration, 11. Therefore, in addition to the basic courses listed above for all B.S. in B.A. programs, the student is required to take the courses listed below:

Course No.  Subject                        Sem. Hrs.
Ac 151, 152 Intermediate Accounting        6
Ac 153, 154 Advanced Accounting Problems   6
Ac 155, 156 Industrial (Cost) Accounting    6
Ac 157, 158 Taxation                        6
Ac 199    Comprehensive Examination        2
Ec or BA  Electives                         3

Total                                29

NOTE: For the complete B.S. in B.A. (Economics) curriculum, see block schedules on pages 48-49.

General Business. For a major in general business a student must complete the following total hours in business: economics and business administration, 47; accounting, 9. In addition to the basic courses, and Ac 162, Analysis of Financial Statements, and BA 170, Business Organization and Management, and BA 131, Principles of Marketing, which courses are required of all general business students, sufficient courses must be taken to give a minor concentration (at least three semesters of upper-division courses), in at least four of the following areas of business administration: accounting, economics, finance, labor, management, marketing, or transportation.

NOTE: For the complete B.S. in B.A. (General Business) curriculum, see block schedules on pages 50-51.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

General

For the Certificates

In addition to the requisites of a particular Certificate Program listed on pages 34-40, a candidate for a Certificate must fulfill the following requirements:

1. The candidate shall have completed an accepted program of studies in which the quantity of academic work, measured in class hours, is not fewer than fifty-six with an average of C.
2. The candidate shall have completed at least twenty-one class hours (C average) and at least the last fourteen class hours (C average) in residence at Xavier University Downtown College.

For the Degrees

In addition to the requisites of a particular program, a candidate for the bachelor's degree must fulfill the following requirements:

1. The candidate shall have qualified as a classified student in Xavier University and shall have all records from other institutions in order.
2. The candidate shall have completed an accepted academic program of not fewer than one hundred twenty credit hours with an average of C. Specifically, an average of 2.0 (C) shall have been maintained in his upper division courses since surplus quality points are not transferable from lower division courses.
3. The candidate shall have completed all lower division objectives.
4. The candidate shall have fulfilled the lower division and upper division objectives in the matter of distribution of courses.

5. The candidate shall have completed the following courses in Philosophy and Psychology: Pl 34, 100, 105, 111, 131, 132, Ps 53, 54.

6. The candidate, if a Catholic, shall have completed eight credit hours in formal courses in Theology, and four Christian culture courses.

7. The candidate shall have completed in residence, the last thirty credit hours (C average) in courses approved by the College of Liberal Arts.

8. The student shall have successfully passed a comprehensive examination in the student's major field of work during or prior to his last semester of attendance. In the departments where comprehensive examinations are not given, the student shall have completed on or before May 13 of his senior year, a written thesis of not fewer than 5000 words. The subject shall have been approved and a rough draft of the thesis shall have been submitted before October 19. The thesis shall fulfill all general and particular prescriptions of the adviser.

9. The candidate, with the approval of the head of the department, shall have made formal application to the dean for the degree sought. This form shall have been filed in the office at the beginning of the last session.

10. The candidate shall have discharged all financial obligations to Xavier University.

N.B.—No student will be considered eligible for graduation who has any deficiency at the beginning of the last session of his senior year, or who has less than one hundred and eight credit hours of C average.

Graduation Honors. Honors are awarded on the basis of outstanding moral and intellectual attainment. A student who has earned a quality-point average of 3.75 in his six years of college work will be graduated Summa Cum Laude; one who has earned 3.5, Magna Cum Laude; one who has earned 3.25, Cum Laude. The honors are announced at commencement and are inscribed on the diplomas of those meriting them. The final semester's work cannot be computed in determining the quality-point average for honors.

Transfer students are eligible for honors at graduation only under the following conditions:

1. They must have completed at least sixty semester hours of work at Xavier University.
2. Their quality-point average must be computed on the basis of ALL OF THEIR COLLEGE WORK.
3. Under no circumstances will honors be awarded that are higher than the honors merited by the quality-point average earned at Xavier University.

Residence. Candidates for Certificates must secure at least the last fourteen credit hours at the Evening College, and candidates for Degrees at least the last thirty credit hours in residence at Xavier University and the last fourteen credit hours at the Evening College. Residence is the personal presence at the University of a student carrying a normal weekly load.

Attendance at Commencement. All candidates for Degrees and Certificates must be present at the Commencement Exercises.

Notes. The University reserves the right to modify its graduation and other academic requirements as may seem necessary from time to time. It will be obligated only during the academic year of the student's registration by requirements published in the catalog for that year.

No course in any department will be given unless a sufficient number of students apply.

Departments and Courses

The names of the departments of instruction and the special courses are here listed in alphabetical order.

No course in any subject will be given unless a sufficient number of students apply.

The courses of instruction are numbered in accord with a unified plan. Lower division courses are numbered 1 to 99. Upper division courses are numbered from 100 to 199. Double numbers indicate that the first semester course is prerequisite to the second semester course and that both must be satisfactorily completed to obtain credit for either course.

Accounting (Ac)

Rapidly expanding business enterprises have emphasized the importance of accounting as a means of efficient and economical operation. As an administrative device it makes possible effective control and successful management of all types of business. Factory management requires a correct knowledge of costs. Sales and credit management likewise depend upon the accounting department for basic information necessary to the proper guidance of their departments.

Obviously, the purpose of the accounting courses is not to teach mere proficiency in bookkeeping, nor to prepare students merely for clerical tasks, but rather to inculcate the philosophy underlying the use of records as an aid to management. The purpose is to lay a foundation which students in this department may use, after their apprenticeship in business, to build the necessary qualifications for executive positions.

The courses in accounting are thorough and comprehensive, familiarizing the student with the latest and most satisfactory methods. The first year course gives the student a fundamental knowledge of accounting which is of value whether he engages in business or pursues a professional career. The advanced courses elaborate on the theory and practice of accounts, business analysis, costs, auditing and specialized accounting, and are completed in a special course which prepares the student for C.F.A. examinations and for entrance into the field of public accountancy.

1. Bookkeeping. A basic course in the principles of Bookkeeping intended to familiarize the student with the techniques and principles of double-entry bookkeeping. After the discussion and illustration of these principles, the student has an opportunity to apply them in problems and practice sets. This course is recommended for clerical workers who want a better understanding of the various financial records required by present-day business. No credit.

51. Introductory Accounting. A study of general accounting as applied to modern record-keeping for single proprietorships, partnerships and corporations, supplemented with practical problems and practice sets providing actual experience with general and special journals and ledgers; the preparation of adjusting and closing entries; trial balances; work sheets; balance sheets and profit and loss statements. Three credit hours.

52. Introductory Accounting. A continuation of Ac 51. Practical application of the voucher system, controlling accounts, departmental accounts, use of charts of accounts; study of authorization and issuance of capital stocks and bonds; computation of premiums and discounts; distribution of profits; determination of fire loss; manufacturing costs and preparation of manufacturing costs statements. Three credit hours.

Upper Division Courses

151. Intermediate Accounting. A thorough course in theory and problems in which various methods of solving practical accounting problems are presented. The course supplies a broad background of accounting theory that will enable the student to recognize accepted differences in accounting methods and to develop individual convictions in matters of accounting principles. Knowledge of working paper layout is a primary requisite; problems offered are a challenge to the student's ability to reason, to observe, and to make proper decisions on the basis of known facts. 199. Comprehensive Review. Required of all majors in accounting. Prerequisite: Concurrent completion of major requirements. Two credit hours.

Classical Languages

The true Liberal Arts student aims to discover what constitutes normal living in the environment of our Western European civilization. Both accuracy and adequacy in this quest require in him the power of first-hand contact with the great thoughts of that civilization's normal representatives, and an actual scholarly acquaintance with at least a selected few great souls from every stage of its development. His studies in post-renaissance and post-reformation literature and history must supplement by direct penetration into the life of our pre-renaissance Christian and pre-Christian forbears if he wills to acquire sufficient background against which to project and out of which to derive a genuine and thoroughly humanistic philosophy of life. English and the modern literatures, of course, do not antedate the renaissance. For this reason, primarily, candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts devote a minimum of two years to the study of literature in Latin, which from the second century before Christ until the cleavage of the national cultures was the common language of Europe.

Aside from the educative discipline of diction, structure, style and mental power of analysis involved in the processes of translation, each language contains a complete literature of rare cultural value best revealed through the powerful contrast of the pagan mind with the Christian mind.

Economics (Ec) and Business Administration (BA)

Economics may be defined as the science which studies human behavior as a relationship between the endless wants of man and the scarce means which have alternative uses. The course in principles of economics is designed to give a general survey of the field of economics from a scientific standpoint. Other courses furnish the student with specialized analyses of some particular phases of economic life.

In addition to the general aim of instruction in theory and practice, the department of Economics and Business Administration has the following specific objectives: to contribute to the cultural aims and scope of a liberal education; to give a general but thorough knowledge and appreciation of economic life; to prepare majors for professional study in the field of business administration; to offer an undergraduate basis for graduate study in economics; to inform the student of Christian contributions to the solution of economic problems; to integrate the science of economics with principles of Christian culture and philosophy.

English (En)

Success in any activity is most surely to be won by the man or woman who has attained proficiency in the two aspects of English—communication and literature.

Communication, while basic, is a prerequisite to real academic progress, just as it is essential to every important endeavor in the world. It involves four activities: seeing, reading, writing, and speaking. The intelligent person observes with interest the world about him. He comprehends what he reads and hears, and he does so easily, accurately, fully, and thoughtfully. He expresses, in clear and incisive prose and in intelligible speech, the result of his experience—living, working, and thinking. So endowed, he is able to meet each new situation with justified confidence.

Literature—at once man's heritage from the ages and, as he adds to it, his bequest to the ages—stresses his intellectual and emotional reactions, and supports and enriches his power of communication. The literature of England and of America informs him of the past and the present, and keeps alive his civilized traditions. Through its benign influence he is brought to understand his fellow men: to live purposefully and composedly; to see beyond the ordinary; even, perhaps, through goodness, truth, and beauty, to glimpse the stars.

1-2. Practical English: Spoken and Written. A course in the fundamentals of conversational and written English, designed to meet the everyday needs of the average person in social, business, or professional life. 198. Tutorial Course. Special reading and directed study for advanced students for the writing of term papers and other major assignments. Two credit hours.

199. Comprehensive Review. Required of all majors in political science. Prerequisite: Concurrent completion of major requirements. Two credit hours.

Mathematics (Mt)

The courses in Mathematics are intended to aid in the development of exact and rigorous methods of thought; to give the student the mathematical background and preparation necessary in every field of science and business.

B. Elementary Plane Geometry. A course in high school geometry for those who lack units in this subject. No college credit.
1. Mathematics of Finance. This is a preparatory course, primarily for students of commerce and business administration. Its subject matter is applicable to financial problems of modern life, or to the preparation of students for engineering, law, and liberal arts. The course includes a review of elementary algebra, a study of the principles of simple interest and discount, the application of these principles to commercial problems, and an explanation of logarithms. Two credit hours.

2. Mathematics of Finance. A continuation of Mt 1. It is concerned with compound interest, annuities, amortization and sinking funds, capitalization, depreciation, and allied topics. Two credit hours.

3. Trigonometry. Definitions of the trigonometric functions, their mutual relations; solution of right and oblique triangles; logarithms; trigonometric equations and identities; inverse functions; graphs of the functions; applications. Three credit hours.

4. College Algebra. Review of fundamental operations and principles; quadratic equations; systems of quadratics; variation; progressions, permutations and combinations; probability; determinants; complex numbers; theory of equations; partial fractions. Three credit hours.

5. Analytic Geometry. Cartesian and polar coordinates; loci and their equations; discussion of the properties of the straight line and of the conic sections. Prerequisites: Mt 3 and 4. Three credit hours.

Modern Languages

The courses in this department are in the French, German, and Spanish languages. The nature of the courses and their content are such as to secure the following sequence of objectives:

1. A mastery of grammar and syntax and an acquaintance with the elements of style as an immediate preparation for the study of literature. This objective will also include an ability to converse with correct pronunciation and natural inflection.

2. A knowledge and appreciation of the literature of the language.

3. An acquaintance with the history and culture of the people from which the language comes. Twelve credit hours of lower division work, or the equivalent, will be required as a prerequisite to upper division courses. Students who take upper division courses in the department of Modern Languages will be advised in the selection of courses by the director of the department.

FRENCH (Fr)

1. Elementary French. This course is intended primarily to aid the student in acquiring an ability to read the French language. For this purpose insistence will be placed upon extensive readings in simple French prose. About a third of the course time will be allotted to grammar study and grammar exercises. A thorough drill in pronunciation will be given, and the student's ear will be attuned to the spoken language by the frequent use of French recordings in prose, poetry, and song, both popular and folklore. Three credit hours.

2. Elementary French. A continuation of Fr 1. Three credit hours.

31. Intermediate French. Grammar and syntax with reading and composition as an introduction to upper division work. Prerequisite: Fr 1 and 2. Three credit hours.

Upper Division Courses

101. Conversation and Composition. An advanced course in syntax and composition. Three credit hours.

121. Modern French Prose. The study of novels and short stories by modern prose writers: Erckmann-Chatrian, Bazin, Chateaubriand and others. Three credit hours.

124. The Short Story. The reading and study of representative short story writers. Three credit hours.

141. Poetry of the Nineteenth Century. Readings from Victor Hugo, Lamartine, Vigny, Mussett and others. Three credit hours.

151. Drama. A reading of dramas chosen from such authors as Corneille, Moliere, Racine and others. Three credit hours.

152. Drama. A continuation of Fr 151. Three credit hours.
161. French Literature. French literature from early times to the close of the reign of Louis XIV. Three credit hours.

162. French Literature. French literature in the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Three credit hours.

181. Contemporary Catholic Writers. The Catholic spirit in French literature, and the Catholic literary revival in France. Three credit hours.

GERMAN (Gr)

1. Elementary German. Pronunciation and grammar of the German language; written exercises, reading, dictation and conversation in German. Three credit hours.

2. Elementary German. A continuation of Gr 1. Three credit hours.

31. Intermediate German. Grammar and syntax with reading and composition as an introduction to upper division work. Prerequisite: Gr 1 and 2. Three credit hours.

32. Intermediate German. A continuation of Gr 31. Prerequisite: Gr 31. Three credit hours.

Upper Division Courses

101. Conversation and Composition. An advanced course in syntax and composition. Three credit hours.

160. Schiller. A study of the life and works of Schiller through lectures and selected readings. Three credit hours.

161. Goethe. Lectures and readings in Goethe's works, together with a study of his life and times. Three credit hours.

162. Goethe’s Faust. A critical study of part I; assigned readings, reports and lectures on part II. Lectures and discussions in German. Three credit hours.

165. Nineteenth Century German Literature. Lectures and readings in the development of German literature from the beginning of romanticism through the rise of naturalism. Three credit hours.

166. Nineteenth Century German Literature. A continuation of Gr 165. Three credit hours.

171. The Modern Drama. A study of the principal trends in the drama of the period and of representative authors including Hauptmann, Hofmannsthal, Kaiser, Toller, and von Unruh. Three credit hours.

SPANISH (Sp)

1. Elementary Spanish. This course is designed to impart a firm foundation in the primary elements of the Spanish language in preparation for later studies of the literature of the language, and for eventual fluency in speech and commercial use. The basic elements, including vocabulary and syntax, will be stressed until mastered to an extent that more advanced study will be profitable. Three credit hours.

2. Elementary Spanish. A continuation of Sp 1. Three credit hours.

31. Intermediate Spanish. Grammar and syntax with reading and composition as an introduction to upper division work. Prerequisite: Sp 1 and 2. Three credit hours.

Upper Division Courses

121. The Spanish Novel of the Renaissance. A study of the works of the leading novelists of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Lectures and discussions in Spanish. Collateral readings. Three credit hours.

150. Novela del Siglo de Oro. The development of the novel during Spain’s literary Golden Century, closing with Cervantes’ Don Quijote. Lectures, readings and discussions. Collateral readings. Three credit hours.

152. Cervantes. The study of Spain’s greatest literary figure; his life and work previous to Don Quijote. Lectures and readings. Three credit hours.

155. Teatro del Siglo de Oro. Lectures, readings and discussions on the leading plays and playwrights of Spain’s brilliant XVI-XVII century. The Spanish stage; dramatic forms. Three credit hours.

163. Nineteenth Century Drama. The romantic theme predominates throughout the century in Spanish letters. Through the study of selected plays the student has the opportunity to become acquainted with the most prominent dramatists of the epoch. Three credit hours.

170. Modern Short Story. Lectures, readings and discussions on the best known contemporary short stories. Three credit hours.

172. The Modern Novel. The directed new nationalism of la Generacion del ’98 is studied by means of lectures, readings and discussions in the classroom. Three credit hours.

Philosophy (PI)

Any declaration of the general aim of the department of Philosophy would be to define philosophy itself. The student, however, may assure himself that a well-advised selection of courses and serious study will result in a recognition of the unity of knowledge and a helpful alignment of fields of study; acquaintance with the organization of mental life together with development and control of its various processes; a power of such constructive criticism as is reasonable, unbiased, and tolerant; a stimulation of talent for speculative and practical thought; illumination of the rational foundations of religion; an enlarged appreciation of the dignity of human nature, and a philosophy of life which conforms to the best traditions of Christian civilization.

34. Logic. Aristotelian logic. The science of clearness, correctness and order in the fundamental operation of the intellect; inductive reasoning, and the informal reasoning of everyday life and literature. Three credit hours.

Upper Division Courses

100. Metaphysics. The science of the first principles of being: the concept and modes of being; the transcendentals; theories of analogy, act and potency; the Aristotelian categories emphasizing substance and relation; the theory of efficient causality and of purpose. Three credit hours.

105. Philosophy of Nature. An historical study of the basic problems concerning metaphysics of matter; the continuum, quantity, mechanism, space, place, motion, time and constitution of matter; a study of the hylomorphic theory in relation to modern scientific theories. Three credit hours.

106. Natural Theology. An inductive inquiry into the question of Infinite Reality culminating in the philosophy of Infinite Being; a purely rational study of the nature and properties of Infinite Being; an approach to religion in the light of reason. Three credit hours.

111. Philosophy of Man. The specific attributes of man; origin of human knowledge; intellect, will, freedom, habits; the constitution of man; theories of the soul; the unity of man; person. Three credit hours.

130. General Ethics (Why Be Moral?). The television presentation of PI 131. Lectures twice weekly for 15 weeks over WCET. Two credit hours.

131. Principles of Ethics. The science of the first principles of human goodness; the purpose of human life; the human act; morality and its essential norm; the general theory of law and rights; conscience; virtue. Three credit hours.

132. Christian and Social Ethics. A philosophical exposition of the rights and duties of the individual on the basis of ethical norms; the origin and theories of society; the social, economic and political relationships of the individual. Prerequisite: PI 131. Required of all degree students as Christian culture. Three credit hours.

133. History of Modern Philosophy. This course will be a survey of modern philosophy, extending from the reformation period up to contemporary thinkers. An attempt will be made to show the dominant movement of thought during this period as a gradual substitution of the products of human thought for the intelligible reality given in nature. The metaphysical positions of several outstanding figures in this development will be studied in some detail, and the problems they raise will serve as the occasion for an examination of the traditional scholastic position. Students will be expected to develop their own notebooks in which they will record citations from the various philosophers as these seem pertinent to the principles developed in class, together with their own comments and applications of these principles. In the study of this development much attention will be given to developments in science and mathematics as these bear on the philosophical evolution. Three credit hours.

140. History of Christian Philosophy, I. An historical study based on Gilson’s Spirit of Medieval Philosophy treating of Christian philosophy and the problem of reason and faith, and a comparison of Greek with Christian philosophers on metaphysical questions. Three credit hours.

141. History of Christian Philosophy, II. A continuation of PI 140 emphasizing the problem of Christian philosophy in relation to the philosophy of man, morals, and society. Three credit hours.
152. Texts of St. Thomas. Reading and discussion of texts from the Summa Theologica with a view to developing a mature understanding of the supernatural life and doctrine as it is founded on the natural. In the latter connection the relevance of St. Thomas' teaching to contemporary problems in the different arts and sciences will be emphasized. Three credit hours.

153. Texts of St. Thomas. Continuation of Ps 152. Three credit hours.

154. Analogy of Potency and Act. A development of St. Thomas' doctrine of analogy in its primary metaphysical application. The course will be based on texts of St. Thomas embodying both his teaching on analogy itself and the application he made of his doctrine to certain important metaphysical questions. Three credit hours.

155. On Being and Essence. The course will begin with a detailed examination of St. Thomas' fundamental work, De Ente et Essentia. As far as time will permit this will be followed by an application of St. Thomas's teaching to various historically important positions on the question. Three credit hours.

156. Thomistic Principles and Contemporary Culture. The class will read representative texts expressing contemporary thought on basic philosophic issues. After that, St. Thomas will be read on the same issues by way of reaching definitive solutions of the problems raised. Three credit hours.

191. Logical Positivism. A critical analysis of the texts of representatives of the school of logical positivists including Wittgenstein, Carnap, Schlick, Tarski and Quine. Three credit hours.

197. Tutorial Course. Special reading and directed study for advanced students for the writing of term papers and other major assignments. Two credit hours.

199. Comprehensive Review. Required of all majors in philosophy. Prerequisite: Concurrent completion of major requirements. Two credit hours.

Psychology (Ps)

Psychology is the study of the human personality: how we know, how we feel, how we act, and how we adjust ourselves to various situations. The Department of Psychology would both equip the undergraduate with a preparation for better living in society (a knowledge of the potentialities of mind is the best preventive against maladjustment), and train psychologists in the field of guidance and counseling in the academic and in the business world.

32. Psychology of Learning. A study of the results and methods of experimental psychology which contribute to an understanding of human development and learning. Three credit hours.

33. General Psychology. This course, introductory to all courses in psychology, discusses the organic basis of human activity and the basic mental processes. Attention is given to the findings of experimental research as correlated with the philosophy of man. Two credit hours.

34. General Psychology. A continuation of Ps 33. Two credit hours.

103. Psychology of Motivation. This course investigates the unconscious and conscious roots of human action. Reflex acts and their implications in and influence upon human conduct. The feelings and emotions, human impulses, instincts, aspiration, conflicts. The mechanisms of sublimation and compensation. The phases of ideomotor action, conceptual and voluntary human control. Two credit hours.

111. Rational Psychology. Same as Philosophy of Man. Cf. page 79.

134. Child Psychology. The genetic study of growth and development; hereditary and environmental factors; early and later childhood to puberty. Special problems at various age levels. Two credit hours.

135. Psychology of Adolescence. Impulses, emotions, and attitudes of the adolescent boy and girl as individuals and in the sphere of social and religious ideals. Two credit hours.

136. Abnormal Psychology. A brief review of all the ailments known as psychopathies; definitions and factors implied in genesis, development, background of nerves, glands, and sex. The purely psychogenic disorders. The study of functional psychopathies, discussion of hereditary factors, individual constitution, modern conditions of life; the social, legal, and ethical implications of insanity, crime, accountability. Anxiety neurosis. Two credit hours.

142. Mental Hygiene. A review of the modern medical and clinical methods of psychotherapy. Etiology, prognosis, prophylaxis. Treatment of juvenile psychopathies, and of the physical, mental, and emotional deviations peculiar to the adolescent; the question of sex enlightenment. Psychiatric social service. Appreciation and criticism of the various systems of mental healing. The role of religion. Two credit hours.

143. Applied Business Psychology. Introduction to psychology applied to life and work; personality development and the adjustment concept; predicting and influencing the behavior of the individual, of the group; and principles of research for the student of applied psychology.
Two credit hours.

151. Modern Psychological Problems. A brief outline of the problems involved in the evolution of the science of psychology. It embraces the contributions of Descartes, Locke, Hume, Kant, and the Kantians.
The development of the theories of association. True and false theories concerning the psychology of religion, magic, spiritism, telepathy.
The outworn theories of mental healing, phrenology, and demonology.
Problems of adolescence, psychic storm and stress in old and young.
Various problems will be approached in an easy and popular way, and in the style of free discussion. Two credit hours.

152. Modern Psychological Problems. A continuation of Ps 151.
The present status of experimental psychology, its apparatus, paraphernalia, methods. Suggestion, psychoanalysis, split personality theories, phobias, scruples, hypnosis, behaviorism, and Gestalt psychology. Two credit hours.

154. Personality Problems. Maladjustments; behavior handicaps; aggressiveness; phobias; the intangibles of personality. Two or three credit hours.

156. Problems of Delinquency. This course will consider those factors which tend to be responsible for the high incidence of delinquency among juveniles. Particular emphasis will be focused on the normal growth pattern of children demonstrating the fact that anti-social behavior stems from needs which have been unmet. Consideration will be given to the problems of juveniles in the metropolitan Cincinnati area. Two credit hours.

160-161. Psychological Counselling in Human Relations. Study of psychological principles as applied to counselling in human relations in industry, education, social and correctional work and related fields.
Counselling situations illustrated by case histories. Four credit hours.

165. Psychology of Crime. Study of psychological factors involved in criminal behavior, the kind of people who come in conflict with the law, and the conditions that contribute to crime. Consideration of the history and development of penology, parole, and probation and the role of psychiatry, psychology, and social casework in rehabilitation. Discussion of the principles involved in law enforcement, institutional treatment, and correctional programs. Two credit hours.

166. Psychology of Crime. A continuation of Ps 165. Two credit hours.

173. Industrial Psychology. A review of the principles of sound psychological procedure as applied to personnel in commerce and industry.
A correlated study of personnel management and industrial relations concerning both capital and labor. Concentration upon the human element in American industry. Lectures by plant and industrial psychologists. Prerequisites: Ps 33, 34; BA 165. Two or three credit hours.

199. Senior Thesis. A course of directed reading and undergraduate research required of all majors in psychology. Prerequisite: Concurrent completion of major requirements. Two credit hours.

Science

For purposes of convenience, biology and chemistry are included under this heading.

BIOLOGY (Bl)
The courses in biology aim to assist in the liberal education of the student and to contribute to his cultural background. Lectures and demonstrations are intended to give him a knowledge of basic biological principles as well as training in careful, thoughtful, and independent observation and scientific analysis.

11. The Biological World and Man. This course is designed to give the student a better understanding and appreciation of the biological laws which apply to man and the living world around him. The subject matter includes such topics as the systems which compose the human body and their functions; the organization, life cycles, and economic importance of typical plants and animals; the embry­ ological development of man, heredity, and organic evolution. The relationships of some of the above topics to philosophy. Although no formal laboratory work accompanies the course, the lectures are illustrated by use of motion pictures, biological models, and demonstrations of living materials at the Albers Biological Laboratory, Evanston Campus. Three credit hours.

credit hours.

CHEMISTRY (Ch)
The purpose of the courses in Chemistry is both cultural and professional.
The general student is given an appreciation of the fundamental principles of the science; the major is offered training in laboratory technique and a progressive program covering the elements of inorganic, organic, analytic, and physical chemistry to acquaint him with the basic divisions of the science.
3. General Inorganic Chemistry. Experimental lectures combined with discussion of problems and laboratory work. Three lectures, two or four hours of laboratory per week. Four or five credit hours.

4. General Inorganic Chemistry. A continuation of Ch 3. Three lectures, two or four hours of laboratory per week. Four or five credit hours.

51. Elementary Quantitative Analysis. Theory and practice of analytical chemistry. Two lectures and four hours of laboratory per week. Four credit hours.

101. Organic Chemistry. Three lectures and two or four hours of laboratory work per week. Prerequisites: Ch 3 and 4. Four or five credit hours.

102. Organic Chemistry. A continuation of Ch 101 which is also prerequisite. Four or five credit hours.

116. Intermediate Quantitative Analysis. A continuation of Ch 51. Two lectures and four hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisite: Ch 51. Four credit hours.

Secretarial Practice

The Secretarial Practice course is designed to prepare students who wish to reach positions of responsibility through secretarial openings. Necessarily, stress is laid on work which will develop skill in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, and English. Well-grounded in this foundational work, the student is better prepared for such fields as Accounting, Economics, and Business Law. Thus trained, he may view business activity as an integrated whole, and see the significance of his own work. Only through such a basic understanding can the secretarial worker be prepared for the opportunities for advancement that his position is likely to offer him. Further, a liberal allowance of cultural courses is suggested in order that the student may attain the necessary background for a pleasing and interesting personality. The secretarial worker's constant association with executives makes the development of an intellectual background highly desirable.

A. Typewriting. Use of the typewriter and exercises for accuracy and speed; practice in writing and arranging simple business letters and manuscript copy. Non-credit.

B. Beginners' Shorthand. A beginning course in shorthand designed for students who wish to prepare themselves for secretarial work; Gregg shorthand theory applied in reading and writing practice. Non-credit.

C. Dictation. A review of the principles of Gregg shorthand; dictation and speed practice; typewriting speed tests. Non-credit.

So 31 and 32 and Ec 35 and 36 are introductory to upper division courses. Advanced students should lay their field of concentration in the departments of philosophy, psychology, economics, and sociology under the direction of the department of Sociology.

31. Introduction to Sociology. A comprehensive study of the science of sociology and its place among other sciences. This course will emphasize organic and sociological elements which have their roots in biology, anthropology, and psychology. Two credit hours.

32. Introduction to Sociology. A continuation of So 31. This course will cover some of the foundations and principles of sociology by analyzing the structure and function of society. Two credit hours.
132. Christian and Social Ethics. A philosophical exposition of the erights and duties of the individual on the basis of ethical norms; the origin and theories of society; the social, economic and political relationships of the individual. Given as PI 132. Prerequisite: PI 131.
Required of all degree students as Christian culture. Three credit hours.

156. Problems of Delinquency. This course will consider those factors which tend to be responsible for the high incidence of delinquency
among juveniles. Particular emphasis will be focused on the normal growth pattern of children, demonstrating the fact that anti-social behavior stems from needs which have been unmet. Consideration will be given to the problems of juveniles in the metropolitan Cincinnati area. Two credit hours.

158. Community Services for Children. A study of those resources in the Cincinnati area which are designed to serve young people. Emphasis will be placed on those agencies which are working to combat the rising tide of juvenile delinquency. Two credit hours.

195. Rebuilding the Social Order. Genesis and evolution of Christian social theory; economic institutions; property, ownership, wage­ contracts, labor unions, occupational groups as set forth in papal pronouncements; socio-economic theory of wages; hierarchy of social institutions in the framework of a Christian society; corporation; role of religion and morality in social reconstruction. Two credit hours.

Speech (Ex)

The courses offered in this department have been planned to meet the needs of men and women who realize the advantages of fluency and persuasiveness in private conversation and before group audiences, large or small. The problems involved in oral development are varied and individual, and the courses aim at their solution through a progressive treatment of each. The courses in Speech have as their final objective a personal training of business or professional people who wish to organize their ideas logically, to converse intelligently, and to speak with force, interest and conviction.

1. Principles of Speech. This is a practical course in effective speaking. Its purpose is two-fold, training in good speech habits for everyday conversation, and preparations for speech occasions of a business and social nature. Living principles of successful speakers are applied to individual speaking experiences. Essentials are centered around three basic concepts, surveying the speech problem, building the speech, and oral practice. Special skills in voice, diction, and gestures are emphasized through actual speaking practice in the classroom.
Application is also made to the fundamentals of effective radio speech.
Two credit hours.

2. Principles of Speech. Continuation of Ex 1. Two credit hours.

3. Advanced Speech. This course emphasizes actual practice in the advanced types of speech. Instruction and training are provided for the basic forms of Discussion, Debate, and Parliamentary Practice.
Practical methods are discussed for continual improvement in the rudiments of speaking: Voice, Body Movement, Diction, Speech Composition. Prerequisite: Ex 1 and 2. Two credit hours.

4. Advanced Speech. A continuation of Ex 3. Two credit hours.

8. Radio Technique. The object of this course is to provide specialized training for radio speaking. The four essentials of radio broadcasting are studied and practiced: clarity, word emphasis, conversational mode and timing. Field study of commercial broadcasting by visits to radio stations. Microphone techniques are taught by speaking over public address system and in radio station. Two credit hours.

Upper Division Courses

101. Acting Technique. A basic course designed to develop young student actors by means of exercises in pantomime, improvisation and general movement. Student workshop in scenes, character development and make-up. Three credit hours.

102. Directing. A course designed primarily for beginners in the technique and principles of directing, which will include techniques of realism and stylization with workshop productions directed by students with supervision by faculty. Three credit hours.

104. Play Production. A fundamental course in the production of plays, including choice of play, casting, rehearsals, business management, etc. Three credit hours.

Theology (Th) and Christian Culture

To attempt to educate the youth of our land intellectually only, without any regard for his moral and religious training, is to neglect the most essential part of his education. Without solid moral and religious training no person can live an acceptable life, either as an individual or as a member of society. Appalled by the nation-wide lawlessness and disrespect for authority, civic leaders and educators are finally convinced that the present system of public education is a failure because it excludes religious training from the school curriculum.

It should be noted that the problem of morality affects the non-Catholic as well as the Catholic. Consequently, every person should be able to prove not only the existence of God, but also the existence of a moral law which binds him to do what is right and to avoid what is wrong.
Moreover, intelligent men and women should know the answers to such questions as: Is one religion as good as another? Is Christian revelation in conflict with science or human reason? Does man need and does he receive help from God? What is the rational and Christian solution to the present day problems of war, euthanasia, sterilization, sex, social justice? What is the rational and Christian attitude toward marriage, divorce, birth-control?

Answers to these and kindred questions will be given and discussed in the courses listed below. Fair-minded seekers-for-truth, Catholic and non-Catholic, will find in these courses sound doctrinal reasoning and its practical application for a better moral, social, and economic structure.

THEOLOGY (Th)

25. Christ, Prophet and King, I. A study of the Bible in general and the Gospels in particular, taking up such questions as the credibility, authenticity, and inspiration of the Bible; the Sacred Canon; an outline of Jewish history; the political, social, religious thought of the Jews at the time of Christ; the false and true concepts of the Messiah. Two credit hours.

26. Christ, Prophet and King, II. A study of the public life of Christ. Emphasis is placed on two aspects of His Messiahship: as Prophet He reveals a new and fuller knowledge of God; as King He establishes the Kingdom promised and foretold, the Church. Two major fields of Theology are introduced: Christology and Ecclesiology. Two credit hours.

27. Christ, our High Priest. The third Messianic role of Christ as Priest as studied here in detail. This includes a study of His Passion death and Resurrection and Ascension, and the new life which these events made possible for man: the life of grace in Christ. Baptism, the Eucharist and the Holy Mass are studied here as principal means of receiving the grace Christ won for us. Two credit hours.

28. The Mystical Christ. The Life of Christ as communicated to the individual by the Church. A study of the early Church as portrayed in the Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles of St. Paul. Here is the blueprint of the Mystical Body as taught by Christ, developed by St. Paul and interpreted in modern day language by Pope Pius XII. Two credit hours.

CHRISTIAN CULTURE

All candidates for a degree must have completed four of the courses listed below.

Ec 187. Philosophy of Communism. Two credit hours. (Cf. page 69 for course descriptions.)

Ec 189. Christian Theory of Economics. Two credit hours. (Cf. page 69 for course description.)

En. 136. World Literature: Middle Ages. Three credit hours. (Cf. page 67 for course description.)

En 188. Catholic Literature. Three credit hours. (Cf. page 68 for course description.)

GB 121. The Great Books. Three credit hours. (Cf. page 90 for course description.)

GB 122. The Great Books. Three credit hours. (Cf. page 90 for course description.)
THE GREAT BOOKS (GB)

It has become something of a tradition in the reading of the great books to avoid any conclusions—as though conclusions as such were always suspect, if not simply wrong. On the other hand, Catholics have been criticized for having all the answers but none of the questions. It will be the purpose of this course to confront students, through the books, with some of the great questions, and, as far as possible, to reach the true and necessary answers. The method will be dialectical. The underlying assumption is that the teacher's formulation of precise questions enables the student to discover the truth for himself.
