ALUMNI MASS AT LUTHER, EVENING, MEETING ENDED JAMES F. MAGUIRE, THE PRESIDENTIAL CLUB, AND PATRIOTS OF XAVIER UNIVERSITY.

At midnight Friday, Cadet Battalion Commander William J. F. Roll, Jr., will pin the diamonds of rank on the shoulders of Xavier's third Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel, Miss Rita Elsasser.

Sixteen Added To Roster Of Economics Club

Sixteen new applications for membership into the Economics Club were received at the last meeting of the organization, Joseph H. Schuster, president, revealed. With these added to the present large membership, Schuster said the commerce group had high hopes of a keying claim to the "largest campus organization" title.

"The Economic Significance of the Coming Election" was the topic of the past discussion conducted at the meeting under the chairmanship of Joseph C. Martin. Defending The New Deal were James G. Sheehan and Charles R. Guzik; Elisabeth B. Yuch and Alvin H. Nurre upheld the views of the presidential candidate Wendell L. Willkie. Following its formal treatment the subject was thrown open to house discussion.

rta Elsasser To Become Xavier's Third Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel

Highlighting the most colorful and dramatic Military Ball yet presented by the Xaverian Corps of Cadets, Battalion Commander William J. F. Roll, Jr., assisted by Cadet Captain Robert S. Koch, will pin the diamonds of rank on the shoulders of Miss Rita Elsasser at the stroke of twelve Friday evening in the Hall of Mirrors of the Netherland Plaza. Immediately afterwards, the newly-minted Lieutenant-Colonel will give her first command: "For the Grand March, FALL IN," Miss Elsasser said. Lieutenant-Colonel James F. Maguire, the president of Xavier's third honorary Battalion Commander. She is a student at the Xavier University Senior High School.

As officers and cadet officers enter the doors of hall between 9:15 and 9:45, they will be saluted by the taps of a cannon marking the Second World War era, commanded by Capt. Second-Lieutenant James L. Centner. At precisely 9:45, the honor detail will lay aside the guidons, and will transfer the Colored Band of the Xaverian Corps of Cadets to the Color Guard to take up its post at the center of the floor, and will present the souvenir program, so greeting Miss Elsasser to her new rank also.

At the conclusion of the formal part, the ball sounds a flourish at ten-thirty, certain selected cadets will form in the center of the floor, and will present the President of the University, the Xavier Cadet Corps, and the Cadets of the former ranks.

Forum To Be Sponsored By University Catholic Action Leaders To Appear In Lecture Series

Eight lectures treating on subjects of popular interest and significance will be discussed by a group of outstanding Catholic action leaders under the sponsorship of Xavier University, the Very Rev. Colonel J. Stetter, S.J., president of the university announced this week.

The series was inaugurated in 1936 by the St. Xavier Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and this year it will be under the auspices of the University. However, the proceeds of the lectures will be donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

All of these lectures will be held in the Taft Auditorium on the evening of each respective date beginning at 8:15. Subscriptions for attendance are being mailed to friends of the University this week. Season tickets are $2.50.

All subscription fees should be sent to The University News, 925 Sycamore Street, Cincinnati.
To Be or Not To Be—Moral!

AND WOULD WOOLY are the tales we sometimes hear about college life and its possible degeneracies throughout the nation. Many often make the pages of the "executive sheets" with the surfboard,oc. They are to the mouth and are less authenticated. In the last months, however, we have seen that the American newspapers accept the accounts with the proverbial grin of salt.

But, if the case of the smaller institutions of learning—those whose footprints are yet to be noticed by the nation-wide radio programs—our thought on college life was rarely disturbed by anything beyond our comprehension. "We would be aware that it should certainly be of interest to the reader," we have heard, "for we are used to know how for which they are of course."

T H E SHORT END.

By John E. Smith

The Professor of English, who has written his name and his tenure on the pages of American, has now proved his tenure by writing a second volume of his "English Grammar." This book is a continuation of the first, and is intended to be a guide to the student in the study of English.

In his first volume, the Professor has shown that the study of English is important, and that the student should be prepared to meet the demands of his work. His second volume is intended to show the student how to meet these demands, and to give him a knowledge of the language which will enable him to express himself clearly and effectively.

The book is well arranged, and is full of valuable information. It is intended for the use of students in the study of English, and is recommended to all who are desirous of improving their knowledge of the language.
“Down With Dayton” Is Musketeers Cry

Both Elevens Boast Win Streaks

X SEeks 6th STRAIGHT

Despite injuries to the squad which leaves克莱门特 with only one right halfback and two centers, Xavier’s Musketeers should hold a slight edge over the University of Dayton Flyers as the Musketeers look to go to the top of the list of the two traveling games. In their only other encounter away from home this season, the Blue Battalion journeyed to Indianapolis to hand the overrated Bulldogs of Butler University a 13-0 defeat.

Win Last Four Games

After dropping their first two games to Wichita and Marshall, the Flyers have overcome a weakness at quarterback to win four straight over Western Reserve, Miami, Cincinnati, and Transylvania. And just to make the game closer, Dayton always points for Xavier especially since it is usually their Homecoming Game.

Gene Westendorf, who for two years played second string under Disipoulos, one of Dayton’s finest halfbacks, has developed into a smart field general this season and will lead the Flyers against the Blue and White.

At halfback, Coach Harry Boulain will probably start Joe Quinn and Bill Morrow, both of whom have been overshadowed by Jack Padley, Dayton’s 1939 All-Star halfback. Veteran fullback Val Perkins is injured and has been replaced by Jim Finlee, who has played brilliantly since taking over the regular assignment.

Probable Lineup

Sophomore Dick Struzarzak and Junior Beno Keiter will start at ends. Beno also specializes in place-kicking. Harry Jerina and Carl Contilo will probably open the game at tackles. Howie Linsinger, center guard and letterman from Cleveland Cathedral will pair with Vic Rickett, hard charging soph from the same high school, and join the thrusters of their former teammates, Lavelle and Mutryn.

Blue Power Breaks Ohio Wesleyan Defense, 12-0

Second-Half Sport Wins For Muskies

Demonstrating once again that this year’s Musketeer football team is strictly a second-half bunch, Bob Brown rolled the ball through the latter half of last week’s ball game to push over two tough-downs and defeat Ohio Wesleyan, 18-0 for their third triumph of the season.

After 30 minutes of knocking heavily at the Bishop door, Bob Brown, substitute right halfback, broke off tackle from his own 41-yard line and outpaced the Bishop secondary to score standing up. A few minutes later Lavelle intercepted a pass to put Xavier back in scoring territory. Mutryn and Brown carried the ball to the five-yard line from where Janning scored.

Vissman Is Out

Early in the first quarter Jack Vissman’s own personal Homecoming jinx caught up with him. Last year in the Homecoming Game against the Kentucky Wildcats Vissman hurt his ankle and was lost to the team for the rest of the season. Saturday, the alumn, blond Musketeer, whose toe has pulled Xavier out of the polls many times this season was removed from the game after nine minutes of play. At given time the extent of his injury was not known although it may be a cartilege which has been overshadowed by Bob Brown’s hard driving and blocking.

Despite injuries to the team, the Musketeers have been overshadowed by Bob Brown’s hard driving and blocking.

The blocking demonstrated by the Musketeers, especially Harpring, Hacker and Janning was the best shown so far in this campaign. Gaining 400 yards from scrimmage against a line of Ohio Wesleyan’s caliber indicates the power of the Blue Battalion offense.

DISTRIBUTION OF KEYS RESTRICTED BY DEAN

Effective immediately the sale or distribution of keys for campus organizations solely for the purpose of indicating membership in the organization will no longer be permitted, it was learned from Dean Benson yesterday.

In making this announcement, the Dean revealed that he was giving official sanction to a proposal of this sort recently made by him by the Xavier chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu, national Jesuit honor fraternity.

The announcement came as a surprise to members of the Economics Club, the Heidelberg Club, the Mermaid Tavern, the X. Jr. News staff, the Glee Club, and the Biology Club, all of whom have keys to some of its members.

The dean emphasized that this action does not mean the distribution of keys will stop entirely. The purpose of the move is to stop the promiscuous issuance of the awards to those students who do not merit them. Organizations will be permitted to give keys to those who deserve them by their outstanding work or merit. In the future all such distributions must be approved by the dean and the list of recipients must be passed by him.

The Alpha Sigma Nu resolution read in part: "Since the key has taken the place of the medal as a sign of distinguished and outstanding accomplishment, it is proposed that the administration at Xavier University take means to limit the key for this very purpose."

ONE OF XAVIER'S OLDEST GRADS DIES

This week Xavier mourned the loss of one of her oldest living alumni, Mr. Thomas J. Mulvihill, who died October 30 in Good Samaritan Hospital at the age of 85.

Mr. Mulvihill, well known as one of Cincinnati's most distinguished civic leaders, had assisted in the organization of the Xavier alumni and was active in alumni circles until his recent illness.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at St. Xavier Church.

Marshall Game Exodus Planned

For the second time in two weeks, Xavier Musketeers are planning to follow the "Mushrooms" to foreign fields. This time it's to be Huntington, West Virginia, where Xavier will tangle with the Thundering Herd of Marshall on November 16.

This trip is being sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Lunch Club under the direction of Mr. John J. Fischer. The club is arranging to charter a special train for the exclusive use of Xavier fans. However, Mr. Fischer indicates that a minimum of 200 people is required to make the trip if possible.

Those interested should contact Mr. Fischer at Main 1438.

BOOKLOVERS

A recent announcement from the Xavier Booklovers Association stated that henceforth regular meetings of the group will be held on the second Wednesday of each month, rather than the third as has been the custom.

It was further stated that the club's card party, scheduled for November 15, has been postponed until after Christmas so as not to conflict with Centennial activities.
