Course Description: This is the second semester of a beginning Spanish course for students who have credit in Spanish 101 or have placed in the course by examination after having had two or more years of the language in high school. The principal goals of language study are to practice the four language skills (speaking, listening, reading and writing) in order to learn to communicate in Spanish (talk with others, express ideas in writing, read and understand what others have written) and learn about the Hispanic world. The target language will be used during class.

Please note: Students with 1.5 years or less of the language in high school are not required to take the placement test; they are considered true beginners and are required to take SPAN 101. All other students (2 years or more of the language in high school) are required to take a placement test in the language that they took in high school. If a student wishes to start a new language, he/she will start with any language in 101. Students wishing to move down to SPAN 101 will earn elective credit for that level and will fulfill the requirement with SPAN 102 and SPAN 201, thus honoring the original placement of SPAN 102. In order to change levels the student needs to see the chair or the language coordinator. Please consult with the instructor if you any other question regarding placement.

Course Objectives: You can expect to have obtained the following skills in increasing depth upon successful completion of each level of the course:

• You should be able to understand most Spanish spoken at a slower than normal pace, understand some Spanish spoken at normal pace, and develop skills and coping strategies necessary for filling in the gaps in order to grasp main ideas of imperfect comprehension.
• You should be able to ask and answer questions on a variety of everyday topics, describe people and places, narrate recurring (present) events, and achieve some ability in narrating past events.
• You should be able to perform many daily routines, such as greetings and so on.
• You should be able to read any simple material related to Hispanic literature and culture.
• You should be able to write about everyday activities, descriptions of people and places, recurring and past events.

In order to achieve these goals class attendance and participation are very important. Therefore, irregular attendance and/or lack of preparation or participation will result in a lower grade.

(Consult Attendance Policy)

(Consult Class Participation Criteria)

Testing: There will be scheduled lesson tests, a mid-term exam, and a final exam. Dates for the tests and exams are listed on the syllabus. Format will vary. Each of the tests and exams will consist of oral and written parts. Remember that after Lesson 1, each one presumes knowledge of previous material.

Make-up Policy:
Tests: There will be no make-ups for tests. The instructor will drop the lowest test grade or missed test grade in the semester. There will be a total of five tests (pruebas) during the semester.
Exams: There will be no individual make-ups for exams. In verifiable cases of illness or emergency (problems with work schedule or travel plans are not normally valid excuses), the grade from the next exam will be counted for the missed one. The student is responsible for notifying the teacher before the exam or as soon as reasonably possible. In no case may a student miss more than one exam. A second missed exam would be recorded as O. The mid-term exam will be reviewed in class and in the instructor’s office. Both exams, mid-term and final examination, will be kept in the instructor’s office.

Homework: Assignments will include the following: Supersite online exercises, pencil paper Workbook and Lab Manual exercises, and additional assignments per instructor. Students should always review grammatical explanations in textbook and view grammar tutorials on Supersite before the class for which they are assigned. This will allow for greater comprehension and facilitate student participation during class sessions. The instructor/professor may or may not collect written homework, but you are responsible for preparing it. Late work will not be accepted.

Compositions: There will be two compositions, to be written in class per the instructor’s guidelines.

Charlas (Communication): There will be two charlas in the lab. The instructor will provide further guidance.

Final Oral Interview: There will be a 10 minute oral interview with your professor, in Spanish, to evaluate your oral proficiency. You will be asked to speak on a variety of topics, including those covered in the course. This interview will take place at the end of the semester. You will sign up for the interview date and time. Failure to keep your appointment will result in a zero (0).

Cultural Event Reaction Paper: You will attend a cultural program related to the Hispanic worlds which has been approved by the department. Following the guidelines provided below the calendar

Evaluation: The final grade will be computed as follows:

I. ACADEMIC HONESTY

You should be aware of the University policy on Academic Honesty, as it appears in the Web site. This policy applies to all courses in the Department of Modern Languages.

“All work submitted for academic evaluation must be the student’s own. Certainly, the activities of other scholars will influence all students. However, the direct and unattributed use of another’s efforts is prohibited as is the use of any work untruthfully submitted as one’s own.

Penalties for violations of this policy may include one or more of the following: a zero for that assignment or test, an “F” in the course, and expulsion from the University”

Your instructor may use plagiarism detecting software, such as Turn-It-In, to review your written assignments. Help on specific homework from a tutor is also considered a violation since your work is yours not the tutor’s; tutors can help with general questions and grammatical problems; they are not to correct work that is going to be submitted for a grade. Copying homework from a classmate, copying from internet sources including translation services, will be considered violations. As you can see, penalties for violations can be severe, so you are encouraged to submit only your own work in all your classes.

II. Department of Modern Languages ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Department of Modern Languages at Xavier University strives to increase the student’s fluency and competency in listening, comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing while providing a solid grammatical background for the modern language offered. The focus is on a communicative and proficiency-based approach while providing an in depth exposure to the workings of both language and culture of the target language. A significant key to success in a modern language course which teaches a skill and moves at a fast pace is regular class attendance.

The entire range of the students’ skills can be evaluated only if they are in class. Therefore, we will allow NO absences without penalty. Any absence will result in a loss of 3% per absence from the student’s final course participation grade. Attendance will be accurately documented to ensure fairness in enforcement. If a student is more than 5 minutes late, he/she will be COUNTED AS ABSENT. Students are strongly discouraged to schedule appointments or interviews during class time!

There is a strict NO MAKE-UP POLICY. A grade of zero will be given for any missed work.
