Course Description: This is a third-year language development course for majors, minors, and for students wishing to continue their Spanish studies after their last language requirement course, SPAN 202, or have placed in an upper level course. It is designed to emphasize the development of language proficiency and to meet the National Standards for Foreign Language Education. Through community-based themes and connections to the Spanish-speaking community, students will review grammatical concepts, expand their vocabulary, and increase their communication strategies and communication skills. The students will also increase their knowledge and understanding of Hispanic cultures through readings, discussions and required community-engaged work. Classroom instruction and discussions will be exclusively in Spanish. Whenever necessary, supplementary materials will be incorporated into the curriculum of the class.

Course Objectives: The principal goal of this class is to offer students the opportunity to communicate in Spanish – to speak with others, to express ideas in writing, to read and understand what others have written. Practice in class is essential to achieve the goals of the class. By the end of the semester the student will have:

* acquired a higher degree of proficiency in all modes of communication;
* reinforced their knowledge of grammar and vocabulary through discussions and specific reading and writing exercises;
* acquired knowledge, awareness and respect for Spanish-speaking cultures and societies, as well as a deeper understanding of his/her own culture by being exposed to authentic historical, cultural and literary texts written by and for heritage speakers of Spanish;
* participated in community-engaged work while developing language skills, strengthening the student’s foundations of grammar and vocabulary and making connections with the local Spanish-speaking community.

These objectives prepare students to meet standard 2b of the XU Modern Language Standards.

Responsibilities of students:
* Attend and participate in class regularly. Failure to attend or to participate in class will affect your class participation final grade. You will earn a grade for your active participation at each class that includes your preparation (Attendance Policy and Class Participation Criteria are included).
* Prepare assignments before class. It is imperative to keep up with the schedule of the assigned material and the written exercises. The time in class will be devoted to discuss the readings and cultural aspects and to the review/clarification of grammatical concepts and exercises in the textbook and Manual de actividades and any other supplemental materials. You are expected to turn in assignments on time. No late assignments will be accepted.
* We expect you to actively seek the help of the professor when having problems with any aspect of the course.
* Take all tests and exams at scheduled times. You are responsible for all material covered in class and in the text. There will be no make-ups given for tests and exams.
* Failure to do assignments will affect your class participation and final grade.
* Electronic devices should be turned off during class.
*Exhibit appropriate and respectful classroom behavior. Eating, sleeping, reading the paper, laughing at other students, and negative attitudes and actions are all inappropriate classroom behaviors. Should you exhibit rude, disruptive or disrespectful behavior, you will be asked to leave the classroom and will be referred to the appropriate administrator.
*Please use the lavatory facilities PRIOR to arriving to class, unless, of course, it is an emergency, as entering and leaving are disruptive and distracting to both the instructor and classmates.
*Please do not start packing up before the end of the official class period as others are trying to hear what the instructor or another classmate is trying to say.
*Please do not participate in side discussions during classroom presentations by the instructor or other students. It is considered rude and disrespectful, not to mention you may be missing important information that is being conveyed.
*Please schedule your appointments, expected phone calls, flights, etc., around your courses. If a family member or another person is scheduling a flight for you, be sure that person has a copy of your class schedule. If a given class time is not convenient for you, you should either choose another course or time block or adapt to the time you have chosen.
*Please respect the questions and opinions expressed by other students in the class.

In turn, you can expect me to be professional, objective, well prepared, and ready for every single class session. You can expect me to be fully available to meet with you during my office hours and on special appointed times, and to give you implicit and explicit corrective feedback.

Evaluation:

Chapter quizzes: There will be four short quizzes over the course of the semester. There are no make-up quizzes. The quizzes will take approximately 25 minutes and they will test specific themes, grammatical concepts, vocabulary, and readings from a particular chapter.

Vocabulary presentation: You and another student will be responsible for presenting vocabulary from a specific lesson to the class from a chapter section (1-6). You may use any media you wish, as long as there is an explicit connection between your activity and the vocabulary. Some examples include: summarizing a news article from a Spanish-language newspaper; introducing us to a work of Spanish-language literature (poem, novel, short story, essay or play) that touches on the topic or that uses it as its principal theme; using music or a song; offering a biography of someone from a Spanish-speaking nation that illustrates much of the vocabulary and proceeding to establish explicit parallels between her/his life and the concepts; and organizing an interactive game, among others. If you would like additional suggestions or would like to suggest another creative alternative, I am more than happy to listen and help. You will have a maximum of ten minutes to complete the presentation/activity and will be graded individually on the following criteria: Effectiveness of presentation (40%), Oral exposition (30%), Preparation (30%).

Exams: There will be two examinations: a midterm and a final. In cases of verifiable illness or emergency the student is responsible for notifying the instructor before the exam or as soon as reasonably possible. If a student misses the midterm due to a verifiable and documented illness, the final exam will count twice. The format of the exams will be similar to the tests but will cover more material.

Composiciones: You will write two compositions dealing with the cultural aspects of a specific chapter discussed in class and following some of the guidelines suggested in the textbook. Detailed guidelines for this requirement will be provided.

Final Project: You are expected to watch one Spanish-language film and write a critical analysis in Spanish of three complete pages (minimum) to five pages (maximum) of that movie that explores one specific theme or topic that you find to be of interest (a list of films is provided at the end of the syllabus). Please keep in mind that this is a critical paper, not a movie review or summary. You will also provide a bibliography of a minimum of five scholarly articles and studies in Spanish that relate directly to your movie and thesis, that assisted you in viewing and analyzing the movie, and that you will be citing/quoting in your paper. I recommend that you begin the process soon, as all movies may not be readily available or may have been chosen by another student. In choosing a film, consider one that you have not seen before and may be of personal interest to you (filmed in a particular country, during a specific time period, about an interesting topic, etc.). Keep in mind you will have to watch the movie a number of times to look for possible themes, take notes, etc.

You will turn in the name of the movie on Sept. 16th to ensure that you have plenty of time to watch the movie and research it and that no two students are studying the same film. On Oct. 16th you will turn in an outline of your paper that will include your thesis, introduction, principal points, and conclusion (Please remember that some of the films are rated R or NC-17, which signals that they may contain disturbing images, scenes of violence, strong language, profanity, nudity, explicit sex scenes, drug abuse.) The grade of the thesis will be determined by the thoroughness of the outline, the clarity of the thesis, your preliminary bibliography, and the extent to which the outline effectively organizes your ideas. To watch the movie, you may request it through or use a number of different platforms: OhioLink, the Cincinnati Public Library, Netflix, etc. Please let me know if you have difficulties locating your movie. It may seem common sense, but you should watch your movie before you choose it for your final project.

The last two days of class, you will join with another student to offer an oral presentation that will summarize your final project. In the presentation, you and another student will have ten minutes to: 1) Summarize the films; 2) Offer your theses; and 3) Summarize the research, structure and conclusion(s) of your papers. You will also be expected to use some type of visual media such as Powerpoint. Due to limitations of time, you may not show clips of your film; you may, however, show poster artwork, photos of actors, and use bullet points for your main ideas, for example. After your presentation there will be a few minutes to take questions from the class.

The written project grade will be determined in the following manner: Thesis (10%), Outline (10%), Grammar (10%), Use of language/Style (10%), Organization (10%), Research (10%), and Analysis (40%). The oral presentation grade will be determined in the following manner: Organization (20%), Fluency (20%), Pronunciation (20%), Vocabulary (20%), and Grammar (20%).

*Class participation, attendance, homework: As always, class participation and attendance are essential in a language class. Your homework, active participation, progress, effort, and general attitude toward language learning will be evaluated. As should be self-evident, if you are not in class to participate it will affect your final grade.

*Final oral interview: Each student will meet with the instructor, outside of class during the last two weeks of the semester. The interview will last approximately 10-15 minutes. Failure to keep the assigned time of the interview will result in a 0.

I. ACADEMIC HONESTY (Student Handbook, 107-8)

The pursuit of truth demands high standards of personal honesty. Academic and professional life requires a trust based upon integrity of the written and spoken word. Accordingly, violations of standards of ethical behavior will not be tolerated at Xavier University. These include but are not limited to cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized assistance in assignments and tests, and the falsification of research results and material.

All work submitted for academic evaluation must be the student’s own. Certainly, the activities of other scholars will influence all students. However, the direct and unattributed use of another’s efforts is prohibited as is the use of any work untruthfully submitted as one’s own.

Penalties for violations of this policy may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following: a zero for that assignment or test, an “F” in the course, and expulsion from Xavier. The Academic Dean of the college in which the student is enrolled is to be informed in writing of all acts of academic dishonesty, although the faculty member has authority to assign the grade for the assignment, test, or course. If disputes regarding the applicability or enforcement of this policy arise, the student, faculty member and department chair should attempt to resolve the issue. If this is unsatisfactory, the Academic Dean of the college will rule on the matter. As a final appeal, the Provost will call a committee of tenured faculty for the purpose of making a final determination.

II. DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Department of Modern Languages at Xavier University strives to increase the student’s fluency and competency in listening, comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing while providing a solid grammatical background for the modern language offered. The focus is on a communicative and proficiency-based approach while providing an in depth exposure to the workings of both language and culture of the target language. A significant key to success in a modern language course which teaches a skill and moves at a fast pace is regular class attendance.

The entire range of the students’ skills can be evaluated only if they are in class. Therefore, we will allow NO absences without penalty. Any absence is a 0 for the day’s participation and will not be dropped. Attendance will be accurately documented to ensure fairness in enforcement. If a student is more than 5 minutes late, he/she will be COUNTED AS ABSENT. If a student enters after the class has begun but sooner than then five minute limit, that student will be considered tardy. Two tardies are equal to one absence, so it is recommended that you arrive in class punctually. If you have a class or circumstances that will affect your arriving on time, please let me know. Students are strongly discouraged to schedule appointments or interviews during class time.

There is a strict NO MAKE-UP POLICY. A grade of zero will be given for any missed work.
