Sammy Kaye and his coast-to-coast radio orchestra will arrive in Cincinnati for a one-night engagement only, to play for the Prom. Kaye has been playing at the Capitol Club after a metropoliite run and was looking forward to the Prom's opening day of the radio station.

THE JUNIOR PROMENADE

Sankey Keeler, a freshman at Xavier, takes a hand in the Xavier orchestra comes to Cincinnati tomorrow night to feature the annual Junior Promenade at Xavier University in the Hall of Mirrors of Hotel Netherland Plaza.

It is hardly necessary to comment on the worth of this musical performance. The Xavier orchestra has a reputation throughout the midwest, and it is evident that in this present invitation, the orchestra hopes to keep that reputation alive.

The Hall of Mirrors where the Promenade will be staged, is the one of the most elegant and beautiful in the city. It has been the center of interest for collegians since its beginning and is regarded as one of the outstanding dance halls of the middlewest.

In these considerations, we predict a highly enjoyable evening for the students and friends of the university. Seating will be ample when books will be opened and work begun on the second semester course at Xavier University.

THE SPIRITUAL RETREAT

The retreat at Xavier is visible in all of its spiritual beauty. Three days were spent in dwelling on things spiritual and in strengthening the Christian culture desired by the faculty and students of Xavier University. And as we emerge from our reflections, the warmth of the deus ind us, to quote St. Augustine, fills us with the grace of patience and faith.

A wholesome ambition to conquer our study and to lower the barriers of ignorance, and in our piety, to aim at the conquest of the world, and to conquer us.

It has been pleasant to listen to the eloquent words of the Retreat Master. Mr. Isaac, who has been the center of interest for some time, will also be interesting to watch in progress and in results.
