Student Council Election Close

JORDAN WINS OVER HUGHES; TIGHT CONTEST

Many Votes Are Cast Tuesday; Inauguration Ceremonies Tonight

Kenny Jordan was elected President of the Student Council for the next year in the election held on Tuesday. Polls were open all day and most of the students of the Liberal Arts College cast votes.

The contest was close with most of the opposition coming from Jack Hughes who was recently elected president of next year's senior class. Hughes and Jordan were the only two candidates who had seen previous experience in the Council as the other two representatives of the juniors, Robert Ryan and Leo Koester, failed of re-election in the recent class elections in which Maurice Farrell, Jack Mulvihill, and Joseph Podesta were selected for the honor. Hughes, by coming in second, automatically becomes Vice-President of the group.

Although out-distanced by Jordan and Hughes, the other three were well-grouped. When the last vote was counted it became certain that Mulvihill was the new secretary and Farrell, the treasurer.

Besides the senior members of the Council there are the Juniors Thomas Schmidt, president of the next year's Junior Class, Walter Moellering, Harold Link and Charles Riley. Schmidt by being the president of the class is an ex post facto member of the Council. Harold Link was also a member of Student Council which is now in office. Both Moellering and Riley are new members of the Council.

The votes as cast for the nominees for this year's Sophomore Class for Student Council were: Moellering, 43; Link, 34; Riley, 32; Mueller, 26; Vondohre, 23; and Clemens, 12.

Next year's Sophomore Class elected Paul Barrett and Carl Schwing for their representatives in the Council. Charles Duffy, having been elected president of his class, is automatically a member of the Council.

From the line up of all those elected to the Council there are twelve members of the Council who will be initiated into the Council this evening. The new class of Freshmen in September will elect their Class president shortly after they resume their classes.

CHESS TEAM DROPS ITS SECOND MATCH

Bauman and Ryan Are Elected To Head Chess Club Next Year

Xavier's Chess team was again defeated by the University of Cincinnati, last Saturday afternoon. The games were played in the Chess Club's Room in the Biology Building. U. C. scored 4 1-2 points to Xavier's 1-2.

The 1-2 point for Xavier was made by Eugene Ryan, who played a draw game with Frank Lerman of U. C.

The others who played for Xavier were: Louis Groeniger, Samuel Bauman, James Ludden, and Joseph Nolan. Their respective opponents from the University of Cincinnati were Messrs. Teres, Hatfield, Feinberg and Stover.

Officers were elected for next year at the regular weekly meeting of the Club, last Thursday afternoon. Samuel Bauman was elected President, and Eugene Ryan is the new Secretary. William Young and Robert Helmick were the officers of the club during the past year.

FR. NOLAN TO SPEAK ON LINCOLN AND CIVIL WAR

Rev. Thomas A. Nolan, S. J., popular lecturer on historical subjects, and professor of constructive history at Xavier University, has been invited by two Cincinnati institutions to speak Thursday.

Fr. Nolan will lecture at the College of the Sacred Heart, Clifton, Thursday morning on "Lincoln and the Civil War." On Thursday afternoon he will give the same address before the high school students of Mercy Academy, Freeman Avenue.

THERMOMETERS ARE SWIFTLY GOING UP

"Hookah" And Three Snake Skins Added To Trophies For Best Salesmen

Three large snake skins and a "Hookah", Indian water pipe, have been added to the list of prizes to be given those selling the highest number of tickets for the Panther skin raffle now in progress. The skins, a large cobra, a royal viper, and a rat snake, whose tail tapers to a point similar to that of the rodent from which it derives its name, were acquired in the hills of the Patna Mission, near Mt. Everest, India.

The addition of these prizes has produced the greatest show of optimism to date. Two Xavier students, for honors, have sold over 60 books of chances between them and have boosted the school's total past the $100.00 mark.

Outside returns, including those from Xavier University High School, have started pouring in and the red line of the thermometer on the starboard side of the display sign in Science Hall has taken quite a jump.

Clever cartoons depicting the raffle have been drawn by Larry McQuaide, '35. These cartoons have injected much spirit into the student body as a whole, and, with cooperation as the by-word, each student has pledged himself to sell at least one book of tickets.

CLEF CLUB DANCE PLANS ANNOUNCED

Only Members And Their Invited Guests Will Attend Formal Dance

On Friday evening, May 26, the Xavier University Clef Club will hold their Spring Concert and Dance at the Ballroom of the Hotel Gibson. Tickets for the concert are now being sold by all the members of the club, and can be obtained for the sum of 25c. This, however, only entitles the purchaser to the concert, not the dance.

After the concert, which usually begins between 8 and 8:15, the floor is cleared and members of the Clef Club join in for their last function of the year. The dance is formal and is closed. Each member of the club is permitted two bids which he gives to friends; these entitle you to entrance to the closed formal dance after the concert.

The committee is working earnestly in making preparations for the Spring Formal. Mr. McEvoy, S. J., moderator has not as yet announced which orchestra has been booked for the dance.

On Saturday evening, May 13, the Xavier University Clef Club will appear at St. Gregory's Seminary at 8:15 o'clock for their next concert of the season. The concert is to be a formal one, and Mr. Castellini is working hard in preparing a most interesting program for the occasion.

There will probably be two broadcasts scheduled for the Club before the end of the month, one at WLW, and one at WKRC.

"TO MOTHER"

Whatever sadness you may bring
To folks along the street
At home with joy and cheerfulness
"Your Mother" you should greet.

Do noble acts, not dream all day,
Of one and then another.
Just try your best to say kind words
Especially—"To Mother."

She'll always sacrifice for you
Her dear, precious life,
And yet a smile will even rise
In all her bitter strife.

You'll look back after many years
And not regret the way
That you were loyal, true, and kind,
"To Mother"—every day.

TWO LECTURES TO BE GIVEN BY DANTE CLUB

Two lectures are to be given by the Dante Club over the week end. The first one is scheduled for tomorrow evening, when the Dante Club, represented by Jack Linfert, Lawrence McDermott, and Charles Donovan will present their lecture "St. Joan of Arc" at the Villa Madonna Academy in Covington, Kentucky.

On Sunday evening, May 14, the Sisters and Nurses of St. Mary's Hospital, in Cincinnati, will be entertained by the Dante Club, with their presentation, "Dante's Divine Comedy." On that night, John Brink, John Snyder, and Raymond McCoy will be the speakers.

Last Friday evening, the Club gave its lecture on "St. Joan of Arc" for the Sisters and Nurses of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Covington, Kentucky. Jack Linfert, Charles Donovan, and Edward Doering made the presentation.

BALL PLANS ARE NEARING COMPLETION

Student Council To Parade; Attire May Be Formal Or Spring Formal

With but ten days remaining, Chairman Ervin Stadler and members of his committee are ironing out last minute details in preparation for the Senior Ball to be held May 19. Michael Hauer and his orchestra, together with a number of entertainers will enliven the evening from ten 'til—

The lavish entertainment plans include a Grand March with the members of the Student Council and their dates forming an honorary corps. Decorations seem almost superfluous at beautiful Maketewah Country Club but the plans include a tasteful, dignified display of school colors.

A special arrangement of the varsity song will be presented by Hauer. The Committee is making tentative arrangements concerning Michael Hauer's broadcast over WKRC and WFBE.

An added feature of the event has been the promise of attendance of virtually all Xavier's football captains since the year 1926. Numerous group dinners are planned to precede the Ball.

Many are still puzzled as to how so much can be offered for so small an admission fee. It is worth the price of admission alone to see Prince Louis Ginocchio lead the Grand March. The advance sale of tickets has been satisfying and a large attendance is expected.

Tickets may be secured from Chairman Ervin Stadler, Paul Ahern, Frank Mercurio, Daniel Corbett, Louis Groeniger, Louis Ginocchio, and Henry Schoo for the sum of two dollars and fifty cents.

The race between adherents of spring formal dress and those who will wear tuxedos is very close and until the night of the affair no one will know which attire will be the more popular. Unless rain interferes, dancing will be on the out-door floor.

HIGH SCHOOL BANDS COMPETE TOMORROW

Catholic High Schools Will Engage in Musical Contest

Tomorrow evening Corcoran Field will be the scene of the band contest between the four Catholic High Schools of the city. The bands of Xavier University High, Purcell, Elder, and Roger Bacon will each play three pieces. Two pieces will be selected, the third, optional.

The judges of the contest will be Walter Esberger, William Bell, and August Shaefer. A large crowd is expected to attend the contest. Ushers will be supplied by the girls Catholic High Schools. Miss Braugh, musical director at Our Lady of Angels High School, will be in charge of the ushers.

RESULTS TO BE FORWARDED TO THE PRESIDENT

Participation In War Ballot Will Permit Choice Of Three Pledges

A ballot box is waiting in the registrar's office for the coupon which you may clip from below and sign. The poll, which is open to all students, will be closed tomorrow at 1:20.

The latitude offered by the three available courses of action is sufficiently broad that every student can express his sentiments by signing in one of the divisions. It should be thoroughly understood that in case of an actual war there will be no legal obligation upon anyone as a result of signing this clipping. This is stated upon the authority of James Frederick Green, Chairman of the Intercollegiate Disarmament Council.

The principal objective of this census is to accurately judge the sentiment of the college student on this question which has been brought to the fore by an impending crisis, in both Europe and the Far East, which many claim threaten the very existence of civilization, and by the rapid advance into prominence of Nationalism and militarism and the increasing economic rivalries.

The first alternative, to agree not to participate in any war whatever, is the form of pledge which many students of Oxford and other English universities have favored.

The idea of not bearing arms unless the mainland of the country is invaded has originated in Brown University, while the third course open is the traditional test of American citizenship.

The results of this poll will be forwarded to the Council on Intercollegiate Disarmament and from there the ballots, in the company of those from many other colleges and universities, will be brought to Congress and to President Roosevelt.

The subject of the poll has been widely discussed in the past several weeks by the Poland Philopedian Society, the Mermaid Tavern, The Round Table, and many other official and unofficial groups connected with Xavier. Most students are convinced that one of these ways of action is the best and are ready to express themselves accordingly.

I, the undersigned student of Xavier University, pledge myself not to participate in any war, of whatever origin or nature, and to work actively for the organization of the world on a peace basis.

Signed.....

I, the undersigned student of Xavier University, pledge myself not to participate in any war, except in case the mainland of the United States is invaded, and to work actively for the organization of the world on a peace basis.

I, the undersigned student of Xavier University, will participate in any war approved by the President and declared by Congress.

It Would Be Bad!

Not once, but several times this year has the News complimented the band upon its excellent showing and not the least reason for the compliment was the fact that it was the nearest to an all-university band that we have ever had at Xavier. The music was good and the drilling was excellent, according to most of us who were in the stands.

Interest was stimulated, freshmen were enthusiastic and upperclassmen showed up regularly at practices (two every week during football season and long ones at that). Promises made through the News last year were responsible for much of the work by the members.

Now the President of the Band says that with the end of the school year in full sight he is being put off and can get nothing definite as to when the awards will be made. Since the end of the basketball season members have been practicing diligently for the graduation exercises, but, because he can tell them nothing definite about their well-earned rewards, the President has been forced to call off practicing.

If nothing is done to remedy this situation the spirit of the band will be shattered and the school will have to go back to the dead, ill-drilled, paid bands that used to appear at Xavier functions—or no band at all.

This would be bad.

The Universal Mother

Mothers' Day is celebrated this coming Sunday, the fourteenth. We should, it seems, take advantage of this day and celebrate not only our own Mother's day but also make it a special occasion for a special devotion to the Virgin Mary, the spiritual Mother of us all.

The name of Mary suggests a beautiful and kind simplicity that makes those who seek her aid forget all possibilities of not being granted their wish. Most of those who make it a daily practice of praying to this Universal Mother have found that what would have been an otherwise miserable day has been made, through the hidden and powerful intervention of the Mother of All Mothers, a happy day. There are many pleasant incidents that happen day after day, year in and year out, which would have never happened had it not been for the wonderful intervention of the Blessed Mother.

Of course this all might seem hypothetical and religious fanaticism to those who merely scoff and never reason. But to those who have made the experiment realize the happiness which can be added to one's everyday life by a devotion to Mary.

What A Mess

Are we to stand by silently while Governor White, and the lobbyists of the great public utilities, the school lobby, and other special groups who would benefit by its unfair distribution of the tax burden, put the coupon sales tax upon our already overtaxed shoulders? We must make our objections known and make them known in a manner that will prevent the passage of this tax.

Protest against this measure because no general sales tax has ever been a fair tax. It does not take into consideration the ability of the taxpayer to pay and consequently does not distribute the tax burden evenly between the rich and the poor. Moreover, a sales tax has never been adapted for use by a state government because it tends to ruin that state's business and benefit the business of its neighboring states. Consider the enormous administrative problems which such a tax would add to an already overburdened tax system. It would involve the expansion of the tax collection forces so as to supervise every sale made in the state. It would create unrest among the people.

And, as if a general sales tax were not bad enough, Governor White proposes to make us the victims of a new experiment, THE COUPON SALES TAX. Imagine, if you can, a man going into a store and making a five cent purchase and then searching through his pockets to find that he has left his coupon book at home. Of course, the merchant could not sell him the goods unless he could pay the tax. We are to suffer from such inconvenience, if this system of taxation is put into effect. And remember! If this system is adopted, you are going to pay the tax on your future purchases as soon as you purchase a coupon book. If you purchase a five dollar book you are paying the tax on the next two hundred and fifty dollars worth of goods which you buy. That is not equitable! How can the needy of our cities pay such a tax?

A sales tax, at the present time, is a step backwards when we should be going forward with the rest of the nation. It will tend to retard the industries of our state at a time when they are just beginning to show an improvement. It will cut down the purchasing power of our money when it is already being lowered by rising prices. It will cause dissatisfaction among the populace of the state at a time when all unrest must be avoided. It will increase the burden of caring for the unemployed instead of lightening it. It will tend to destroy the constructive work that is being done by our national government and place Ohio deeper in the rut of depression.

Certainly, we do not want such a tax in Ohio. Unless we make our protests known to Governor White and to our representatives in the Legislature at Columbus, our objections will be of no avail. Therefore, let us, as a group representing the students of Ohio, protest against the ill-conceived COUPON SALES TAX.

Arts and Letters

Edward A. Doering

We experienced one of the most delightful evenings the other night by paying a visit to the Shubert Theater where, as we told you in our last edition, the "Teatro del Piccoli" of Signor Vittorio Podrecca is performing. These Marionettes are really astounding. They have beautiful costumes, realistic expressions, and characteristic actions for the types which they represent so adequately. So well are the voices of the assisting singers synchronized with the little people that after two or three minutes we become oblivious of the fact that there are really dolls so cleverly maneuvered upon the stage.

Upon seeing them we recalled a difficulty of which psychologists often speak, namely, that we can never get outside ourselves and therefore cannot really know ourselves. Well, the "Piccoli" gives them their big chance for here we see a magnification of all our human traits in the acting of lifeless (though surprisingly lively) creatures. It seems the philosopher's point is well taken, for, we are convinced that in witnessing a two hour performance of these little people we learned certainly as much, if not more, about ourselves and our kind than we have discovered with the aid of the noble science of psychology. Their sparkling wit, biting satire, and side-splitting burlesque upon the attitudes and affectations of the human race could never be brought out as well by the acting of homo sapiens in the flesh.

The highlights of these performances, in our estimation, are the antics of Bil-Bal-Bul, the little acrobat, the four clowns, who are completely dismembered and then reassembled with the greatest facility before our eyes, the rip-roaring bull fight, the imitation of Josephine Baker, the delightful Redemptor's Night in Venice, the charming and quite accurate Neapolitan scenes, and of course the inimitable Concert Party. The orchestra, under the direction of Emilio Cardellini, and the principal singers deserve to be complimented on their contribution to the great success of the "Piccoli."

For those who are interested in biography there are two fine volumes recently published which show every indication of becoming the classic works on their respective subjects. The first is "Charles Carroll of Carrollton: 1737-1832" by Joseph Gurn, and the second is another biography of Richard Wagner entitled "The Unconquerable Tristan" by B. M. Stegman.

A warm friendship exists between Rev. Edward J. Quinn, pastor of the Church of Our Lord Christ the King, and Richard Crooks, internationally known lyric tenor, who sang at the Cincinnati May Festival. Bob Otto, in the Cincinnati Post, points out how the friendship grew out of an unusual incident. Last winter port authorities held the Bremen for Mr. Crooks when he was 10 minutes late for a European trip. Fr. Quinn, who was embarking for Rome to attend the consecration of his classmate, Msgr. Spellman, was also late and was thus enabled to catch the boat.

Harry J. Gilligan, past President of the Association, pointed out in his talk to the Seniors last Friday that the mayors of five of the largest cities in the United States are members of the Catholic Church. These cities are: New York, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, and Boston. He stressed the important fact that many avenues of endeavor are open to the graduate of the Catholic college today that were closed to him fifty years ago.

Mr. Gilligan's talk to the Seniors was his third address of the week. The first was given in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday and the second in Nashville, Tennessee, Thursday.

Harry Gilligan gave the seniors a little lesson in arithmetic. He said that 33 times 3.2 makes one better than 100%, when 33 stands for glasses, 3.2 stands for, etc.

"People come and people go even in the Student Council."

Jeffries, who does more than admit that he is the most handsome fellow at Xavier, broke out at the Soph-Frosh Hop with a pair of white flannels. There is nothing to this only that he had to go to this extreme (?) to attract attention some attention—because he loves it so. He was alone in his "creams."

Bob Helmick was out with his Helen Sunday night. He spent the early hours of Monday morning writing a letter to her. The poor fella' just can't get enough of the lady. Of course he'll come around with the excuse that will sound anything but plausible.

They — Xaverian generality — say, "Read Schott's col'm and learn how to snarl 'I'll get even.'"

Do you remember the picture of the From Queen in a past issue of the NEWS? So do we: a group of seniors, 3 or 4 of them travelled (a very general word; see a Roget for a more particular one) to Mt. St. Mary's-of-the-Woods over the week end.

Clary (we can't leave him alone) has been bragging again. A friend of ours tells us he (Clary) has a note book with the name, address, etc., etc., of all keen high school and college girls in the city. We know one girl he hasn't lined up in his book—and he should put it at the top of the—list.

What makes it "worse" is that the one who put up the loudest squawk about good Otto is a freshman member of the news-staff.

It is believed by the writer that this whole matter centers down to a conspiracy by those outstanding members of the "bull sessions" who resent Otto's interference into their seemingly sphere. All that one need remember is "Do right and fear no (news) man."

Even though Flanagan's Sprengy says that this "call 'em" gets louzy at times because of some of the verses in it—the lady is mild in her declamations—we can't but help insert this little poem by "F. P. A." which expresses our state at various times:

"Journalism is a shrew and scold;
I like her.
She makes you sick, she makes you old;
I like her.
She's daily trouble, storm, and strife;
She's love and hate and death and life;
She ain't no lady—she's my wife;

Two students at C. B. A. have organized a service known as Kidnappers, Inc. They have at their disposal an efficient squad and two cars. Their motto is, "We 'Get' What You Don't Want," and they carry it out perfectly, for a consideration.

That's an idea. If we had something like that around here it would solve a lot of our "competition" problems. Rest assured business would be good.

PHILOP DEBATE IS WON BY AFFIRMATIVE

Refusal To Participate In War Except In Case Of Invasion Is Topic

The affirmative, supported by James Dewan and John Brink, was awarded the decision by the critic judge, Frank Waldron in the Poland Philopedian Society's debate, last Monday afternoon.

The subject of the debate was, Resolved, "That we, as college students should take an oath never to bear arms except in case of invasion by foreign nations." The arguments of the negative were presented by Raymond McCoy and Edward Doering.

Following the debate, Father Robert E. Manning, S. J., Philopedian moderator, made a few remarks on the debate. He complimented all four of the speakers on their preparedness and delivery, and praised especially Mr. Dewan on his fine showing.

The final debate of the year for the society is scheduled for next Monday afternoon. The subject will be Resolved, "That all banks should be under Federal supervision with deposits guaranteed." The four speakers, all freshmen, include Paul Barrett and Joseph Nieman, for the affirmative, and Robert Dreidame and James Shaw, negative.

SHAKESPEAREAN PAPERS PRESENTED TO LIBRARY

Two volumes of the Shakespeare Society's Papers have recently been given to the library by the Reverend J. M. Lelen of Falmouth, Ky. They contain the monographs and reprints of early works issued by that society between 1841 and 1849.

The Shakespeare Society was formed in 1841 to further the study of the life and writings of William Shakespeare, and of the early dramatic literature of England. Many famous men of the day, like Douglas Jerrold and Henry Hallam, were among its members. Its papers form an important contribution to the field of Shakespearean criticism.

SEISMOGRAPH RECORDS MANY DISTURBANCES

The past two weeks have seen a great deal of seismic activity in various parts of the world, as shown by the dozen or more earthquakes registered on the Xavier University seismograph during that time.

Among the shocks were a large one off the coast of Greece, another in the Aleutian Islands, and several from Mexico or the adjacent Acapulco Deep.

A particularly severe shock off the West Coast of Mexico was registered at 5:39:30 Eastern Standard Time, Monday morning, May 8, followed at intervals of some hours by two feeble aftershocks.

THREE XAVERIANS ARE LATIN CONTEST WINNERS

Xavier University again distinguished itself in the field of intellectual achievement by winning second place in the Inter-Collegiate Latin Contest. All three of the papers sent in were awarded places in the contest.

The paper of Paul Huth, junior, was given fourth place, thus meriting seven points; that of Vincent Eckstein, sophomore, was awarded fifth place, for six points, while Louis Ginocchio, senior, was given the sixth position, bringing five points.

The total points won by Xavier was eighteen. The only school gaining a greater number was Marquette University with 21 points. Detroit was third with 10.

More statistics. This time the information (from The Tower) concerns the specifications for the champion exam sifter: Weight, 170 pounds; pencil thumb, 2 1-2 inches; pencil finger, 3 1-4 inches; glance to the side 8 feet; range of whispered query, 6 feet; capacity of pony, 50 words per square inch; hat size, 5 3-4.

"WELL, it's like this. Back in the old days, when men wore high hats and frock coats, they had plenty of time to think things out, and they had sense, too. They used to sit down on a log and take the time to whittle their tobacco from a plug, to be sure of having a cool smoke.

"In those days, a man named Wellman, right here in Quincy, Ill., made about the best tobacco you could get. He knew how to keep the flavor fine and mellow.

"Well, sir, the people who make this Granger Rough Cut acquired Mr. Wellman's method, and they must have known how the old boys used to whittle their tobacco to make it smoke cool. Yes, sir, this Granger is the real stuff. The same mellowness and fine flavor that Wellman used to hand out to his friends. And it's whittled into big shaggy flakes all ready for the pipe. 'Rough Cut' they call it—'cut rough to smoke cool' is the best way I can describe it.

TEN CENTS

The Granger pouch keeps the tobacco fresh

"Regardless of price, Granger is about the best pipe tobacco I ever smoked. That's why I smoke it, and that's why they call it America's Pipe Tobacco, sir."

Now we wanted to sell Granger for 10¢. It was just a question of how to do it for the price. So we pack Granger in a sensible foil pouch instead of an expensive package, knowing that a man can't smoke the package. We give smokers this good

GRANGER tobacco in a common-sense pouch for 10¢.

GRANGER has not been on sale very long, but it has grown to be a popular smoke. And there is this much about it—we have yet to know of a man who started to smoke it, who didn't keep on. Folks seem to like it.

SUCCESS IS REWARD OF HOP COMMITTEE

Freshman-Sophomore Dance Is Attended By A Very Large Crowd

The Freshman-Sophomore Hop of last Friday evening, was more than a success. Not only was the student body well represented, but there were also many friends of Xavier students present.

Justin Huber and his orchestra, with Harold Hardin, juvenile performer, were well received by the audience, and played for the dancers some of the latest popular hits. Unfortunately, Charlie Dameron, who had been scheduled to be the featured soloist for the evening, had been confined to his home where he was nursing a case of neuritis.

According to Thomas Schmidt, after all the returns of the tickets are made, the Freshman and Sophomore classes will probably be able to have a picnic before the classes are dismissed for the summer vacation.

There were between 200 and 250 couples at the Hop, one of the largest crowds at any Xavier function of this kind.

The committee were happy to announce that the faculty of the University was well represented at the dance, and the students were honored with the professors' presence.

The affair was conducted in the best of fashion, and those in charge wish to express their appreciation to the chaperons, the faculty, the student body and their friends in helping to make it the success that it was.
