Course Description: This is the second semester of a beginning Spanish course for students who have credit in Spanish 101 or have placed in the course by examination after having had two or more years of the language in high school. Students are required to take a placement test in the language that they took in high school.

Students with 1.5 years or less of the language in high school are not required to take the placement test; they are considered true beginners and are required to take SPAN 101. If a student wishes to start a new language, he/she will start with any language in 101. Students wishing to move down to SPAN 101 will earn elective credit for that level and will need to fulfill the requirement with SPAN 102 and SPAN 201. In order to change levels from what they were placed in, the student needs to see the chair or the language coordinator. Please consult with the instructor if you any other question regarding placement.

The principal goal of language study is to practice the four language skills (speaking, listening, reading and writing) in order to learn to communicate in Spanish (talk with others, express ideas in writing, read and understand what others have written) and learn about the Hispanic world. The target language will be used during class. In order to achieve these goals so attendance and participation are very important.

Course Objectives: You can expect to have obtained the following skills in increasing depth upon successful completion of each level of the course:

- You should be able to understand most Spanish spoken at a slower than normal pace, understand some Spanish spoken at normal pace, and develop skills and coping strategies necessary for filling in the gaps in order to grasp main ideas of imperfect comprehension.
- You should be able to ask and answer questions on a variety of everyday topics, describe people and places, narrate recurring (present) events, future events and achieve some ability in narrating past events.
- You should be able to perform many daily routines, such as greetings and so on.
- You should be able to read simple material related to Hispanic literature and culture.
- You should be able to write about everyday activities, descriptions of people and places, recurring, future and past events.

These objectives prepare students to meet standard 2b of the Xavier University Classics Modern Language Standard and the following requirements of the Xavier University Core Curriculum:

GOAL 1: Students will be effective communicators in writing and orally
- Students will organize and express their ideas in writing and orally
- Students will formulate clear and arguable theses, supported by evidence drawn from appropriate sources
• Students will utilize an effective writing process guided by audience, purpose, cultural context, and disciplinary standards

GOAL 5: Students will be integrated individuals who articulate a coherent, ethical perspective on the world and their place in it
• Students will recognize the societal, ethical and moral dimensions of discourse, art, information, science and technology
• Students will relate their knowledge and skills in a reflective and constructive way to their life experiences and the challenges confronting today’s world
• Students will use information and resources responsibly in their communication and research
• Students will utilize intellectual, moral, and spiritual tools and sensibilities to engage faithfully and responsively in the world for the promotion of peace, social justice, and ecological sustainability

GOAL 6: Students will be aware global citizens
• Students will recognize relationships between diversity, inequality, and social, economic, and political power both in the United States and globally
• Students will describe contributions made by individuals from diverse and/or underrepresented groups to local, national, and global communities
• Students will consider perspectives of diverse groups when making decisions
• Students will interact with sensitivity as members of society and as professionals with people who have ideas, beliefs, attitudes, and behaviors that are different from their own
• Students will engage Catholic, ecumenical, cross-cultural, and inter-religious perspectives in reflecting upon contemporary issues of significance
• Students will communicate in a foreign language, read and interpret cultural materials related to the language studied.

Required Textbook:
Title: Adelante Dos, 2nd edition, SE + SuperSitePlus*
Author: Jose Blanco
Publisher: Vista Higher Learning
*A new second edition textbook, with a SupersitePlus code is required: The publishing company will NOT sell codes.

Student Responsibilities:
• Attend and participate in classes regularly. Irregular attendance and failure be prepared or participate will affect your performance and final grade. (Consult Attendance and Class Participation Criteria below on page 10.)
• Check email daily.
• Listen and complete all activities in the Workbook and the Supersite as assigned.
• Do the exercises in textbook and other homework assigned by your instructor.
• Prepare the assignments before each class. (See calendar on page 5).
• Ask questions about all assignments in class or during office hours.
• Take all tests and exams at scheduled times. Students are responsible for all material covered in class, in the text, in the workbook/lab manual, and for schedule changes announced in class.
• Show respect for classmates and instructor by observing appropriate behavior in class: i.e. refrain from interrupting or speaking when classmate/instructor is answering or explaining and never laugh at another’s efforts.

• Turn off electronic devices during class and testing. Infractions in class will impact the participation grade and those during testing will have severe grade consequences an be reported to the disciplinary bodies of XU.

• Complete an assignment related to Hispanic culture.

Testing: There will be scheduled lesson tests, a mid-term exam, and a final exam. Dates for the tests and exams are listed on the syllabus. Format will vary. Each of the tests and exams will consist of oral and written parts. Remember that after Lesson 1, each one presumes knowledge of previous material.

Make-up Policy:

Tests: There will be no make-ups for tests. The instructor will drop the lowest test grade or missed test grade in the semester. There will be a total of 5 tests (pruebas) during the semester.

Exams: There will be no individual make-ups for exams. In verifiable cases of illness or emergency (problems with work schedule or personal travel plans are not normally valid excuses), the grade from the next exam will be counted for the missed one. The student is responsible for notifying the teacher before the exam or as soon as possible. In no case may a student miss more than one exam. A second missed exam would be recorded as a zero. The mid-term exam will be reviewed in class and may also be reviewed in the instructor’s office. Both exams, mid-term and final examination, will be kept in the instructor’s office.

Homework: Assignments will include the following: Supersite online exercises, pencil paper Workbook and Lab Manual exercises, and additional assignments per instructor. The instructor/professor may or may not collect written homework, but you are responsible for preparing it. Late work will not be accepted. See the section on page 9 on Academic Honesty at XU.

Students should always review grammatical explanations in textbook and view grammar tutorials on the Supersite before the class for which they are assigned. Very little time will be spent in class presenting the grammar. Classroom time will be for clarification to allow for greater comprehension and facilitate student participation.

Compositions: There will be 2 compositions, to be written in class per the instructor’s guidelines.

Charlas (Communication): There will be two charlas in the lab. The instructor will provide further guidance and tell you which days you are to go to the Learning Resource Center in CLC 404 for class. You will receive a reminder email as well. You must be on time!

Final Oral Interview: There will be a 10 minute oral interview with another student and your professor, in Spanish, to evaluate your oral proficiency. You will be asked to speak on a variety of topics, including those covered in the course. This interview will take place at the end of the semester. You will sign up for the interview date and time. Failure to keep your appointment will result in a zero (0).

Cultural Event Reaction Paper: You will attend a cultural program related to the Hispanic world which has been approved by the department and write a paper about it, following the explicit guidelines provided below the calendar on page 7.

Evaluation: The final grade will be computed as follows:

- Midterm exam: 10%
- Final exam: 15%
- Tests (5): 15%
- Participation-Attendance: 15%
- Homework: 10%
- Compositions (2): 10%
- Final Oral interview: 10%
- Charlas (2): 10%
- Cultural Project: 5%

Grading Scale:

- 100%-93%: A
- 76%-73%: C
- 92%-90%: A-
- 72%-70%: C-
- 89%-87%: B+
- 69%-67%: D+

S102 Calendario

FERIADO = holiday   PRUEBA= test   EXAMEN PARCIAL= midterm exam

Remember that you are to prepare the assignment prior to that day’s class.
Assessments are in red.
Note that chapter Vocabulario is found on the last colored page of each chapter with a yellow heading. Tabs are recommended on these to enhance access.

You will receive weekly updates to this departmental syllabus calendar that will include your specific daily assignments. I will not write assignments on the board. You must consult the updated calendars. Dates and assignments may be re-ordered. Canvas and emails will cover these changes and let you know about days when class will be held in the Language Resource Center.

You will have two graded conversations or” Charlas” during the semester in the Language Resource Center in CLC404. Possible dates for the Final Interview are on the syllabus in November.

CULTURAL EVENT Reaction Paper (5% of total grade)

5% of the final grade is allotted to a cultural activity report for SPAN 101, 102, 201, 202.
You may experience any of the cultural events listed below, as approved by the instructor, and write a 3 page typewritten double-spaced reaction paper. To receive full credit, you must follow the guidelines below exactly and turn in your paper within one week of the event. The personal reaction should each be at least two pages in length.

(NOTE: To say you learned a lot or that it was interesting does not constitute a reaction) Points earned are based on the quality of the work submitted (i.e. prose, accuracy, completeness, expression, and critical analysis.)

I. ACADEMIC HONESTY

2.3.9.1. Academic Honesty (Student Handbook, 107-8)

The pursuit of truth demands high standards of personal honesty. Academic and professional life requires a trust based upon integrity of the written and spoken word. Accordingly, violations of standards of ethical behavior will not be tolerated at Xavier University. These include but are not limited to cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized assistance in assignments and tests, and the falsification of research results and material.

All work submitted for academic evaluation must be the student’s own. Certainly, the activities of other scholars will influence all students. However, the direct and unattributed use of another’s efforts is prohibited as is the use of any work untruthfully submitted as one’s own.

Penalties for violations of this policy may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following: a zero for that assignment or test, an “F” in the course, and expulsion from Xavier. The Academic Dean of the college in which the student is enrolled is to be informed in writing of all acts of academic dishonesty, although the faculty member has authority to assign the grade for the assignment, test, or course. If disputes regarding the applicability or enforcement of this policy arise, the student, faculty member and department chair should attempt to resolve the issue. If this is unsatisfactory, the Academic Dean of the college will rule on the matter. As a final appeal, the Provost will call a committee of tenured faculty for the purpose of making a final determination.

Your instructor may use plagiarism detecting software, such as Turn-It-In, to review your written assignments. Help on specific homework from a tutor is also considered a violation since your work is yours not the tutor’s; tutors can help with general questions and grammatical problems; they are not to correct work that is going to be submitted for a grade. Copying homework from a classmate, copying from Internet sources including translation services, will be considered violations. As you can see, penalties for violations can be severe, so you are encouraged to submit only your own work in all your classes.

II. Department of Modern Languages ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Department of Modern Languages at Xavier University strives to increase the student’s fluency and competency in listening, comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing while providing a solid grammatical background for the modern language offered. The focus is on a communicative and proficiency-based approach while providing an in depth exposure to the workings of both language and culture of the target language. A significant key to success in a modern language course, which teaches a skill and moves at a fast pace is regular class attendance.

The entire range of the students’ skills can be evaluated only if they are in class. Therefore, we will allow NO absences without penalty. Any absence will result in a loss of 3% per absence from the student’s final course participation grade. Attendance will be accurately documented to ensure fairness in enforcement. If a student is more than 5 minutes late, he/she will be COUNTED AS ABSENT. Students are strongly discouraged to schedule appointments or interviews during class time!

There is a strict NO MAKE-UP POLICY. A grade of zero will be given for any missed work.

I showed interest in activities and participated, though sometimes passively rather than actively
I generally came prepared to class
I participated sometimes in class

Unsatisfactory
I used more English than Spanish in class
I did not pay active attention during activities (76-60)
I was often distracting and disrespectful of my peers
I was frequently unprepared for class
My presence in group work had little impact on accomplishing the task
I seldom participated in class

Not enough to evaluate
I used English only in class
I did not pay attention during activities (59-0)
I often slept, texted, surfed the web, did homework, etc., during class activities
I was absent frequently
I came to class late or left early
I never participated in class

IV. GRADING CRITERIA

A - VERY GOOD TO EXCELLENT

Very good to excellent command of the language AT THIS LEVEL.
Meaningful, appropriate and thorough written and oral responses with interesting and pertinent detail.
Ease of expression.
Makes every effort to use the target language in class.
Very good command of conventions of written language (orthography, sentence structure, paragraphing and punctuation). Few word-order errors.
Virtually free of significant errors in syntax and good use of verbs.
Wide range of vocabulary, including idiomatic usage.
High level of fluency with strong attempts at more complicated structures.
High level of comprehension in listening and reading activities.
Good intonation and largely accurate pronunciation with slight accent.
Demonstrates nuanced understanding of and appreciation for cultural differences.

B - GOOD

Clearly demonstrates competence AT THIS LEVEL.
Meaningful, appropriate responses orally and in writing with sufficient detail
Good command of the language.
Makes a good effort to use the target language; avoids using English in class.
Conventions of the written language generally correct. Loosely organized, but main ideas present with some word-order errors.
Few errors of syntax and appropriate use of verbs.
Above-average range of vocabulary.
Good idiomatic usage and little awkwardness of expression.
Good level of comprehension in listening and reading activities.
Good fluency with some attempts at more complicated structures.
Acceptable intonation and pronunciation with distinctive accent.
Demonstrates strong understanding of and appreciation for cultural differences.

C - ACCEPTABLE
Suggests competence AT THIS LEVEL.
Appropriate but limited oral and written responses with reliance on simple structures.
Speaks and writes with some detail, but not sufficient.
Comprehensible but strained expression; halting, may self-correct.
Makes some effort to use the target language in class.
May have frequent errors in orthography and other conventions of the written language.
Many word-order errors. Some attempts at organization, but with confused sequencing
Some serious errors in syntax and some successful correction. Frequent errors in complex structures.
Some fluency but hesitant. Pronunciation does not interfere with communication.
Understands main elements when listening and reading.
Moderate range of vocabulary and idiomatic usage. Few anglicisms.
Errors in intonation and pronunciation with heavy accent.
Demonstrates some understanding and of appreciation for cultural differences.

D - WEAK TO POOR
Suggests incompetence AT THIS LEVEL.
Oral and written responses force interpretation of appropriateness and/or meaning.
Attempts to translate or use English; avoids using or speaking in the target language.
Poor command of the language marked by frequent serious errors of syntax even in the most elementary structures.
Limited grammatical structures and lack of organization.
Unfinished answers due to lack of resources. Generally, narrow responses.
Limited fluency. Poor pronunciation and it interferes with communication.
Narrow range of vocabulary and of idiomatic usage.
Pervasive errors of orthography may be present. Excessive word-order errors.
Little control of syntax and frequent anglicisms.
Occasional redeeming features such as correct advanced structure.
Very little understanding when listening and reading.
Errors in intonation and pronunciation that interfere with listener’s comprehension.
Demonstrates very little understanding of and appreciation for cultural differences.

F - UNACCEPTABLE
Demonstrates incompetence AT THIS LEVEL.
Irrelevant or incomprehensible answers orally and in writing.
Unacceptable from almost every point of view.
Glaring weakness in syntax and pronunciation. Constant grammatical errors impede communication.
Few vocabulary resources. Little or no sense of idiomatic usage.
Practically no understanding of target language when listening and reading.
Severe problems with orthography that may interfere with written communication.
Demonstrates practically no understanding of and appreciation for cultural differences.

(These standards or interpretations of the grading scale 0-100 are applied to the goals and objectives of each level i.e. SPAN 101, 102, 201 etc..)
