NEW RECTOR APPOINTED

SKATING FROLIC PLANS COMPLETE

Xavier Students And Friends
To Enjoy Unusual Treat
At Chester Park

Plans were being completed today for the annual skating party to be sponsored by the Xavier University Commerce Club at the Sefferino Skating Rink, Chester Park, Saturday night.

Arthur Koeppel, chairman of the ticket committee, has announced that the price of admission will be forty-five cents per person. Tickets may be obtained with a down payment of fifteen cents, Koeppel said. The remainder of the admission price must be paid at the gate.

The skating is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock and will last until 11. Special music will be provided by the orchestra which regularly entertains at the rink.

Assisting Koeppel on the committee are James Carrigan and Wilfred Menke. William Dodd, president of the Club has general supervision over their work.

The event will mark the first activity of the Club during the present scholastic year. At the last regular meeting Mr. William E. Chancellor, professor of social sciences at Xavier, was introduced as the new moderator of the organization.

The skating party is open to all members of the student body and their friends. Refreshments will be sold at the rink.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Reverend Father Dennis F. Burns, the newly appointed President, will be formally introduced to the university Friday morning at 11:00 o'clock at a general assembly to be held in Mary Lodge Reading Room.

This will be the first general student convocation of the present school year.

Irish Play Tomorrow Evening

The St. Xavier Dramatic Club will present "The Lucky Emerald", an Irish play by Lindsey Barbee, tomorrow evening at 8:15 in the Poland Memorial Auditorium.

Debaters Meet Five Opponents On Trip

SEVEN DAY TRIP

To Be Taken By Kearney And
Schaefer This Week

Two members of the Xavier debating team left this morning on the third extended tour of the current season. The squad, which is composed of Richard Kearney and Frank Schaefer, will travel to northwestern Ohio and Michigan, meeting the teams of Cedarville College, at Cedarville; Heidelberg College, at Heidelberg; St. John's College, at Toledo; Detroit University, at Detroit; and Michigan University.

In the first four debates, the men from Xavier will uphold the affirmative side of the question, Resolved: that the nations should agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions. The final debate, that with Michigan, will be on the question of collective bargaining, as stated in section 7A of the New Deal.

Tomorrow evening, in the auditorium of the Good Samaritan Hospital, the Xavier debaters will meet a team from Cedarville College at Cedarville, Ohio. The Xavier squad, which consists of Lawrence Flynn, Paul Riesenberger and John Brockman, will uphold the negative side of the question.

CONTEST

For Xavier Poets

To Be Held In Conjunction With Mission Raffle

"What rhymes with raffle? A raffle is a rose is a mission is a baseball bat." One might well ask what is the meaning of these cryptic lines. They are merely the ramblings of a Xavier student preparing to participate in the Mission Raffle poetry contest. Yes, ye quaffers at the Pierian spring, a poetry contest will be held in conjunction with the mission raffle which is now entering upon its second week at Xavier.

The rules of the contest are simple. Anyone who can rhyme two sentences that are reasonably connected may enter the poetic emulation. Merely write a few lines, hu-

Charles Koch Is Chairman Of Clef Committee

Plans Completed For Stag
At Strickers Grove
On March 22nd

Charles Koch, Liberal Arts junior, has been named chairman of the committee to arrange details of the annual Formal Dance of the Clef Club, which will be held on the evening of May 20th. Assisting Koch on the committee are Dominic Sigillo, Harold Link, Howard Phillips, and Joseph Nolan.

Another committee, consisting of Roland Moores, Phil Bucklew, Robert Helmick, Conrad Rusin and Donald Barman, was appointed to make arrangements for the formal concert of the Clef Club, which will be held either in the latter part of April or early in May.

The advisability of holding the Spring Concert separate from the dance was discussed, but no final decision was reached. Definite news on this point will be announced in a later edition.

The annual Stag Party of the Clef Club will be on the night of Friday, March 22nd, at Strickers Grove, Mt. Healthy. Paul Fettig, chairman of the committee, has announced that all plans have been completed for this affair.

Frosh Debaters In Return Match

Albert Salem And V. Smith
Will Represent Xavier

Albert S. Salem and Vincent E. Smith will uphold the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that the nations shall agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions," when they meet the freshman debaters of the University of Cincinnati tomorrow night, in Hannah Hall on the U. C. campus.

Salem and Smith, freshmen in the college of liberal arts, will oppose Henry R. Winkler and Lee Jentleson who won the recent debating tourney for freshmen at the Clifton institution. The contest will be a no-decision affair.

The debate tomorrow marks the second contest between the two schools in a week. Charles L. McEvoy and Albert A. Stephan met the runners-up in the U. C. freshman tournament in the Biology Building of the Xavier campus last Friday.

Rev. D. F. Burns S. J. Selected To Succeed Father Sloctemyer As Xavier President

Farewell

Popular Rector Is Transferred

PROGRESS

Made By Xavier During 4
Year Term Of Father
Hugo F. Sloctemyer

Rev. Hugo F. Sloctemyer, S. J., Xavier's retiring president, remained at the University this week as advisor to his successor, Father Burns. It is expected that Father Sloctemyer will rest for some time before taking up his new work, the exact nature of which has not been disclosed. He will take up residence at the Milford Novitiate, Milford, Ohio.

During his four years as rector, Father Sloctemyer was responsible for many progressive innovations. It was due to his sage leadership that Xavier has continued to prosper through the depression.

Notable Achievements

Among many noteworthy achievements under Father Sloctemyer were the separation of the Cincinnati institutions under the direction of the Society of Jesus into two distinct units, the first comprising Xavier University day and night divisions and the Milford Novitiate of the Sacred Heart at Milford, Ohio; the second including St. Xavier High School, St. Xavier Church, and the St. Xavier Parochial School. Father Sloctemyer has assembled at Xavier a collection of prominent works by Cincinnati artists, and it was through his work alone that West Baden Springs Hotel properties were presented as an outright gift to the Society of Jesus.

As a result of the kind advice and aid of Father Sloctemyer to the scholastic, extra-curricular, and athletic branches, these divisions have flourished beyond their previous excellence. His aid to these intrinsic

Irish Gathering To Honor St. Patrick

JAMES E. SHAW

To Address Irish Fellowship At Annual Banquet

By virtue of his preeminence in the recent Washington Oratorical Contest held at the University, James E. Shaw, Junior Class President has been chosen to represent the younger element at the annual Irish Fellowship Club Dinner. The affair will take place on Saturday, March 16, at the Hotel Alms.

Shaw will speak on the topic "The Irish in the Law", wherein he will discuss various historical Celtic baristers and the good that they have accomplished in their respective fields. In conclusion he will point out that, despite the fact that the Irish are on all sides charged with over sentimentality, they still are nevertheless one race who hold to their principles and do not permit their emotions to domineer over their intellect.

Judge Dennis J. Ryan, prominent Cincinnati lawyer and after dinner speaker will be the guest of honor. He will be assisted by Lawrence J. Diskin, president of the organization and John M. Callahan who is chairman of the club's Executive Committee.

Father Burns To Continue Policy

"VERY PLEASED

With Xavier's Improvement During Past 13
Years"—Fr. Burns

"Knowing, as I do, that Xavier has shown tremendous progress since my last visit to Cincinnati in 1922, it would be foolhardy for me to make changes; my policy will be to continue the policy which my predecessor followed."

These words of the Rev. Dennis F. Burns, S.J., who was appointed to succeed the Rev. Hugo L. Sloctemyer as president of Xavier University, embody the principle which will be followed by the new rector in the administration of his office.

Father Burns took his new office in a simple ceremony late Sunday. He will be the twenty-seventh president of Xavier University, which was founded in 1831 and is the fourth oldest university in the state.

Pleased With Xavier

The new rector expressed optimism over the future of Xavier University. Among other things, he remarked:

"From what I have seen of Xavier, and as yet it has been only a slight glimpse, I must say that its buildings and equipment constitute one of the finest set-ups among the Jesuit colleges in America. Its location in a city which is well known as a center of art and learning renders it especially adapted for the acquisition of culture and knowledge."

Father Burns was especially enthusiastic over the progress which Xavier has made during the past decade.

"The remarkable change that has taken place from the time I last visited Xavier in 1922," he said, "to the present time assures me that Xavier embodies the essence of genuine progress. It has multiplied its buildings and has forged ahead in a scholastic and athletic way to become a luminary in the university world."

He ended his short interview with the NEWS reporter with a plea to the student body.

"The major part of my efforts here at Xavier will be devoted to increasing the student body and thereby increasing the prestige which Xavier University so well deserves.

Adieu!

It is with deep regret that the students of Xavier University learn of the transfer of the Reverend Hugo F. Sloctemyer. During his term as President of the University Father Sloctemyer endeared himself to all those with whom he came in contact.

Father Sloctemyer assumed control of Xavier at a very trying time, at a time of terrible financial crisis, at a time when the entire nation was groping blindly in a miasma of despair. Undaunted by the dire portents which surrounded his induction into office, he successfully guided the University through the most trying days of its century of existence.

So it must be with regret that we view the loss of Father Sloctemyer from our campus. But it is regret not unmixed with some joy, that he is being transferred to an office that will enable him to make an even fuller use of his powers than he has displayed during his Presidency of Xavier.

It is the misfortune of all ideals that they are judged not by what has actually been realized but by what was mistakenly expected.—T. L. Harris in Harvard Graduate's Magazine.

Now Let's Consider

By

Vincent E. Smith

An Isolated Writer

When a man achieves the honor of having his book pronounced as "the year's best seller," he often becomes rather prolific and relies very much on his reputation to arouse the appetites of his reading public.

There is no doubt that the book was one of the best written during the last voluminous decade. In a simple yet intriguing style it relates how five people were killed when a bridge collapsed and how their lives were found to be interwoven through the efforts of an aged monk.

After living in a literary environment for nine years, Thornton embarked upon a somewhat desultory life when his father resigned his position as editor of the Wisconsin State Journal to become the consul-general in China.

Besides his adventure book, he has also written The Cabala, a story of Roman sophists, and The Woman of Andros dealing with a theme of the ancient Terrence.

Dr. E. Farnau To Address Meeting

Science Club Is To Hear A Lecture By Chemist

Dr. Earl Farnau, dean of the Chemistry Department at the University of Cincinnati, will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Xavier Science Club to be held Monday evening in the Chemistry Lecture Room.

"The Practicability of Scientific Research in The World Today" will be the subject of the talk, according to an announcement by Richard Wagner, president of the Club. Dr. Farnau has spoken often on this same subject, a topic in which he is especially interested.

This lecture marks the inauguration of a new lecture series to be sponsored by the Science Club during the approaching Spring. Such specialists in scientific branches as Dr. Andrews, dean of mathematics at University of Cincinnati; Dr. Charles Gerwe, head of the research chemists at the Merrel Laboratories; Mr. Charles F. Henke, Jr., and many other men of wide experience in the work in which they are engaged at the present time, will appear.

WINS RAFFLE

Larry Schmidt was the winner of the tickets to the Notre Dame game in the recent raffle held by the Social Committee. A profit of $32.40 was realized by this raffle and will be used to aid the Social Committee in the payment of several debts.

Father Slocemyer

portions of the students' activities has earned for him great popularity among members of the student body.

In this respect, Father Slocemyer might fittingly be termed the most popular of university presidents. It was no uncommon event for students to spend more than an hour in pleasant, helpful conversation with their friend and advisor, the president.

Intimate With Alumni

Father Slocemyer was intimately connected with the Xavier Alumni and Alumnae Associations and was moderator of these two societies for the past two years. He was also a member of the alumni group, as a member of the Class of 1903.

The chief hobby of the departing rector was the collecting of the works of the prominent Cincinnati artists and during his four years at Xavier, he has assembled at the university a collection of many valuable works of this type.

Father Slocemyer came to Xavier as president in April, 1931, upon the death of the late Rev. Hubert F. Brockman, S. J. His term of office lacked only one month of being four years. The usual term in the Society of Jesus in an executive office is three years.

Many rumors have been started as to the nature of the new office which will be filled by Father Slocemyer but no definite announcement has been, or will be, made until the departure of Father Slocemyer which will probably take place within the next few days.

German Club Hears Talk On Carl Schurz

Nieman Appointed Chairman Of Program Committee

A committee to provide German subjects for future meetings was formed at a convocation of the Heidelberg German club last Wednesday night at the Palace Hotel. Paul Riesenberg, V. P., assumed presidential power during the absence of Martin Dumlér and appointed J. B. Nieman chairman of the committee.

Cornelius Kreke reviewed the life of Carl Schurz about whom Frank Overbeck spoke at the last meeting. Overbeck followed Kreke's account with a description of Schurz's escape from almost certain death during the German revolution of 1848. Schurz, a leading spirit in Germany's fight for unity, slipped out of a besieged town with two companions by crawling through a sewer. The amazing thing about this escape is that the fugitives crept back into the town through the same passageway and escaped over a wall at the back of the town while all the soldiers were concentrated in the front looking for Schurz.

O'Hara Heads Chicago Club

James W. O'Hara, '11, was recently re-elected to the presidency of the Xavier Club of Chicago. Others elected were Horace C. Reynolds, '10, secretary; Simon A. Baldus, '93, member of the executive committee. Other members of this committee are E. J. Barringer, '16, and Harry J. Dornheggen, '31.

Father Burns

With the generous co-operation of the student body, I am sure we shall attain that goal."

Widely Known Student

Father Burns has been very active as a lecturer on topics relating to religion, philosophy and the social sciences and last year delivered an average of one lecture a week before civic, religious, and patriotic groups in Chicago.

Xavier's new president holds the degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology, which he received from the Gregorian University in Rome in 1931.

Father Burns was educated at St. Ignatius College in Chicago. He is a native of Chicago and has spent much of his time since joining the order at Loyola University of that city. Since September he has held the position of regent and professor of jurisprudence in the Loyola Law School.

Theology is the subject in which Father Burns has shown special interest and his degree from Rome proves his knowledge of the subject. The three years following his ordination in 1922 were spent in France and Spain in the pursuit of higher theological study.

Change Unexpected

The change in the presidency of the university was unexpected and the first intimation that such a change was coming occurred Sunday, the day on which the appointment was made.

Father Burns has received the aid of Father Slocemyer for the past four days in which time he has taken active control of the administration.

ONE-EYED CONNOLLY

A tall man, of light complexion, wearing a tan top-coat and a slouch hat with brim turned down, attempted to crash the gate at the recent Xavier-Kentucky tilt at Lexington. He insisted that he was Joe Meyer, Athletic Director at Xavier University.

The gateman was not deceived in the least since he had seen "Joe Meyer" enter with the team. But the crasher was so insistent that the gateman finally sent for Adolph Rupp, Kentucky mentor, to settle the matter. Rupp identified the would-be crasher as Joe Meyer to the great consternation of the gentleman at the door.

The ticket-taker's "Joe Meyer" turned out to be Frank Overbeck who was brought down with the team as humorist.

William Bachs, Sophomore, was promoted into the "Four Million" when he was appointed an Honorary Colonel on the Governor's staff by Ruby Laffoon of Kentucky.

WE ASKED LEADERS IN WINTER SPORTS:

"Is this fact important to you?"

"Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos - Turkish and Domestic - than any other popular brand."

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

FLAVOR! Jack Shea, Olympic Speed Skater: "Camels taste so good that with me Camels get the nod every time. When people mention my being a cigarette smoker, I correct them and say, 'I'm a Camel smoker.'"

ENERGY! "Camel's energizing effect" is a great thing for one who is active," says Paul Thompson, of the world-champion Chicago Black Hawks hockey team. "When tired, there's one thing I want--a Camel!"

HEALTHY NERVES! Says Ray Stevens, North American Bob-Sled Champion: "When the last heat has been run, I light a Camel and enjoy it to the full, knowing that Camels never bother my nerves!"

MILDNESS! Betty Chase, expert skater, says: "Camels are so mild and appealing! And smoking Camels steadily never tells on my nerves. To me, it's a very important fact that Camels use finer tobaccos."

VALUE! "I'm just an interested winter sports fan," says Edward Kent. "But I'm with Jack Shea and Ray Stevens when it comes to smoking Camels! I get a lift with a Camel when I'm low and need cheering up, or when I'm tired. And the fact that tobaccos of a choicer quality are used in Camels goes far to explain why Camels are so mild and pleasing, and never jangle my nerves. It means a lot to me that millions more are spent for the tobaccos used in Camels."

Xavier Bows To Notre-Dame SEASON IS ENDED

With Record Of 14 Victories And Only 4 Games Lost

Xavier University's basketball season was brought to a close last Saturday night at the fieldhouse as Notre Dame managed to stagger off with a well-earned 42-34 victory. It was the Musketeers' fourth loss of the season.

Ireland started the fireworks by sending the Fighting Irish into a temporary 2-0 lead, but Sweeney came back to hook in a shot from the side and even the count. The Rambler machine continued to muster speed however, and although the Musketeers struggled valiantly Coach Keogan's quintet was in the van by a 19-16 score at the half-way mark.

The fans were treated to some classy battling in the second stanza as both teams put on the pressure. Notre Dame, led by O'Kane, Elser and Ford, was a little too much, however, for the hard-fighting Xavierites. Time after time, when the Musketeers worked the ball into scoring position, the huge Don Elser intercepted a pivot-bound pass, or captured a rebound shot. It was just a case of too much Elser and O'Kane.

Xavier managed to keep pace with the South Bend outfit despite these apparent obstacles, until four minutes of playing time remained. At this juncture of the contest, the score was 34-31, but the Irish peppered the mesh for 8 more points to tuck the game safely away.

Enough cannot be said of the masterful performance turned in by Leo Sack, Co-Captain with Russ Sweeney of this year's Musketeer Five. "Twinkletoes" Leo was all over the floor, and, according to the News' point-of-view, turned in his best game of the season. The Mighty Mite, who scored 13 points, was ably assisted by Jack McKenna, who came through with 4 buckets and a foul for a total of 9 points.

LEO SACK WINS HONOR

Wittenberg Chooses Co-Captain On All-Opponent Squad

Springfield, Ohio.—Leo Sack, co-captain of the Xavier University basketball team, was unanimously chosen as guard and captain of the Wittenberg All-Opponent Team by the players, coaching staff and sport writers of the university.

THE WITTENBERG TORCH commented on the selection in the following words:

"Little Leo 'Twinkle Toes' Sack, Xavier's flashy little co-captain, is placed at guard on the honorary team, and accorded the distinction of being the captain. This scrappy little player is as much at home at forward as at guard. He is the spark plug of the Musketeer's great five that has lost only three games this year. They are the only college team to hold a win over Wesleyan."

Russ Sweeney, Xavier's other co-captain, was chosen as forward on the second All-Opponent five.

morous or serious, which may be a limerick, jingle, ditty, ode or even an example of Gertrude Stein's, about the raffle, its prizes, or its purpose. Take your efforts to the registrar's office where they will be judged by the X. R. A. The prize will be two books of raffle tickets free.

The period of the contest will be two weeks so it is expedient to start at once. The specimens of poetry sent in to the office will be placed on the bulletin board. Remember, the purpose of the raffle is to aid religious work in India. The prizes of the raffle are a diamond brooch, a diamond ring, a typewriter, a tiger skin, and a five dollar Kroger Merchandise Order.

Below is a sample of what might win in the poetry contest. Can you surpass it?

THE TIGER'S LAMENT

A little mouse cried plaintively to a tiger in the night,
 "O tiger strong I envy thee for your coat is a pretty sight,
 And mission raffles across the sea take advantage of that
 To use your skin for a raffle prize,
 O you're such a pretty cat."

The tiger said with a doleful smile,
 Looking cautiously 'round all the while,
 "It may look great to a thing your size
 To be taken West for a raffle prize.
 But there's a hindrance to that, you see,
 When my skin is gone, what's left of me?"

Mohawks Defeat Bears In League

Coming from behind with a sweeping eight point rally in the last four minutes of play, the Mohawks, titlists in the dormitory league, clamped a 14 to 12 loss on Captain Jerry Bressler's Bears, in the fieldhouse Sunday morning, and became undisputed champions of the University.

The Bears had previously annexed the title in the day league.

A sparkling defensive exhibition featured the first half, which ended in a 2 to 2 deadlock.

Shortly after opening the second session, the Bears tossed through four fielders in a row to take a commanding lead, which stood until baskets by Moseman, Bailey, and Carey tied the score at 10 all, with but four minutes remaining.

With the score again knotted at a dozen apiece, Moseman handed the Mohawks the game by dropping in a free throw. Bill Carey clinched it at 14 to 12 with another charity fling as the game ended.

"Scoop" Bailey, pride of Wilmington, stood out for the champions with a six point barrage, while Duffy, of the Bears, turned in the best defensive performance seen in the intra-murals this year.

EDWARDS TIES RECORD

Lexington, Ky.—By scoring 16 points against Xavier in the season's finale, "Big Ed" Edwards, Kentucky's All-American center, tied the all-time southern scoring record for one season. Edwards' total was 343 points.

TENNIS SQUAD TO BEGIN PRACTICE

Schedule To Include Colleges In "Tri-State"; Four Varsity Men Form Nucleus Of Team

Although the courts are still covered with snow, attention will soon be turned toward Xavier's outstanding spring sport, tennis. The past few seasons have seen great development in the tennis schedules and this year's promises to be even in advance of the past ones.

Prospects for the team include four lettermen, co-captains Jim Dorsey and Jack Jeffre, Walt Moellering, and Tom Schmidt, who did not play last year but earned his letter during the 1933 season. Others expected to make a strong bid for the squad include Kim Darragh, Walter Hurley, John Monahan, Jim Doyle, Bob Moseman and Nelson Post.
