COURSE DESCRIPTION AND GOALS

This course will provide students with an overview of the spirituality, theology, and praxis of the early church, as expressed in the writings of the Church Fathers. We will consider such topics as ancient Judaism, the variety of early Christianities, and the emergence of the Great Church. We will also examine the Church’s defense against pagans and heretics, her confrontation with the Empire, and the development of key doctrines. Students will also be introduced to a variety of other topics, including ancient religion, a bit of Greek philosophy, some Roman history, and ancient biblical exegesis, since these areas comprise the context within which the Fathers thought and wrote. By the end of this course students will be able to:

- discuss and articulate particular aspects of the legacy of patristic thought and its impact on upon Christian theology and spirituality.
- critically engage secondary sources on patristic literature
- demonstrate the ability to think critically and creatively
