NEWS Endorses Candidate In Presidential Race

Ed Note:

We present a NEWS first! For the first time in the history of the paper, the XAVIER UNIVERSITY NEWS feels that it can no longer remain silent on the issue of a presidential election! J.D.D.

Having given careful consideration, and equal interview time to all the candidates concerned in the up-coming primary, the NEWS has selected a promising dark horse with a phenomenal new party platform, and has singled him out for achievement. So unusual and revolutionary is this new platform, and the man whose genius sparks it, that we can no longer withhold our whole-hearted support. The NEWS is backing Wintergreen!

Until recently, our candidate was virtually unknown in many parts of the country. Now, however, his new platform—founded firmly in love—is literally sweeping it by storm! His first campaign attempt was made in 1931, but he was forced to accept the consolation prize. He revived the party platform in 1956 for a smash-up cross-country campaign, and now he is back with us in 1960 to stage a mammoth rally right here in Cincinnati! Watch for notices! It is being rumored that he may speak here on campus!

It was this reporter's pride and privilege to be able to interview this great American in his modest hotel suite above the executive offices of temporary party headquarters here. This dynamic new personality shows a vigor and decisiveness in every word and action, that is truly fascinating. He has definite ideas about the Philippines, and the herring situation up in Mismark. When asked about his opinion of the entertainment world, he respectfully replied: "I have notions on the salaries of movie queens. . . ." Then, making

"Weekend In Monaco"

Plans Ready For Family Day

Friday, May 13, the students of Xavier University and their parents will begin one of the most active and important weekends of the school year. During the weekend of the 13th, 14th, and 15th of May, they will participate in Xavier's annual Family Day celebration. On Saturday, May 14, the actual Family Day will be highlighted by an evening of Casino and Dancing at the Fieldhouse.

Festivities will begin Friday night for the students and their dates at the Clef Club concert and dance. After the concert portion of this event, to which Xavier parents are cordially invited, the President's Reception for faculty and parents will be held in the Cash Room of Logan Hall. Students are reminded that this party will be open to parents only.

Twenty-Eight Schools

Marx Invitational Tournament Scheduled For This Weekend

by J. Ward Doering, News Associate Editor

This weekend Xavier's Poland Philopedian Debaters will play host to the fifth annual Robert S. Marx National Invitational Debate Tournament at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel.

Competing for Xavier will be sophomore Franklin Polk and freshman Joseph Meissner.

Robert S. Marx

Twenty-eight schools will attend this year's tournament making it the largest ever held at Xavier. Among the schools to be represented are Augustana College of Rock Island, Illinois, and Northwestern University, the top two teams in last year's meet and the only schools ever to win this tournament.

Each participating college sends two debaters who will argue this year's national collegiate debate topic, "Resolved: That congress should have the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court." They will debate each side of the topic in every round of the meet.

The tournament is divided into two parts. First each team will debate six times. At the conclusion of these debates, the eight teams having the best records will be named to the finals.

The winner will be picked from among these finalists in a single elimination type contest.

Other schools entered this year are: American University, Bradley University, Buchnell University, Capital College, John Carroll University, Case Tech, University of Cincinnati, Dennison University, University of Detroit, University of Florida, University of Kentucky, King's College, Loyola University, Marquette University, University of Miami, Michigan State University, Notre Dame University, Ohio State University, Ohio University, Miami University, University of Rhode Island, Ohio Wesleyan University, University of Rochester, St. Louis University, and Southern Methodist University.

Petersen, Doherty Tie For First Place In Fifth Dean's Speech Tourney

The finals of The Dean's Speech Tournament held Wednesday afternoon in the Armory resulted in a two-way tie for first place between Robert Peterson and Dennis Doherty. Robert Peterson, a junior English major from Evanston, Illinois, used for his subject "Khrushchev Before the Summit." Dennis Doherty, NEWS editor, talked about "Diplomatic Poker."

Third place went to James Zerkel, a Chicago junior who is also a member of the Sodality and the Radio Club. His subject was "Will the Summit Affect our Military Status?" Tied for fourth place were band member Dan Deighan with "Nuclear Disarmament," and Mermaid Taverner Michael Rogers with "Why West Berlin?"

The three Speech Trophies for first, second, and third place, plus two certificates of honorable mention, both provided by the Xavier University Dads Club, were presented by Mr. Ferd Hengehold immediately after the decision of the judges.

to Family Day. In addition to the usual band concert and dance in the fieldhouse, Xavier students, their dates, and families will be given an opportunity to try their luck at various games of chance in the Casino Room of the fieldhouse. This is the reason for the "WEEKEND IN MONACO" theme of Family Day this year. After Mr. Maringer and the Xavier band have given what promises to be one of their best concerts beginning at 7:30 p.m., the Casino night will begin in the fieldhouse. Sammy Leeds and his orchestra will provide music for dancing at one end of the building, while the games are held at the other.

Dancing and Casino are scheduled to begin at approximately 9:00 p.m. Every game of chance

Lack Of Forethought

Too much has already been written about the abolition of capital punishment and too little done to settle the question one way or the other. However, the antics of Ohio Governor Michael V. DiSalle regarding the case of murderer Frank Poindexter did more than set off world wide reaction on this point alone.

Governor DiSalle's method of investigating the circumstances of the killing was an exhibition of a man using his legal right without prudent forethought. Regardless of the necessity of prompt action, the governor's method of investigation very definitely cast dispersions on the jurisprudence of our courts.

We certainly hope that this was not an intentional affront. But we certainly are sorry to see a man in such an important and respected position exhibit such a lack of tact and thought. This issue will certainly be remembered by people who respect the courts when the next gubernatorial election in the state of Ohio is held.

Student Service

Many of the student services at Xavier are rarely praised either vocally or in print. But the directors of one of these services went out of their way recently to do something for a few students.

We refer to the Xavier cafeteria. During the Easter holidays most of the boarding students went home, but about fifteen stayed three days for the final retreat.

Although these days were not scheduled as boarding days, the fifteen students were allowed to eat free by using their boarding passes. Although it may not have cost the university very much to feed these students, it represented a total saving for the students of over a hundred dollars.

This may not have seemed like much to Mrs. Lappin and her staff, but to those helped it meant a great deal.

On behalf of these men, the NEWS says thank you to Mrs. Lappin and the staff of the cafeteria.

Anti-Semitism Prevalent

"In countries with a large Jewish national minority, it is obvious that the presence of an ethnic mass with its own traditions, schools and tongue, creates a special problem concerning civil life and the general welfare of the State.

Instead of offering proper political solutions to problems of a political order, anti-Semitism, even that so-called political anti-Semitism of which I am speaking at the moment, brings to bear on these problems already falsified beyond recognition, solutions that are themselves false: laws of discrimination and measures of persecution designed to induce total emigration, which is, moreover, impossible.

For the justification of such false or illusory solutions, so-called political anti-Semitism employs a set of arguments which have no rational validity, but which have great emotional force, and which slip furtively over into racial anti-Semitism. Indeed, from recent Jewish immigrants whom alone it first pretends to attack, it extends little by little to Jews long established in the land, and to assimilated Jews, even to converted Jews; in short, to Jews as such, against whom it finally raises the racial myth.

Never before in the history of the world were the Jews persecuted so universally; and never has persecution attacked, as today, both Jews and Christians. We can see here a sign that we have entered upon an apocalyptic period of history. . . . Much love, a great spirit of justice and charity, are required to cleanse that atmosphere."

Best Seat In The House

by J. Ward Doering, NEWS Associate Editor

The long Easter layoff for the News is playing havoc with this column this week. Most of the shows I saw have left town.

As best I remember, here are the names of the movies I saw and their ratings.

"Who Was That Lady" B plus.

"The Golden Fish" (a short with "Lady") A plus.

"Our Man In Havana" C.

"Last Voyage" A minus.

Still in town when I wrote this was "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" at the Albee. This comedy bears a slight resemblance to the book. This is an advantage for the movie, allowing some unity to the plot.

Doris Day (a blonde from Evanston) and David Niven (no known connection with Cincinnati) play the starring roles.

As usual in Doris Day movies there are a few songs with some connection to the story—not too much, though. But who cares? To my mind she should sing more in her movies.

The supporting characters are, in general, good too. Spring Byington has taken a short vacation from the little screen to play the grandmother. The three kids make excellent brats—especially the water-dropping, lock-picking baby. And remember "The Shaggy Dog"? He's back, taking tranquilizers now.

If you can find a night this weekend—what with the boat ride and Prom—you should go see it. I give it . . . A-.

Music Stand

by John Logsdon

Jazz Bohemia, 4922 Vine in St. Bernard, now is open six nights a week—Monday through Saturday. During the week, there will be no admission charge, music will be provided by a variety of artists, and drink prices will be lowered. The Jazz Bo serves espresso coffee together with a full selection of other drinks.

Moonlite Gardens opens its season tomorrow night with Peter Palmer, his voices and orchestra—a Ray Conniff-style organization. Clyde McCoy, trumpeter of "Sugar Blues" fame, comes in May 7, sharing the stand with Clyde Trask's band. On May 14, the Seniors, a local singing group, will be backed by Bill Walters' Orchestra. Jimmy Palmer, who fronts a band which works mainly in hotel ballrooms, comes in May 20 and 21. The band for the first full week of dancing, May 25-29, will be that of Burt Farber. Ladies Night, by the way, will be on Wednesday instead of Thursday this year.

Name bands coming to Coney later in the season include both Dorsey orchestras, Buddy Morrow, Ralph Marterie, Les Brown, Richard Maltby, and the Four Freshmen.

One of the best orchestras in the country will be at Castle Farm on May 7. The band is led by Harry James, once again playing the one-nighters after many years of semi-retirement. The band has been a solid hit in engagements in New York, Las Vegas, and other cities.

I've caught several of the rehearsals for "Of Thee I Sing," the Masque Society musical being presented in South Hall next weekend. This is going to be a good show. With a combination of Gershwin music, a bevy of good-looking girls (I wasn't at the rehearsals just to listen to the music!) and the enthusiasm of the whole company, top-flight entertainment is a sure result. Don't miss the show.

PLATTER PICKS—

Columbia Records has added many big names to its contract list in the past year; the latest is composer-arranger-leader-pianist Andre Previn. Equally at home in a jazz club or on a concert stage, in a recording studio or a movie sound set (Previn won an Oscar this year for his arranging for "Porgy and Bess"), Previn aims his first Columbia album at the pop-jazz audience. Called "Like Love," the album is a collection of tunes with the word LOVE in the title. Previn's piano is backed by a string orchestra; the result is in a George Shearing mood-music vein. Good listening; Previn will sell a lot of records for Columbia.

Other new albums include a jazz treatment of the score from "Guys and Dolls" by an all-star group led by Teddy Charles, who appeared recently at the Piano Lounge. All the arrangements are fresh and interesting. "Fugue for Tinhorns" is still a great show tune.

The comedy team of Wayne and Shuster have appeared on Ed Sullivan's show many times. Now they have a comedy album out.

Theirs is a less "sick" approach than Shelley Berman or Lenny Bruce. "Frontier Psychiatrist," and "I Was A TV Addict" are the best of the skits on the album.

Private Line

by Tom Cahill and Jack LeMoult

The other night we dropped by South Hall to watch the Masque Society rehearse for their up and coming presentation of the musical, "Of Thee I Sing." We were pleasantly surprised to see that since our freshman year the club has grown tremendously. There on the stage was a cast the likes of which we had never expected to see at a Masque production. Here were beautiful girls, regular Masque thespians, and assorted extroverts from all over the university.

Leading this group is a man of no small talent; a man who knows his business so well that we find it hard to believe that he would settle for a job in a school which is apathetic about his endeavors. Otto Kvapil is, in our opinion, a master director. Anyone who saw "The Importance of Being Earnest" will realize what we mean. If Mr. Kvapil wants his cast to look happy or sad he first demonstrates, then explains, and the outcome is always exactly what the audience wants.

It is amazing to see what that group can do with the little material they have. South Hall is about the poorest playhouse anyone could hope to give a play in, but because of the excellent Masque spirit and the skill of the stage managers, they are able to convert this veritable pumpkin into a theatrical golden stagecoach carrying the audience into the world of the drama.

We cannot rightfully damn the university for giving so little support to this group; we are not fully acquainted with the facts. We can only say that for many this is more a co-curricular than an extra-curricular activity. This is probably one of the best Masque groups in the country. If there is anything the school can do for them, let's do it. Any student who misses the production of "Of Thee I Sing" because he doesn't feel like going, will be missing one of those parts of college life that makes the whole thing worth while.

Commentary

by Jerry Martin, News Managing Editor

"Obligation" is a funny word or a nasty subject, depending on your disposition. This in mind, Commentary would like to discuss the funny or nasty topic of newspapers and the American. Does one have an obligation to read newspapers? A silly question—a person does of course have some obligations, but reading Scripps-Howard is not among them. The sports page, Ann Landers, Pogo are read not because of any inherent obligation, but because one enjoys them. Other parts of the paper are a) not read, because b) they are not enjoyed. A nice approach, but I wonder.

I talked to a man yesterday who knew nothing at all of the Sabin vaccine. He has a year-old child. I talked to such a man the day before. And no doubt I'll meet one such tomorrow. This vaccine has been more highly publicized than Senator Kennedy or the Cincinnati baseball team. And it was more important than either, to him, to his child. Obligation?

How many thousands of people will vote for John Kennedy because he is a Catholic, or against him because he is Catholic? For or against him because Jacqueline Kennedy is a handsome woman? Obligation?

The question would be, do we have some sort of an obligation to be informed? Must we follow up the fact that we are part of a frightfully social society? Preaching? Quite probably. I'm sure Caesar never read a newspaper.

!SICK!

by R. Devereaux Vanek

Every year about graduation time the old bull starts flying. "These are the four best years of your life," "You'll never be as happy again," etc., etc. Now I'd like to keep all the seniors from flunking by goading them to their best with a few reminders.

Remember the times you didn't eat on Sunday because you drank all your money away Saturday night? Sure you do. How many hours were wasted at South Hall between classes when you could have been out drinking? The reason you didn't get your schedule arranged the way you wanted it was because your last name ended in S. Some moron with a name like Anapest was on the grave train with the softies while you got stuck with teachers who took the courses seriously.

The dorm students remember that first chicken dinner I'll bet. Sure you do, the one with the gravy made of flour, water, and mud. Remember the weekends you had to stay in because you got in at one o'clock instead of twelve-thirty and your only excuse was that your car had been demolished by a train?

It shouldn't be hard to recall the weekends you could have gone out if a teacher hadn't assigned a good book like "What Are We Going To Do About Zen Buddhism in France?" How many hours were spent trying

Xavier Reports Intercollegiate Latin Contest Victory For Eleventh Time

Xavier repeated this year as winner of the Intercollegiate Latin Contest. It was Xavier's eleventh win in the last twelve years.

Competing in the contest are all Jesuit colleges in the Chicago, Detroit, and Missouri provinces. Each school may enter up to three papers.

All three papers submitted by Xavier this year ranked among the top ten. Freshman Alan Von-derhaar finished second, and sophomores Allan Krepina and Patrick Flynn were fifth and ninth.

Xavier received seventeen points to finish first. Second was St. Louis with eleven, and John Carroll of Cleveland was third with ten points. No school other than Xavier had more than two papers among the top ten.

Wayne Fehr, '59, had won first place the past three years, and also finished second in his freshman year.

Cincinnati Club Hosts Spring Freshman-Sophomore Dance

by Tom Kall

The Freshman and Sophomore classes of Xavier, not to be outdone by the heavy May activities of the Juniors and Seniors, have begun preparations for a Frosh-Soph Spring Dance.

This informal affair is scheduled to take place at the Cincinnati Club at 8th and Race Streets in downtown Cincinnati. The date has been set for Friday, May 6.

Teddy Raymor and his orchestra will supply the music for the dance which will begin at 9 p.m. and last until 1 a.m.

Tickets for the affair will be on sale every day in South Hall from

SPRING GAME SUNDAY NIGHT

Xavier's coaching staff should know how the Musketeers stack up against at least two of next year's opponents after Sunday night's Spring Football Game at Corcoran Field. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

The coaches will have watched spring games at Miami and Cincinnati the previous day.

An intrasquad game this year instead of the usual match between varsity and alumni, Sunday night's game shapes up as a battle between line and backfield.

The Blue Squad, coached by George Gilmartin and Pat O'Brien, will have the first and fourth team lines and the second and third team backfields. Ed Biles' White team will have the first and fourth team backfields and the second and third team lines.

Head coach Ed Doherty will help direct operations of both teams from the press box.

The squad split up Wednesday into Blue and White units and has worked that way the past two days. Each team will have a couple of surprise plays of its own.

Kicking specialist George Potts may have to wear a blue and white striped jersey since he'll perform for both teams.

White quarterback Ron Costello will be without his favorite targets, ends Jim Mullen and John Kappas, but he has capable receivers in Bob Daumeyer and Jim O'Donnell. The White team shapes up as the better offensive unit, with the Blue, bolstered by the No. 1 line, tops defensively.

Doubtful for the Spring Game are White tackles Steve Huzicko (cut hand) and Chris Smalara (bad back) and Blue tackle Dick Johnson (head injury) and halfback Jim Husk (jammed thumb). Definitely out are halfback Bob Leuenberger (ankle) and guard Dick Salera (knee).

Others sidelined, as previously reported, are halfback Lou Carlini (shoulder), center Tom Moellering (knee), halfback Fred Moriarty (back) and end Jim Bolger (shoulder). Also out is halfback Dick Barrett, who was expected to rejoin the squad after Easter but couldn't because he hasn't fully recovered from an operation.

Three more position changes have been made since the last issue of the NEWS.

Junior Allen Smith, a letterman end last fall, is being tried at right half. A fine receiver with excellent speed, he's looked impressive thus far while alternating with Irv Etler on the first unit. He may swing between slotback and end next fall.

Other shifts were soph Frank Fiorino from quarterback to left half and soph Tom Callahan from fullback to end.

With spring practice drawing to a close, Coach Doherty reported, "We've come a long way, but we've still got a long way to go. Our running game in particular needs a lot of work."

Workouts this spring have had extra significance, since Xavier will be playing its first major football schedule next autumn.

Four Letterman Ends Return; Injuries Strike Tackle Post

"Depth in numbers rather than experience" seems to be the story of Xavier's end and tackle candidates in this, the last of the NEWS' position-by-position analyses of the Musketeer football team.

End is perhaps the stronger of the two, with four lettermen returning. Captain Jim Mullen, a two-letterman senior and a first team All-Catholic All-American last fall, heads the list of flankmen. Mullen set a new school record last fall with 31 catches for 469 yards, and was equally outstanding on defense.

Mullen's running mate for two years, John Kappas, also returns. He caught 21 passes for 312 yards and also made his presence felt on defense. Other lettermen back are juniors Allen Smith (16 catches for 336 yards), who may be shifted to halfback, and steady Jim O'Donnell (7 catches for 145 yards).

Bob Daumeyer, who led the freshmen in pass receiving, is running with O'Donnell on the second team. Speedy Len Maloney and Pete O'Brien, both sophomores, will provide reserve strength along with shifted halfback Tom Callahan and Tom Walikewicz, a fine blocker who's been hampered by knee injuries.

Villa Madonna Foe Tomorrow As Bingers Try To Snap Four-Game Losing Streak

by Mike Harmon

Xavier will attempt to climb back above the .500 mark in baseball tomorrow when the Musketeers host Villa Madonna in a 2:30 game. Xavier won the first meeting 6-2 April 19, also at Xavier.

Xavier traveled to Louisville yesterday to play Bellarmine College. Either Bill Dresmann or Dick Strenk was slated to pitch for X.U.

Two road games are on tap for the Muskies next week. They journey to Athens Tuesday to tackle a tough Ohio U. team, then travel to Madison, Indiana, Thursday to tangle with Hanover's Panthers in a doubleheader.

Tuesday's scheduled game with Ohio U. at Xavier was called off by mutual agreement when the weatherman predicted heavy showers that afternoon. The Bobcats didn't want to waste a 160-mile trip.

Last weekend's hapless display at Ohio State all but crushed Xavier's hopes for an at-large bid to the N.C.A.A. The classy Buckeyes ran their record to 15-3-2 while leveling the Muskies at 5-5.

The first game of Saturday's double bill was the only one in which Xavier managed to hit with authority. The Musketeers, however, were unable to overcome an 8-1 second-inning deficit and succumbed 18-14. It was Strenk's first loss after four victories.

Denny Poillon slammed four hits, including two doubles, and Terry Brannen, Jim Klein and Jerry Lukowitz garnered three hits apiece to lead the Xavier attack, which featured a six-run third stanza.

State's Tom Perdue tied a Buckeye club record by banging out three homers while driving in nine runs.

The Bucks won the other two contests 13-0 on Friday and 9-1 in Saturday's 6-inning second game.

In the Friday game, 16 Muskies went down swinging, while, in contrast, Xavier pitchers walked 15 Staters. In Saturday's abbreviated second game, Lukowitz collected Xavier's only hit and scored on a wild pitch in the sixth frame.

Xavier's bid for a double win over Miami was spoiled as the Redskins won out 5-2 April 20 at Xavier. Poillon and Terry Brannen accounted for five of X's six hits, Poillon getting three.

Dresmann struck out five men in five innings, allowing but two hits, to get the victory as Xavier downed Villa Madonna 6-2 April 19. His relief man, John Hunt, proved even more spectacular as Football careers end every day, but very few of them parallel the career of Jim Bolger.

In the last issue of the NEWS, a small notation read: "Senior end Jim Bolger, who missed much of last fall with a separation of his right shoulder, suffered a separation in his left shoulder, ending his football career."

In September of 1957, Jim Bolger enrolled at Xavier. A star end at Purcell High, he was offered an athletic scholarship. But Jim's father, a local merchant, insisted on paying Jim's way so another deserving boy could get an athletic scholarship. Jim, then, has been out on his own for three years.

A 6-1, 185-pounder with very good speed,

Jim was a regular with the undefeated 1957 freshmen. He started two of the team's four games and looked very promising for future varsity play.

Then injury struck. Jim missed his sophomore season with a shoulder injury. An operation the following spring was slow healing, and Jim didn't get to see any duty till late last season. He was still faithfully in attendance at practice every day, however, and his intense love of the game remained undiminished.

Then, three weeks ago, Jim's football career was ended when he injured his other shoulder.

Off the field, Jim Bolger is as friendly and easy-going a guy as you'll meet on this campus. His friends are legion. And his courage, perseverance, and dedication to the game could well serve as an example to all Xavier athletes, both present and future.

The Spring Game coming up Sunday night gives students and fans an opportunity to get a first-hand look at the young men who'll be representing them on the football field next fall. The attendance in past years has been nowhere near what it should be, considering that the asking price is only a dollar. The Musketeers will be playing their toughest schedule in history and their first as a major football team next fall, and will need all the support they can get. Now's the time to start giving it.

Freshman forward Ben Monhollen recently underwent surgery at Good Samaritan Hospital to have some cartilage which was impairing his breathing removed from his nose. He's out now and is doing O.K.

The 1960 N.I.T. (Norwood Invitational Tourney), sponsored by Ed Tepe, was played Sunday at Withrow High, with a team headed by Jim Haffner and Charlie Phillips downing a team led by Tepe and Ron Nicolai 20-12 in the finals. Haffner was named Most Valuable Player and received a gigantic loving cup. Other XU cagers participating in the five-team meet were Bill Kirvin and Jack Thobe; their respective teams were eliminated earlier.

Regional Berth Goal Of XU Sailors In MCSA District Elims At Columbus

Xavier's Sailing Club reaches its day of destiny tomorrow when it travels to Columbus for the Midwestern Collegiate Sailing Association district eliminations. The regatta will continue through Sunday.

The first three teams from this regatta qualify for the MSCA Champs at Detroit May 14. Six schools are entered in tomorrow's regatta—Ohio State, Ohio Wesleyan, Xavier, Wooster, Oberlin and Indiana—with Xavier given a good chance of finishing in the money.

In their second regatta of the season, the Ohio Champs at Wooster Easter weekend, the Xavier sailors took third place. They actually tied for second with Ohio State on points (39), but Ohio State had more firsts (three to XU's one). Wooster College, the host school, won with 48 points.

Dave Leugers skippered all five "A" races for Xavier, taking two seconds, two thirds and a fourth. Steve Smith was his crew.

Skipper Bill Nevel and crew Dick Kaiser had a first, a second, two thirds and a fifth to show off their efforts in five "B" races.

Nevel had quite an eventful day his first day. In his first race, the one in which he finished fifth and last, his boat was swamped with water 30 seconds before starting time. In the next race, he had to survive a protest by Ohio Wesleyan before his third-place finish counted.

The order of finish: Wooster 48, Ohio State 39, Xavier 39, Ohio Wesleyan 33, Oberlin 31.

Last Sunday, in the first spring race sponsored by the Cowan Lake Sailing Association, Nevel finished first, Leugers second and Jim Ferguson fourth to give Xavier three of the top six places and a victory in the "B" division. The win doesn't count in collegiate competition, however.

Golfers Visit Dayton Today; Hope To Regain .500 Mark

Xavier's golf team will attempt to regain its winning form tomorrow as it meets Dayton at Dayton in a 1:30 match. Coach Ray Baldwin's linksmen, now 2-3-1 on the season, follow up with matches against Bellarmine at Louisville Monday and Miami here Tuesday.

Ohio University and Kentucky dealt Xavier a double defeat Tuesday at Maketwah to drop the Muskies below .500 the first time this season. Ohio U prevailed 15½-2½ and Kentucky won out 11½-6½ as only one Xavier player, Carl Schlottman, could break 80.

Xavier scores were Schlottman's 78, Mike Conliffe's 80, Warren Schulten's 81, Joe Ziegler's 82, Rod McMullen's 84 and Ed Jacob's 86.

Tony Conlon sank a 10-foot pressure putt on the last hole to give Xavier a 13½-13½ tie with Cincinnati Monday at Sharon Woods. Xavier scores were Ziegler's 74, Jacob's 76, Conliffe's 76, Schlottman's 76, McMullen's 77 and Conlon's 82.

The linksmen edged Villa Madonna 14-13 Tuesday, April 19, on the Summit Hills Country Club course. Xavier scores were Conliffe's 74, Ziegler's 75, Schlottman's 78, McMullen's 80, Jacob's 81 and Dick Kelly's 89.

In matches during the vacation, X.U. downed Bowling Green 15½-11½ and lost to Hanover 11½-10½.

Some changes have been made in the schedule. The matches with Louisville here last Friday and there Monday have been cancelled. Bellarmine will play host to Xavier at Louisville instead on the same date, Monday. A match with Wilmington here May 16 has also been added.

he struck out eight and gave up only one hit in four innings. Tony DiNome powered three hits, including a triple.

In games during the Easter vacation, Xavier downed Morehead 13-10 at Xavier April 13, Wright-Patterson 15-14 April 9 at Xavier and Miami 4-3 April 8 at Oxford.

DiNome holds forth as the leading hitter after 10 games with an average of .355. Brannen is the only other stickman over .300; he's hitting .324. Poillon is just a shade below the .300 mark at .298. Strenk's 3.96 earned run average and 4-1 record leads the pitchers.

Netmen Refuse To Be Distracted, Beat U.L.

Tennis interest at Xavier was revived rather quickly when the University of Louisville squad took the courts Wednesday.

Xavier won the match 5-4, but three very attractive young ladies from Louisville, Nancy Butler, Martha Aulbach and Liz Crady, dazzled probably the largest gallery in Xavier tennis history with their ability as well as looks.

Miss Crady won her singles match and teamed with Miss Aulbach to take a doubles win, and Miss Butler and her male partner scored a doubles victory.

Singles winners for Xavier were

Bob Petersen, Alan Dohan, Ken Albers and John Rice. Petersen and Dohan won in doubles play. The win gave Coach Bob Massman's netters, who played Bellarmine at Louisville yesterday, a 3-1 record.

Three games in three days will test the netmen next week. They entertain strong Cincinnati Wednesday, followed by Morehead Thursday and Miami Friday.

Wilmington fell by the wayside Monday on the Xavier courts as the Muskies' "Big Four"—Petersen, O'Donnell, Albers and Dohan—scored hard-earned singles wins. Petersen-O'Donnell and Albers-Dohan also won in doubles play.

Four singles wins gave the netters their first win as they trimmed Dayton 5-4 at Dayton last Friday. Petersen, Dohan, Albers and Rice won in singles play, with the doubles team of Petersen and Dohan emerging victorious.

The Muskies proved no match for a seasoned Kentucky team, which blanked Xavier 9-0 in the opener at Xavier April 19. Kentucky had just returned from a 16-day tour of the South.

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:

Practically flat floor . . . real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride. Rear-engine traction . . . that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels.

You probably realize already that the mileage figures Corvairs recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the cars met every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.

TRUMP TALK

by Terry O'Neill

In our first column I would like to compliment John Rolfes on his columns throughout the year. I sincerely hope that this column will continue to be as helpful in making all of your finesses fall.

Today's column will illustrate an example of fine defensive bridge. The hand is one of the hands played in a recent duplicate bridge tournament sponsored by the Xavier University Bridge Club.

At most of the tables North-South made five clubs in a breeze. However, at one of the tables with Mr. Paul Rieselman sitting East and Ray Zoller sitting West, the contract was set one trick, doubled and redoubled, giving the East-West pair a high board.

SOUTH (D) WEST

Most East players played the Heart Ace and the Diamond Ace hoping to find the setting trick in West's hand—most probably the King of Clubs. We must concede that the temptation to play the aces was awfully great. This was the downfall of most of the East-West teams.

Mr. Rieselman, however, saw an almost sure way of setting the apparently solid contract. He opened the Ace of Diamonds and followed with a low Heart, hoping to find West with the Heart King and also hoping that he would lead back a Spade which East would trump for the setting trick.

Mr. Zoller must also be complimented on his play. When his Heart King held up he immediately realized that, with South having six Spades and himself holding five, there was a good chance that his partner would be void. Sure enough, that is the way it was. In reality, though, West had no other play, knowing that East had enough points both to enter the bidding and to finally double the contract.

BRIDGE NOTES:

The final duplicate tournament of the year will be held Sunday, May 1, at 1:30 in South Hall. This will be a master point tournament with one master point given for first place.

At 12:45 Sunday, immediately preceding the tournament, there will be a short business meeting of the Bridge Club to elect officers for next year. Please be there.

Toepker Elected Sodality Prefect

by Wally Buchmann

Spring of an election year is typified by windy campaign speeches and blistering press releases. Last week in an atmosphere completely devoid of politicking, electioneering, or any sort of campaigning, the Sodality selected its officers for the coming year.

Terry Toepker was awarded the office of prefect. He is a junior majoring in physics, having graduated from St. Xavier High School in 1957. At present he is engaged in student teaching at St. Vivian's Grammar School. Other outside activities include being the assistant freshman basketball coach at his high school alma mater.

Toepker, upon the occasion of his installation, remarked, "The evolution of the Sodality as a major organ of the university will demand not only a good deal of my time, but also the close co-operation of every Sodalist. If I fulfill the duties of my position as successfully as my predecessors, it will be because I have received this co-operation."

Another junior, Gerry Hair, was named 1st Vice Prefect. He graduated from Piqua Catholic High School in 1957, and is presently pursuing a Psychology degree. Hair hopes for "progress and advancement in the spiritual life of each sodalist as well as in the apostolic effort extended by the Sodality as a unit."

Freshman Jack Green became the 2nd Vice Prefect. Jack, another product of Xavier High School, is an H.A.B. student at Xavier. A Covington, Kentucky resident, Green became president of his class in his first year at X.U. He is the only freshman to hold a Sodality office.

Ron Fallat will take over as secretary. He is a junior pre-med student who graduated from St.

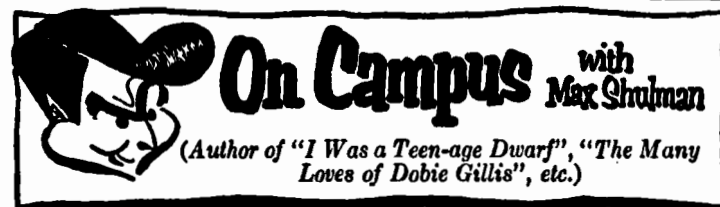

Ignatius High School in Cleveland. A lot of his time is devoted to the band.

The new treasurer is Ed Schmidt. Another junior, he is a familiar face at Student Council meetings, having served for all of his three years at Xavier. Schmidt, a native of Hamilton and a graduate of Hamilton Catholic High, is the station manager of WCXU. Just this year he was elected treasurer of Alpha Sigma Nu.

At the same meeting, Bob Marth assumed the position of president of the Sodality House. He is a sophomore studying business administration, which he hopes to put to use in public relations or advertising. A graduate of Mendel High School in Chicago, Marth had this to say upon his appointment: "The purpose of the Sodality House is to develop men who are educated Catholic leaders. Next year we hope to work together as a group to better ourselves both intellectually and spiritually."

Hank Rigler, the resigning Prefect of Sodality and president of Sodality House, expressed his appreciation to the men for their effort: "I would especially like to thank Fr. Frank Holland for his guidance and all the men who helped me during the year for their spirited co-operation."

EUROPE MADE SIMPLE: No. 1

Summer vacation is just around the corner, and naturally all of you are going to Europe. Perhaps I can offer a handy tip or two. (I must confess I have never been to Europe myself, but I eat a lot of Scotch broth and French dressing, so I am not entirely without qualification.)

First let me say that no trip to Europe is complete without a visit to England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Lichtenstein, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Russia, Greece, Yugoslavia, Albania, Crete, Sardinia, Sicily, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Lapland, and Andorra.

Let us take up these countries in order. First, England.

The capital of England is London—or Liverpool, as it is sometimes called. There are many interesting things to see in London—chiefly, the changing of the guards. The guards are changed daily. The old ones are thrown away.

Another "must" while in London is a visit to Buckingham Palace. Frequently in the afternoons Her Majesty the Queen comes out on the balcony of the palace and waves to her loyal subjects below. The loyal subjects wave back at the Queen. However, they only continue to wave as long as Her Majesty is waving. This of course is the origin of wave lengths from which we have derived numerous benefits including radio, television and the A&P Gypsies.

Be sure also when you are in London to visit the palace of the Duke of Marlborough. Marlborough is spelled Marlborough, but pronounced Marlboro. English spelling is very quaint but terribly disorganized. The late George Bernard Shaw, author of Jo's Boys, fought all his life to simplify English spelling. He once asked a friend, "What does g-h-o-t-i spell?" The friend pondered a bit and replied, "Goatee." Shaw sniggered. "Pshaw," said Shaw. "G-h-o-t-i does not spell goatee. It spells fish. Gh as in enough, o as in women, ti as in motion."

It must be remembered, however, that Shaw was a vegetarian—which, all in all, was probably a good thing. As Disraeli once remarked to Guy Fawkes, "If Shaw were not a vegetarian, no lamb chop in London would be safe."

But I digress. We were speaking of the palace of the Duke of Marlborough—or Marlboro, as it is called in the United States. It is called Marlboro by every smoker who knows flavor did not go out when filters came in. Be sure you are well supplied with Marlboros when you make your trip abroad. After a long, tiring day of sightseeing, there is nothing so welcome as a fine, flavorful Marlboro and a foot bath with hot Epsom salts.

Epsom salts can be obtained in England at Epsom Downs. Kensington salts can be obtained at Kensington Gardens, Albert salts can be obtained at Albert Hall, Hyde salts can be obtained at Hyde Park, and the crown jewels can be obtained at the Tower of London.

Well sir, now you know all you need to know about England. Next week we will visit the Land of the Midnight Sun—France.

And you also know all you need to know about smoking: Marlboro, if you want the best of the filter cigarettes—Phillip Morris if you want the best of the unfiltered cigarettes.

to write three hundred words proving you do know why you came to college or why you shouldn't carry guns at the school dances?

Thinking back to some of those teachers you've had should prod you on to a garrison finish. How about the joker type, "Six pages should be enough" or "You'll thank me some day for teaching you why men wear rings on their right hand." Your science teacher wanted you to be a scientist, your philosophy teacher wanted you to wear a toga, and your language teacher wanted you to be a linguist. The "whole man" bit nearly drove you mad didn't it? Now you know there's an ethical man born every minute, that you can give a three-minute speech if you're given three weeks to prepare it, and that poetry is not for sissies but for the man with a tattoo on his kneecap that says "Mother."

I'm afraid though with all the complaining you can do, when you get out of school, these four years will look pretty good. It may not be until your wife tells you you're going to have the sixth child or your commanding officer orders a close inspection or Uncle Sam sends the Internal Revenue collector out to check about your $300 exemption claim of supporting the church, but the day will come when you'll be out of school and because of it you'll be SICK.

Kirwin Elected XOMM President

Patrick J. Kirwin, a junior accounting major, was elected president of the Xavier Order of Military Merit Tuesday, April 5. The eleven newly inducted members of the X.O.M.M. also elected Ronald Schertler, vice president, Richard Sander, secretary, and Richard Boehman, treasurer.

Kirwin, a native Cincinnati, graduated from St. Xavier High School in 1957. He is a member of the Sodality and past treasurer of that organization. For three years he has been a member of the Pershing Rifles, the cadet drill team.

The newly elected officers took their respective positions immediately after the elections. Kirwin succeeds Rod McMullen as president. Membership in the X.O.M.M. is considered the highest military honor a cadet can receive.

XX Corps Conducts Inspection

The XX U.S. Army Corps (Reserve) annual inspection will be held on Monday, May 2, 1960. Also on that date, as part of the review and award ceremonies, four cadets (one from each year) will receive the Department of the Army Superior Cadet Awards. The purpose of this official visit is the inspection of both the Military Department and the Cadet Corp to determine just how proficiently they are doing their respective jobs of teaching and learning.

Xavier University's Military Department grants the Superior Cadet Award for the Reserve Officers Training Corps to the students with the best standing in general military aptitude linked with excellent overall scholastic standing.

A six-man inspection team, headed by Lt. Col. Reynolds R. Keleher from West Virginia University will come to Xavier. Other members of the inspection team include Maj. Herbert W. Rainey, Ohio University; Capt. Arthur R. Back, University of Toledo; an as yet un-named aviation officer, XX U.S. Army Corps (Reserve); M/Sgt. Ivan C. Allen, Ohio University; and S.F.C. James L. Crawford, XX U.S. Army Corps (Reserve). XX U.S. Army Corps (Reserve) Headquarters is located at Ft. Hayes, Columbus, Ohio.

Upon the inspection team's arrival early Monday morning, the Exhibition Platoon of the Pershing Rifles will put on a drill demonstration. After this comes a conference and briefing in the office of Lt. Col. Wright, Xavier's professor of Military Science and Tactics. Following the visit with the PMST, the inspectors will visit and inspect ROTC classes (to the extent of sitting in and questioning the cadets) and pay a formal call on the president, Very Rev. P. L. O'Connor, S.J. The Review and presentation of awards at 1:30 p.m. will climax the day.

All ROTC cadets will wear their "Class A" uniforms (with blouse) for their military class and to the review.

This review will cancel the regular Friday Corps Day scheduled for May 6.

In case of rain, only members of the Fourth Battalion and the individuals to be decorated will take part in the review. This amputee review will take place either on the tennis courts or in the Armory drill hall.

The inspection will conclude at 4:30 with the departure of the team.

If you see something wild in this ink blot, like maybe Lady Godiva fully clothed on a motorcycle, you're ready for non-directive therapy. That's the kind where the psychoanalyst doesn't say anything to you, and we ourselves are very interested in it because of its advertising possibilities.

With the non-directive approach, we'd just try to think you into smoking L&M's. We wouldn't have to tell you about how L&M, with its Miracle Tip, pure white inside, pure white outside, has found the secret that unlocks flavor in a filter cigarette. And about how this means fine tobaccos can be blended not to suit a filter but to suit your taste.

Following the non-directive approach, we'd simply show you the package. And this would give us more time to polish our wedge shot, which we seem to have trouble getting airborne. Or even moving.

Lucky girl!

Next time one of her dates bring up the Schleswig-Holstein question, she'll really be ready for him.

Ready for that test tomorrow, too... if that bottle of Coke keeps her as alert tonight as it does other people.

It's a wise smoker who depends on his own judgment, not opinions of others, in his choice of cigarettes. That's why men and women who think for themselves usually smoke Viceroy. They know the Viceroy filter is scientifically designed to smooth the smoke the way a filter should. A thinking man's choice... has a smoking man's taste.

*If you checked (B) on three out of four of these questions—you think for yourself!

Columbus discovers the Winston Hemisphere

"Flavor, Ho!" The Admiral Shouted As He Sighted FILTER-BLEND

From the Captain's Log...

One Day Out. Weighed anchor and set sail in search of a filter cigarette that really tastes like a cigarette. Crew thinks this is wild goose chase.

One Week Out. Have sighted many filter cigarettes and smoked same. Crew still thinks the world is flat.

One Month Out. Discovered New World of smoking pleasure:

Winston! It is the only cigarette with a modern filter plus Filter-Blend—rich, golden tobaccos not only specially selected, but also specially processed for filter smoking. Crew now thinks this is a pleasure cruise.

One Year Out. Crew has mutinied. Refuses to go back to the Old World (non-Winston Hemisphere). I agree. Therefore I am founding a colony called Filter-Blend. Colony's motto will be:

Winston tastes good...like a cigarette should!
