Course description

Intermediate Chinese (CHIN201) is, as the title indicates, an intermediate course designed for students with knowledge of basic Chinese. This course seeks to advance students’ communication and reading/writing ability of mandarin Chinese.
Additionally, the course will integrate Chinese culture into language learning to enhance the understanding of cultural influence on the language.

Course Goals

This course is designed to advance students’ mandarin Chinese capabilities in the following aspects: listening, reading, and speaking. By semester’s end, students are expected to achieve the following:

1. Fluent in daily Chinese conversation in specific circumstances, ie., go to sports games, restaurants, etc.
2. Immerse into more advanced listening comprehension ability, be
3. Accumulate significant amount of Chinese vocabulary, and familiarize with sentence patterns in each lesson of the textbook; students will be led to write paragraphs as the semester moves on.

Required Textbook

The textbook includes a workbook and CD.

Course Format

- Language environment: The course will be conducted in both English and Chinese.
The instructor, in order to convey effectively, will use English as the main teaching language. Students are encouraged to speak Chinese in in-class discussions, Q&A sessions, and so on.
- There will be a specific period of time, usually 15-to 20 minutes, in each class that is Chinese-only. Students are required to use Chinese during this period.

Attendance Policy

1. The student is responsible for any in-class materials/announcements that he/she misses during an absence.
2. 0.5% of the student’s final grade will be deducted for an unexcused absence for class or lab. An official medical excuse must be provided beyond the three absences.
3. 0.1% of the student’s final grade will be deducted for lateness to class or lab.

Homework Policy

1. Always turn in homework by the end of class on Friday.
2. No late homework will be accepted except those resulting from an excused absence.
3. 0.25 % of the student’s final grade will be deducted for your missed homework.

Make-up policy

If you must miss class, please let me know in good time if possible. You will be allowed to make up no more than three missed classes. The make-ups will be conducted during office hours or by appointment and will cover the work missed. Make-ups are to be arranged within two days of your return to class; missed classes which are not made up within the above time frame or which exceed three in number will be entered as zeroes in your grade record. It is vital that you maintain communication if you miss class. There will be NO MAKEUPS during exam week.
Academic Honesty Policy

The pursuit of truth demands high standards of personal honesty. Academic and professional life requires a trust based upon integrity of the written and spoken word. Accordingly, violations of certain standards of ethical behavior will not be tolerated at Xavier University. These include theft, cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized assistance in assignments and tests, unauthorized copying of computer software, the falsification of results and material submitted in reports or admission and registration documents, and the falsification of any academic record including letters of recommendation. All work submitted for academic evaluation must be the student’s own. Certainly, the activities of other scholars will influence all students. However, the direct and unattributed use of another’s efforts is prohibited, as is the use of any work untruthfully submitted as one’s own.
