GENERAL STATEMENT
ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

THE Department of Commerce of St. Xavier College was opened in October, 1911, for the benefit of young men, irrespective of their religious adherence, who have more than ordinary intelligence, energy and ambition, and who realize that thorough preparation is essential to success.

That there was a demand for a higher and more adequate system of education adapted to the requirements of modern commercial life was proved by the gratifying enrollment of a hundred young men during this first year who, either as regular or special students, kept up their interest to the end of the session.

During the following years the number of students in the different courses increased considerably. In 1914 the first students—twelve in number—graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science. Several have since taken the examinations of the Ohio Board of Accountancy.

In 1918 the courses of the Department were opened to admit women to matriculation. The adoption of this policy of co-education was prompted by the increasing demand from the commercial world for trained women as well as from the women themselves.

The work of the Department of Commerce is distinctly practical. Its instructors are men of affairs. Its aim is to educate the student in the methods of present-day business and thereby to add to his efficiency. The emphasis placed on the eternal principles of truth and honesty, as laid down in sound ethics, forms a distinct feature of the course.
Efficiency in this widest sense means a great deal more than mere skill in performing routine task. It implies breadth of view, keenness of observation, grasp of underlying principles—in one word, development of brain power for business activity.

The courses of instruction are so selected as to illustrate, correlate and draw together principles and facts which will form a mind able to grasp in a given business scheme and situation the principles involved, and to determine upon the best business methods.

The College is especially well equipped to train men in:

- Public Accounting.
- Cost Accounting.
- Auditing.
- Ethics.
- Political Economy.
- Banking.
- Transportation.
- Mercantile Business.
- Stock, Bond and Produce Brokerage.
- Credit Work.
- Commercial Law.
- Advertising, Salesmanship.
- Business English.
- Public Speaking.
- Commercial Spanish.

The different subjects, selected to give a thorough business preparation, aim at something much broader than that which is usually the object of the ordinary commercial school. The courses will appeal also to those men actually engaged in business who wish to understand the science of commerce in order to arrive at greater efficiency.
DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION

The subjects of instruction are broadly classified under three groups:

Economics and Business Administration with the subdivisions: ethics, political economy, economic resources, industrial organization, credits and collections, investments, finance, transportation, etc.

Accounting in its theory, practical problems, advanced and special accounting, cost accounting, auditing, preparing for the work of the professional accountant.

Commercial Law. Instruction in law has been designed not only for those who are preparing for the profession of Certified Public Accountancy, but also for men in general commercial or business life. Contracts, the ground-work of all law, Agency, Partnership and Corporations, are studied during the first year. Negotiable Instruments, Bailments and Carriers, and Bankruptcy are the subjects of the second year. Sales, Tenancy and Insurance, Taxation, and Property complete the law in the third year.

In addition to the above studies, required for obtaining the degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science, the following electives are offered:

Business English. The object of this course is to perfect the student in the command of correct, forceful and business-building English, oral and written. The classes are entirely thorough, beginning with a treatment of the fundamentals of the language and leading up to a systematized practice in the composition of every kind of effective letter used in modern business.

Advertising and Salesmanship. The economic, psychological and physical factors in advertising, together with the essential principle of artistic arrangement and English composition as applied to the construction of advertisements, are fully covered. The course also includes theoretical discussion and practical demonstration of the salesman’s problems.

Public Speaking. Every business man feels the need of being able to deliver an address at certain times. With the view to meeting this need, the course includes the theory and practice of Public Speaking.

Commercial Spanish is becoming of increasing importance on account of our growing trade with Latin America. The principal features of the course are conversation and letter writing.

Bookkeeping and Elementary Accounting is offered to accommodate such students as need this preliminary training in order to enter the Freshman class in accounting.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Degree Students. The minimum requirement for the degree student is a certificate of having completed a high school course of four years or its equivalent. It is desirable that the applicant have obtained the degree of Bachelor of Arts or have finished some college work.

Special Students. Entrance requirements for special students are: minimum age of eighteen years; ability to follow with profit the selected branches.

LOCATION AND TIME OF SESSIONS

The sessions of three periods are held in the College buildings, situated at Seventh and Sycamore Streets, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:45 p.m., on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. The College is easily reached from all parts of the city.

A reference library may be consulted by the students not only in the evenings, but also during the day.
ATTENDANCE

No credits can be allowed a student who has not faithfully attended the various courses for which he enrolled and who has not satisfactorily passed the examinations.

Attendance records are kept and absence from twenty per cent of the lectures deprives the student of the right to examination.

SPECIAL LECTURES

Special lectures on practical business problems are given from time to time as far as the regular work permits.

PRIZES

The J. D. Cloud gold medal is awarded to the Senior who attains the highest general average.

The Joseph Berning gold medal is awarded to the Junior who attains the highest general average.

Mr. Jesse Joseph, of the Joseph Advertising Agency, offers a gold and a silver medal to the students of the Advertising and Salesmanship class who show the greatest proficiency in laying out newspaper advertisements.

Callaghan & Co., of Chicago, present a Cyclopedia Law Dictionary to the Senior showing the greatest proficiency in commercial law.

Besides these, a number of other valuable prizes are offered by friends of the College to successful students in the various classes.

DEGREES

Bachelor of Commercial Science

The degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science will be conferred on regular students who have successfully completed three years of prescribed studies and have submitted a satisfactory thesis on some economic question. The program is so arranged as to prepare the student for the examination of the Ohio State Board of Accountancy.
Certificate of Proficiency

The Certificate of Proficiency will be granted to special students who have successfully completed the B. C. S. course, or its equivalent, but who have not fulfilled the entrance requirements for degree students.

TUITION AND FEES

A registration fee of $5.00, payable before enrollment, is required of all students at the beginning of any course. This fee is paid but once and is not returnable.

All tuition is payable semi-annually in advance. Students may not attend classes until the registration fee and tuition for the current semester have been paid.

No student once enrolled in a course will be allowed to withdraw except for very weighty reasons; and in no event will any part of his tuition be returned to him except in case of protracted illness.

ACCOUNTING

Bookkeeping and Elementary Accounting

The course covers, in a graded and rational way, transactions which are likely to occur in the conduct of a business. Its purpose is to prepare students for admission to Accounting I.

Special attention is given to journalizing, single entry, double entry, the development of the original journal into modern journals, such as cash, sales, purchases, notes, bills receivable and payable, controlling accounts.
Edward McCarthy, W. T. Burns.

1. PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING.
Thorough foundation in the fundamental principles. Laboratory practice by the student under the guidance of the instructor. A complete series of transactions in books of account to be worked out by the student. The matter is analyzed and demonstrated; demonstration supplemented by elementary theory and principles involved.

The transactions are founded on cases taken from actual practice. Beginning with accounts of a sole proprietor in single entry method, the change is made to double entry. The books are changed from cash basis to accrued basis. Simple trading goes over into manufacturing; partnership is added; a participation in the profits is sold to a third party; the original proprietor's part is taken by a new partner; the other partner dies; the remaining partner incorporates; the business of the co-partnership is taken over by a corporation; good will is involved in the transaction. The latest and best methods are introduced; a simple cost system is installed; goods are shipped and received on consignment; new capital is secured by a bond issue with a sinking fund clause; the corporation gets into financial difficulties; a receiver is appointed and the company is liquidated. Financial statements are interspersed; balance sheets; statements of income; profit and loss, of receipts and disbursements; of affairs and deficiency, of realization and liquidation.
Alfred H. Brendel.

2. ACCOUNTING PRACTICE.
Principles taught in the first year are illustrated by practical problems. These problems are divided into two groups, those for demonstration, worked in the class room, and for practice, required as independent work of the students.
Special attention is given to problems relating to sole proprietorship, co-partnership, corporation, consolidations and holding companies. The assets and liability method is carefully compared with the profit and loss method; the relation of the statement of income and profit and loss on the balance sheet is explained. Rule for finding missing accounts. Co-partnerships problems. Corporation problems relating to organization, receiverships, reorganization and sale relating to different kinds of capital stock, various assets, bonds, debentures, various liabilities, depreciation of property and plant accounts, valuation of raw material, goods in different stages of production, expenses, taxes.
Miscellaneous problems, involving fiduciary accounts of executors, trustees, agents.
Frank J. Crane.

3. COST ACCOUNTING.
The sources of cost and their analysis from the raw material through all processes of manufacture to the finished product; the units of cost and their apportionment; application of the principles advanced during the first year; cost of labor, skilled or unskilled; cost of storage, management and marketing; the cost of each department from production to market and the determination of the relative efficiency of each and the relation to the product; the cost of trading as distinguished from the cost of production of the finished product; the efficient method of cost keeping and comparative estimates of various systems of cost accounting; cost in relation to individual enterprises, copartner­ships and corporations.
Frank J. Crane.
4. ADVANCED PROBLEMS IN ACCOUNTING.

The course of Advanced Problems in Accounting includes treatment of the newer vehicles and methods of business transactions; the growth of the corporation as a great factor in commercial, financial and industrial enterprises, as distinguished from the establishment owned and operated by the individual; the practical substitution of the corporation for the individual business; the advantages of the corporate form and operation over the individual method; the uses of the corporate method and its liability to abuses; the trust and the combine; their uses and their abuses; the right of capital to concentrate; development of natural resources through the corporation; natural and statute law in their application to the business problems presented by modern methods of business; the law of supply and demand; statutory powers and privileges of the corporation and its consequent responsibilities to the State and the business world.

In all reports submitted by the students the language must be clear, direct and concise, avoiding the use of technical terms and phrases where unnecessary.

Edgar Biggs.

5. AUDITING.

Auditing in its relation to cost; the consequent duties of an auditor; the responsibility of an auditor; the basic principle of an audit; how it is made; papers, books, accounts with creditors and debtors, banks and trust companies; vouchers; the auditor supreme in all departments of accounts, stock taking, etc., from the beginning to the completion of his work; compilation of his report and its submission; absolute independence and integrity required in an auditing official, whether in State, municipal or private work; clearness, conciseness and directness the characteristics required in the report of an auditor with reference to the accounts, books, papers, etc., on which it is based; the several kinds of audits required in the newer methods of business today—banks, trust companies, corporations, fiduciary accounts, manufacturing establishments, commercial enterprises, insurance and railway companies, etc.

Edgar Biggs.

6. SPECIAL ACCOUNTING.

Public Accountants who through years of special study, research and practice have become recognized authorities in some particular department of accounting will give practical demonstrations of their work to the students.

BUSINESS ENGLISH

1. BUSINESS ENGLISH.

The principles of English composition, as related to commercial enterprise, are presented in detail. Correctness is the primary aim, particular attention being given to form. Practice is had in the preparation of outlines, composition of business letters, and criticism.

Charles H. Purdy.

2. BUSINESS ENGLISH.

The more advanced topics of business composition are considered. The discussions concern tone, exactness, accuracy in diction and effectiveness. Letters of credit, collection, adjustment, sales, application, etc., are thoroughly analyzed. Dictation, advertisement English, and reports are covered. Comprehensive practice is given in the writing of letters and reports. Individual and class criticism.

Charles H. Purdy.

3. WRITING FOR PROFIT.

A practical course in the art of writing for magazines, newspapers, trade, technical and secular publications, as well as the juveniles; and in teaching the marketing of such material in this country and abroad in such wise as to make the class-work pay for itself from the start.

The first half of each session is given over to a lecture, the theme being amplified with abundant references to topics of the hour. This is followed by a query period and a review of the previous lecture, after which there is protracted discussion of such material as the students may bring in, and suggestions for marketing and for manner of sale. How to gather the data; how to make it appeal to the specific class of readers reached by the given publication; how to prepare the manuscript and give it the professional touches that go so far toward effecting sale; how to maintain a market so established; the use of unsold material, and the securing of new clients in other fields, will be taught.

Felix J. Koch.
ADVERTISING AND SALESMAINSHP

The course in Advertising is intensely practical. It deals with advertising as its results are written in the story of business successes and failures. Subjects include: Principles of advertising, the theory and principles of advertising and selling, the place of advertising in modern business, comparative studies of great successes and diagnoses of some failures, psychology of advertising, copy preparation, the important place of illustration, choice of mediums, the force of newspaper appeal, mapping out campaigns, using street cars, outdoor advertising, magazines, class journals, house organs.

Class instructions are supplemented by talks given by representative advertising men who bring into the class the rich fruits of experience.

Ren Mulford, Jr.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

Special effort is made to improve the student's voice, bearing and action. His defective speech habits are corrected. He is taught how to think on his feet and talk directly to a small or large group. Opportunities to address the whole student body in debates, in prepared or impromptu speeches are offered at the general meetings.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

ST. XAVIER COMMERCE GRADUATES' ASSOCIATION

The Commerce Graduates Association, an organization of students who have completed a degree course, meets once a month for the discussion of current questions of importance, for social intercourse, and to promote the interests of the College, particularly by assisting students who are preparing for the C. P. A. examinations.

THE SOCIAL LEAGUE

The purpose of this organization is to further the activities of the student body along social lines, to bring the different classes and individuals into close contact with one another and to provide a common meeting ground for the entire school. The main feature of the meetings which are held every month throughout the year is an address which is delivered by some prominent man of affairs. These addresses have proven an invaluable source of inspiration, encouragement, information and entertainment to the members of the League.

The Social League conducts an employment bureau for the benefit of its members and the convenience of employers.

Opening Assembly. The annual Opening Assembly of the Department of Commerce and Sociology was held under the auspices of the Social League on Friday evening, September 20, 1918. This is a "get-together" meeting arranged for the purpose of having the students become acquainted with one another and with their future instructors. The attendance broke the record of any previous year, due chiefly to the presence of so many women who had availed themselves of the privilege of co-education adopted for the first time in 1918. A brief address was delivered by practically every member of the faculty.

Influenza Epidemic. Owing to the epidemic of influenza and the closing of all public institutions, no meetings of the Social League were held during the first four months of the 1918-1919 season.

War and Labor. The first regular meeting of the Social League took place on December 5th. Mr. James A. Wilson, noted Cincinnati labor leader, addressed the organization on the important results achieved by patriotic labor in the war and the future plans of Unionism.

Reconstruction. At the second session of the year, held on January 16, 1919, Mr. John P. Frey, editor of the Iron Moulders' Journal and member of the Reconstruction Committee of the American Federation of Labor, gave a resumé of the Federation's activities in support of the Allies and the program planned for the uncertain days of reconstruction.

Welfare Work. On February 20, 1919, Mr. Charles H. Brown, Welfare Worker at the R. K. LeBlond Machine Tool Company, gave a unique account of the duties of a welfare worker. The subject of his talk was "A New Light in Business Life."

Joan of Arc. The League was treated to an illustrated lecture on March 12, 1919. "Joan of Arc" was the subject of the story interestingly told by John Hardig, a Junior in the College of Arts.
Running Life's Bases. Professor Ren Mulford, Jr., lecturer in Advertising and Salesmanship and former newspaper editor and sport writer, delivered his famous address, "Running Life's Bases," on Friday, April 11th. This lecture has been heard in Canada and in twelve states of the Union.

Annual Banquet. The eighth annual banquet, held at the Gibson House on May 29th, totally eclipsed any previous social function of the Social League. One hundred and eighty-eight guests were present and the "spirit of old St. X" was well exemplified. Mr. William A. Julian and Mr. John L. Shuff were the speakers of the evening. The music was under the direction of Mr. Will R. Reeves.

THE XAVERIAN NEWS

A monthly paper, The Xaverian News, is the organ of the Department of Commerce and Sociology. The first issue was published in December, 1915. The paper is edited by the students under the supervision of the Professor of English. In February, 1917, the Social League took over its publication.

THE CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT LAW OF OHIO

State Board of Accountancy. Section 1370. There shall be a state board of accountancy consisting of three members not more than two of whom shall belong to the same political party. Each member of the board shall be a person skilled in the knowledge and practice of accounting and actively engaged as a professional public accountant within this state. (99 v. 332 ¶2.)

Appointment and term of members. Section 1371. Each year the governor shall appoint one member of the state board of accountancy who shall serve for a term of three years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. A vacancy in the board shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term. (99 v. 332 ¶2.)

Organization of the board. Section 1372. The state board of accountancy shall organize by the election of one of its members as president and one as secretary and treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall give a bond in such sum and with sureties as the board directs. The board shall keep a record of its proceedings. (99 v. 332 ¶2.)

Certified public accountant. Section 1373. A citizen of the United States or a person who has duly declared his intention to become such citizen, not less than twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, a graduate of a high school or having received an equivalent education, with at least three years' experience in the practice of accounting and who has received from the state board of accountancy as herein provided a certificate
Examination. Section 1374. Each year, the state board of accountancy shall hold an examination for such certificate. Each applicant shall be examined in theory of accounts, practical accounting, auditing and commercial law as affecting accountancy. If three or more persons apply for certificate within not less than five months after the annual examination, the board shall hold an examination for them. The time and place of each examination shall be fixed by the board. (99 v. 332\[1.\])

Fee for examination. Section 1375. At the time of filing the application for such examination and certificate, each applicant shall pay to the treasurer of the state board of accountancy a fee of twenty-five dollars. Such examination fee shall not be refunded, but an applicant may be re-examined without the payment of an additional fee within eighteen months from the date of his application. (99 v. 332\[3.\])

Certificates of other states, territories or foreign nations. Section 1376. A person who is a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention of becoming such citizen, who is at least twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, who has complied with the rules and regulations of the state board of accountancy, and who holds a valid and unrevoked certificate as a certified public accountant issued under the authority of another state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or of a foreign nation, may receive from the board a certificate as a certified public accountant if the board is satisfied that the standards and requirements for a certificate as a certified public accountant thereof are substantially equivalent to those established by this chapter. Such person may thereafter practice in this state as a certified public accountant and assume and use the name, title and style of “certified public accountant” or any abbreviation or abbreviations thereof. (99 v. 333 ¶6.)

Revocation of Certificates. SECTION 1877. For sufficient cause the state board of accountancy may revoke a certificate issued under this chapter if a written notice has been mailed to the holder thereof at his last known address at least twenty days before hearing thereon. Such notice shall state the cause of such contemplated action and appoint a time for hearing thereon by the board. No certificate issued under this chapter shall be revoked until after such hearing. (99 v. 333 ¶7.)

Compensation and expenses. SECTION 1878. From fees collected under this chapter the board shall pay the expenses incident to its examinations and the expense of preparing and issuing certificates, and to each member of the board for the time actually expended in the performance of his duties a sum not exceeding five dollars per day and his necessary traveling expenses. In no case shall the expenses of the board or the compensation or traveling expenses of the members thereof be a charge against any fund of the state. (99 v. 333 ¶4.)

How this chapter construed. SECTION 1879. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed so as to prevent any person from being employed within this state as a public accountant. (99 v. 334 ¶9.)
